NOTES:

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, from Line 5

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe may be the only surviving artifact from Line 5.

Over a year before I discovered the 7 timelines, in The Wagers, I explained God changed the human beast, of Revelation 13:18, from Rockefeller to Gardner, because Satan and the West removed Nuestra Señora's crown, violating a central Wager term. God imposed this restriction because removing the crown would disrespect the Virgin Mary, and God's Daughter, Natas –and because His Revelation solver (me) needed the crown baseline to measure Guadalupe's height and solve the mystery of Juan Diego's enormous height (see page 107 of Killing Guadalupe). However, in my Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe poster, I saw the line where the thieves cut out the crown, along the base, and was still able to solve the mystery. At the time, I speculated that God may have also changed the beast due to the US opening the world's first gay bathhouse, in New York City, in 1888. However, the Candelaria Likeness revealed there were no gay bathhouses on Line 5. Thus, since the theft of Nuestra's crown was catalytic to God creating Line 5, gay bathhouses, on Line 7, had nothing to do with God's decision to change the beast.

But here's how we know the Nuestra Señora we have is from Line 5…

As explained in chapter 2, Line 5 begins in the middle, in 1888, then goes to 2025, then reverses back to 1555, where it ends, before it began. In chapter 2, I wrote:

> "Line 5 is different from the other timelines in other respects, as it can be viewed as beginning in 1555 or 1888. If we see it as beginning in 1888, it then moves 137 years into the future, to 2025; but, when God reverses time, Line 5 ends in 1555, 333 years before it started. Confusing. Thus, I prefer to see Line 5 as beginning in 1555 –and made unique by the fact that, on Line 5, God replaced the originally intended Beast (Rockefeller) with Gardner."

However, if you view Line 5 as beginning in 1555, when God reversed time in 2025, the entire previous timeline, 1555 to 2025, was erased. With that explained, the theft of Nuestra's crown triggered the 1888 Line 5 phantom timeline change (this was not a reversal), and for the remainder of Line 5, Nuestra Señora had no crown. The problem is: Nuestra has no crown today –but once Line 5 was reversed to 1555, Nuestra's crown should have been restored –as it certainly was. But at some point, by the hand of God, the Line 7 crowned-Nuestra Señora was replaced by the crownless Nuestra Señora from Line 5. Consistent with this, Nuestra's crown was first noticed and reported missing on February 23rd, 1888 (although the date it actually went missing is unclear). From this, I believe Church officials and others suddenly noticed Nuestra's crown was missing in early 1888, after God reached out and replaced the Line 7 crowned-Nuestra Señora with the crownless Line 5 Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. God may have done this to remind Satan of his Line 5 crimes.

Line 5 Crossover Memory

According to the Elder badge timeline key (seen on page 3), on Line 5, Dennis Wilson (my once beloved stepdad on Line 7) died in 1970, of an overdose, in Mexico. This family trip, and the overdose, also happened on Line 7, but Dennis did not die from the overdose.

In 1970, here in Line 7, four members of my family (Dennis, my mom, my sister Ruthie, and me) went to Mexico with 5 members of the Shapiro family (Joe, his wife Maxine, Joe's brother Toby, and Joe and Maxine's two kids: Teddy and Jeffy), in Dennis' VW truck and Joe's VW Beetle. The age range of the adults was 24 to 28 years old; the kids were 3 to 7 years old.

In 1970, my family and the Shapiros lived in Berkeley, California, one of America's drug capitals. Dennis, Joe, Toby and Maxine were all hippies. When we got to Mexico, we camped for 3 or 4 days on a public beach. As soon as we got to the beach, Dennis pulled a handful of different pills -recreational drugs- from his pocket, in front of my mom and Toby, and suddenly swallowed them all, probably washed them down with beer. I didn't see the incident, but my mom and Toby recounted it, regularly, for years. After taking the pills, Dennis crawled under the rear of his VW crew-cab truck, to get out of the hot sun, and went to sleep. He remained under the truck, without moving -no bathroom, no water- for two days. A few times each day, I asked him for money for a soda, but he didn't respond.

Years later, at least twice in my presence, while reminiscing about the incident with Dennis, Toby said something like, "I thought you were dead for sure, champ."

My only bad memory of the trip to Mexico was on the way home, we left the beach hastily. The kids had to ride in the hot back of the truck, with Maxine, with the canvas cover closed, so we couldn't see anything around us. At a point the truck stopped, quickly, and Toby gave us some water. I don't think we stopped again until Berkeley. Over the years, when my family visited with the Shapiros, everyone recalled the trip, and Dennis under the truck, but no one recalls a miserable ride home, in the back of the truck.

My memory of the ride home is from Line 5, where Toby and Joe found Dennis dead under the Truck. Rather than facing Mexican police about an overdose death, and facing jail time for smuggling drugs into Mexico, Toby and Joe wrapped Dennis up, and put his body in the crew-cab of the truck, and resolved to drive everyone back to California, USA, and delivery Dennis's corpse to any US authorities. My mom was distraught, so she probably rode with Joe, in the Beetle. Toby drove Dennis' crew-cab. The adults kept the canvas cover down because they knew if I or Ruthie looked out and noticed Dennis was not driving his truck or the Beetle, panic might ensue.

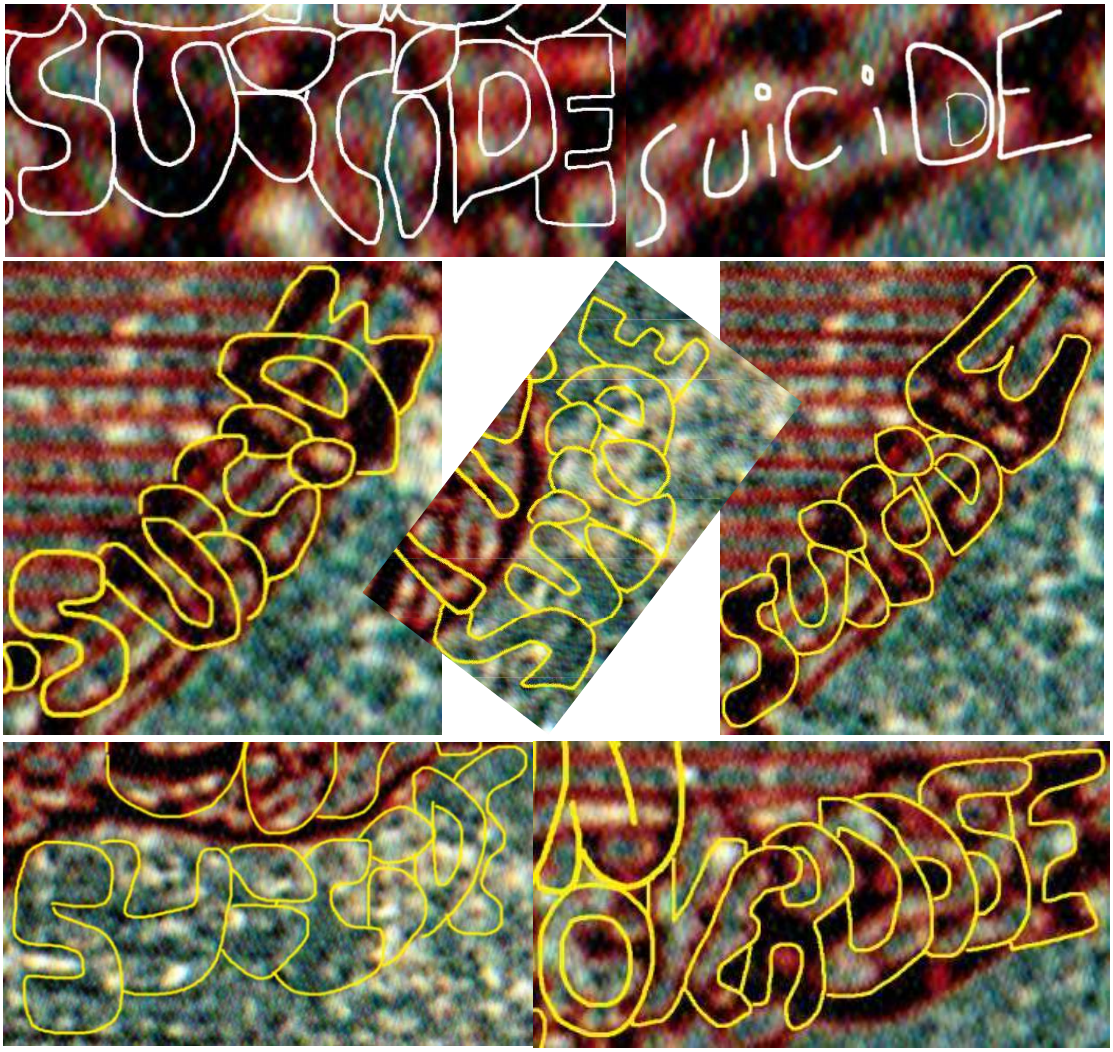
The Suicide Solution



Six of Steve-A's family members died by suicide, one by overdose.

Acting on his own, Satan can try to kill a person a few ways, (tempting a person to kill themselves, tempting others to kill a person…). Satan can only certainly kill by possessing victims and forcing them to kill themselves; thus, Satan killed 6 of Steve-A's loved ones. I believe God allowed Satan to kill as many Satanists, Masons and truly evil people as he wished, but only allowed Satan to kill one good person per year, or so.

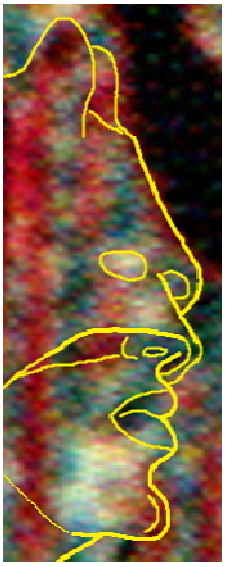
I believe one of the points of God's suicide/overdose Revelation is: Satan recognized Dennis Wilson as weak-minded and under-confident, so he chose to tempt Dennis into an impulsive overdose, rather than wasting one of his precious permits to murder a non-evil person (Wilson was a paid serial killer on Line 7, but on Line 5 he was just a normal guy).

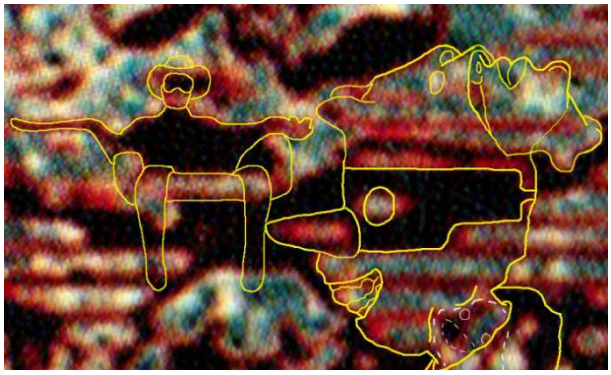
Satan was not permitted to kill my loved ones on Line 7 –but he was free to tempt them into a fatal decision.

I believe Jesus, independently, acted to revive Dennis, to help Satan. As God was in a Wager with Satan, He could not reverse any action Satan took that was not a rules violation.

- The fact that Satan possessed Hitler invites the possibility (which I view as probability) that Satan possesses/possessed US President Donald Trump. As Trump is a hateful moron (with his supporters), Satan could come and go, at will, and no one would be the wiser. Satan possessing Trump's could explain Trump's pedophilia and his inordinate number of homosexual partners, documented in STSN, pages 196 to 199.

- Some of you who have read Steve's Top-Secret Notebook may recall God and/or Jesus included the striking image of Batman (right), in the base of the Elder Badge. It appears that image was a confirmation image; to confirm Steve-A created Batman.

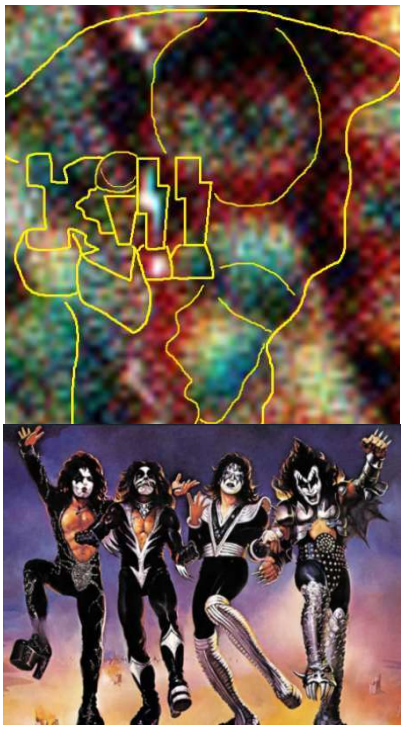


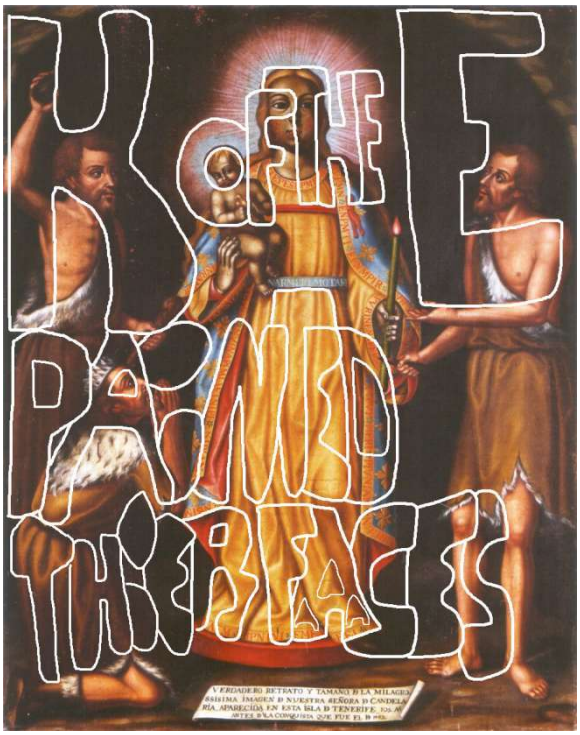


In actuality, the image is positioned horizontally on the Elder Badge (right), and Batman's head is attached to the head of my step-uncle David (David Wilson, with the long nose, confirming his facility for lying). David is positioned by Satan's throne. This arrangement suggests David was one of the people Satan told about Line 5 –where Satan goes to steal Steve-A's movies, songs and comic-book characters. (Of course, Gardner or Malone would have spoken to David for Satan.)

- Likeness Note: As explained herein, and in The Candelaria Code, i-Satan made changes to some areas of the digital copy of the Candelaria Likeness (right), and possibly to the actual image. Because I cannot find a verifiable copy of the image (often called Candelaria Between Guanches), I am not certain what the true image looks like. This is why every nation must protect their internet system. I suspect God permitted this cheating because Satan's surface changes did not alter the message lines or the confirmation keys (see The Candelaria Code). Satan also may have repainted the Guanches white (and he would have found this hilarious). The Guanches originate in Africa, so their skin in 1392 to 1426 would have been quite dark.

King-Kiss





The image on the top left is from the Elder Badge, an image of Satan, with the name of the rock band Kiss on his shoulder, the two S's are almost identical to the S's in the Kiss logo. Kiss famously painted their faces, as seen in the image above, bottom left. To the right, is an image message in the Candelaria Likeness, from chapter 3, part II, stating Steve A's first band, Kings of the Earth, painted their faces. God provided these details for me to connect the dots. With the Kiss logo, near Satan's face and his big one eye (STSN informs us one-eyed Willies are various forms of obsessions), God and Jesus are saying Satan stole the idea of Kiss from Kings of the Earth; but the characters in Kiss represent Satan's unnatural sexual obsessions (one-eyed Willies), some of which he promulgated in his War against God: homosexual sex (the star-child), bestiality (the cat-man), sex between beings from different planets (the spaceman), human-to-demon sex (the demon).

Foreign Interference : Creative Repression

- Satan seems to love symbolism. The endless and often petty interferences Satan arranged in my life (see STSN and My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers) were symbolic of the methods he and the US/West employed with non-White nations. Satan constantly interfered with my money; it's hard to create when you are struggling to pay the rent. Likewise, Satan and the West conspired to keep non-White nations in subsistence positions, to keep them from establishing the mental security and resources necessary to create, invent and compete effectively.

- Z Formation

MYSTERY: In chapter 1, I indicated that God always appears to depict timeline reversals with a Z formation. Why does He do this?

SOLUTION: God does this to visually indicate the previous timeline will not be erased (well, at least not forgotten), to assure us that every soul on that prior timeline will be fairly judged and sentenced to death, or Gehenna, or earn entry into Heaven. If God erased the previous timeline, then re-drew a new line over the old timeline, that would send a troublesome message. But with a Z shape, the top vertical line represents the original timeline, which ends, and the diagonal bar runs down left, to the new timeline (the lower horizontal bar), leaving the old timeline undamaged, which visually communicates: the original timeline may have ended, but it is not forgotten or erased.

- The R's

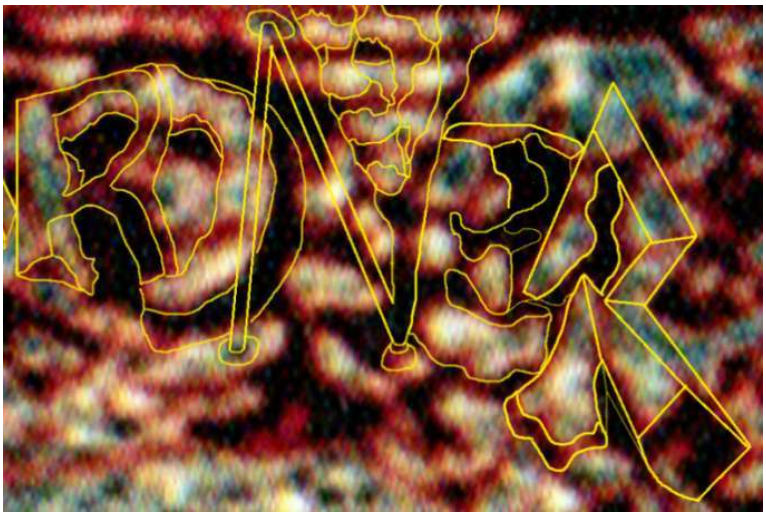
In chapter I, Part III, you saw two artistic expressions of Gardner's name. Possibly the most interesting aspects of those renderings are the two very artistic R's in Gardner's last name, pictured to the right, top and bottom.



God's use of sacred images, and an artist solver to find images within those sacred images, is a message to all nations not to suppress or over-censor the ideas and creativity of your people.

The double-R's are a huge expression of approval for the power of rock 'n roll.

The double-R's were also a sign that, in this unusual situation, God was in a role reversal with Satan, and His actions could appear villainous, as He was prepared to resort to extraordinary and unconventional measures, to spare billions from great suffering. This may Signal there are rare extraordinary times, when we must resort to extraordinary measures.

- Jesus speaks in much of Revelation, but he is usually referred to by an alternate name, pronoun, etc. These alternate names can be construed as references to Emanuel.

Steve-A's Pain

Solving God's Revelations requires a high creative IQ. A high conventional IQ would be helpful, but not necessary. Still, since Steve-A's conventional IQ appears to have been considerably higher than mine, I wondered, quietly, if God may have been better off if Steve-A was here, on Line 7, with me back on Line 5?

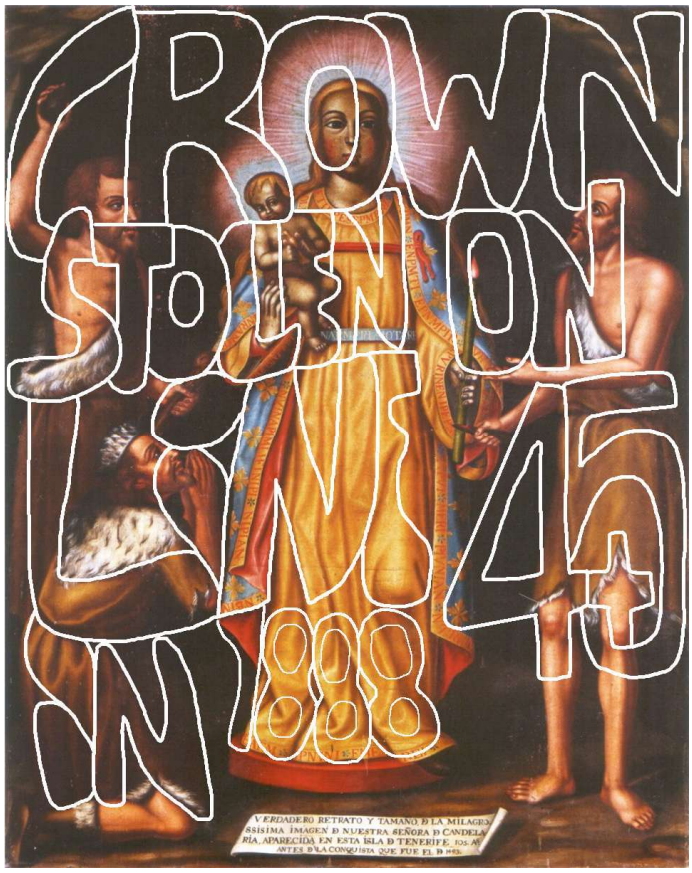
After a few days of wondering this, I found the image above, hidden in the left end of the Elder Badge base. It's an image of Steve-A, very sad about all the people who were dear to him who died. Below his face is a smile that is turned sideways.[1] The smile is not deformed, so it does not represent going against nature.[2] I believe, with the sideways smile, God is saying Steve-A tried to smile and endure, and not impose his pain upon others. The fact that I experienced a bit of pain, but nothing like Steve-A, may have left me better prepared to solve Revelation. Sadness and depression can decrease productivity.

But Steve-A is the guy who turned back time, and demanded that Satan not be permitted to harm his (our) family on Line 7. So, if on Line 7, I was better prepared to solve Revelation than Steve-A, it's because of Steve-A.

I estimate that Steve-A's conventional IQ was considerably higher than mine, not because of his electronic inventions (although that is informative), but because of his apparent ability to remember detailed written guitar solos (Watchtower, Eruption, Stairway…). My primary -and possibly only- discernable weakness caused by the pneumonia-related brain damage I suffered as a 2-year-old is my short term memory recall. Creatively, the only way this has impacted me is it makes remembering written guitar solos difficult; if I didn't practice my written original solos regularly, I'd forget them; so, by the time I was 18 or so, I resolved to focus on improvising, and I improvised 90 to 95% of my solos. My unimpressive short term recall also makes it harder for me to remember other artists' songs.

[1] These images have at least two meanings. I'm only prepared share one, presently.
[2] STSN reveals that layered, intertwined lip formations, hidden in the Elder Badge, represent going against nature.

More Candelaria Image Messages:



I found both of these images messages, left and down, in the Candelaria Likeness, but couldn't find a clear place to use them in the story. Both refer to Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe's crown, They read:

1. (left) Crown Stolen On Line 4 & 5, in 1888*.
2. (below) Satan Took Nueastra's Crown*.

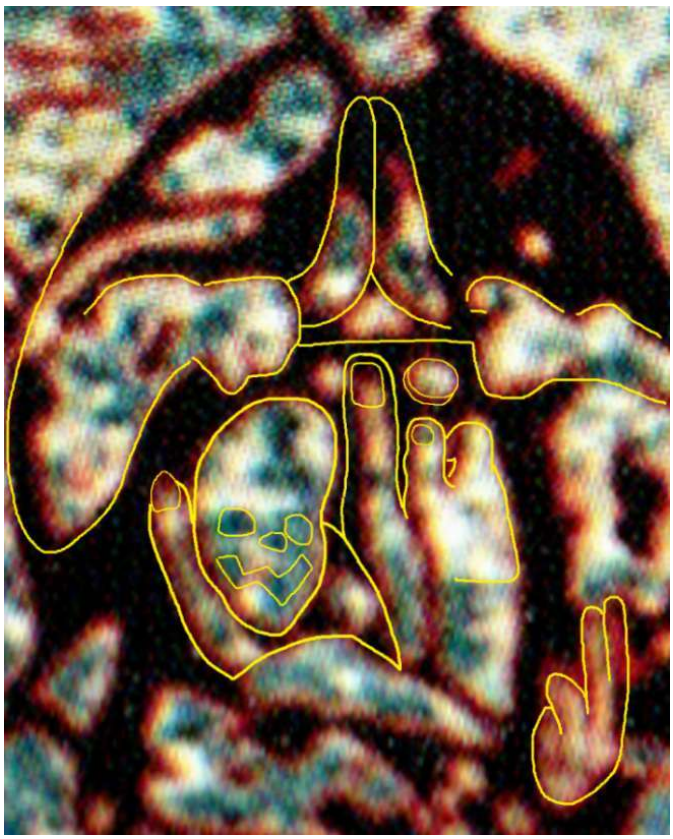
Dr. Satan

As radio and television became prevalent, an increasing percentage of people developed strong desires to be famous and widely admired, at almost any cost. Satan exploited this, and most Western politicians, actors and musicians were selected for celebrity and power according to their willingness to do anything to be famous. Satan used his knowledge of the human mind to advance Western psychology. In rare snippets, we can see Satan use Hollywood to reveal this insider knowledge, such as the scene in Silence of the Lambs, when Hannibal Lecter explains that people covet what they see every day.

Tireless Satan and Steve-A

In the first chapter of Genesis, God (with Jesus) creates light, the universe, mankind… In this, God honors hard work, cooperation and great achievement. In that model, in this story, Satan and Steve-A work tirelessly to achieve impossible things. This should inform our understanding of what God admires –even in a villainous rival.

In the cover backdrop image, to the right, there are four hands in the area inside the semi-invisible steering wheel. God's thumb is in the center; Jesus, the Deity who turned back time to save a friend, is the smaller hand, flipping the coin; Satan (with his hand around the skull's neck) is the forced who committed the deeds that required all of these time interventions; Steve-A, with his blazing fast left hand, in the lower right corner, is the man who solved God's Mysteries, and learned he had the right and duty to ask God to turn back time.



These are the literal and figurative hands of the entities that rocked time.

Steve-A Vs Steve-B

I'm a terribly competitive person. When I learned there was a prior me, it was inevitable that I'd start comparing stats.

Steve-A's musical accomplishments and aptitude can't be touched. In the next life, if I recover my short-term memory, I'll work to narrow the gap.

But in literary works, believe it or not, in a way, I win. Steve-A produced many more works (and extremely high quality). But Butterfly Driver (also called Uberopolis: City of Light), stolen many, many times over, is the most influential (and profitable) written work, ever (although IP thieves collected all of the profits). To confirm this, in the image above, the Butterfly Driver's hands are on the wheel, above the other hands. My Star Wars short probably gets the second spot also.

We might guess Steve-A wins the invention category, but nope. My actionable concepts of (1) aggregated data, which could then be inserted into a (2) replicator accelerator, and used predict human behavior and event outcomes, and (3) digitally modeling human minds, bodies and souls, may have redirected more federal and private investment than any ideas of the 21st century. In fact, portions of these ideas are so evil that you'll get extended time in the hottest levels of Gehenna/Hell for even trying to achieve them. True.

So, Steve-A wins by a mile. But I'm not quite irrelevant.

Among the Most Important Revelations

The fact that Dennis Wilson died of an overdose, on a Mexican beach, on Line 5, but on Line 7, and Jesus revived his from death on that same Mexican beach, is among the most important Revelations in my Revelation-related writing. (NOTE: again, because God was directly involved in the Wager with Satan, and precluded from such intervention, I believe Jesus opted to revive Dennis.)

The reason this intervention (reviving Dennis from death on Line 7) is so important is: on Line 7, Satan's War Against God had maybe six prongs: 1. corrupt Jews; 2. corrupt Christianity; 3. corrupt God's word; 4. corrupt all social institutions; 5. spread hatred –particularly racial hatred; 6. spread Mark and Image Crimes.

But, after I was born, Satan added a new priority (well, the same priority he had for his final 56 years on Line 5): harm me, to reduce my ability to solve Revelation.

On Line 5, Satan believed the best way to prevent me from solving Revelation was by killing my loved ones. That didn't work (and because Satan personally killed my family, related to a wager with God, they will certainly be admitted into Heaven.)

But, on Line 7, Satan was able to do great harm to my loved ones, and damned many of them, which hurt me –and many of these souls will never see Heaven. The crimes that Satan bribed my family and friends into committing against me were so vast that God willed it that one of the Elder Badge's primary functions would be to reveal my family and friends' crimes –including murders committed by step-family and friends.

These Elder Badge R/revelations are more important than they may appear, as they demonstrated that Satan's basic premise was correct: the vast majority of humans will betray their family and friends for money –or for enough money.

So… Satan's attacks on me, by corrupting my family and friends, were very successful; but they didn't prevent me from solving God's Revelation or R/revelations.

These attacks appear to have been about 75% of Satan battle plan against me. But these plans all relied on Dennis Wilson surviving. But, back in 1970, lacking a War plan, Satan tried to kill Dennis Wilson on a beach in Mexico.

After Jesus revived Dennis, soon Satan recruited Dennis and David Wilson into a new long term plan. Satan then recruited Michelle Wilson, and Sara, and Marina, and my friend… Thus, any Wager victories Satan earns related to my Revelation work is owed to the fact that Jesus revived Dennis from death, in 1970.

MYSTERY: The question then becomes: Why did Jesus revive Dennis Wilson, giving Satan a powerful weapon to harm and betray me?

SOLUTION: So Satan would eventually use Dennis, the Wilsons and my friends to betray me; creating a need to reveal these vast crimes in the Elder Badge, which would help humans better understand how fundamentally corruptible they tend to be. This Revelations also shows How Jesus' unconventional actions facilitate His Father's will.

STATEMENT: God Still Bothering Me

In the late April 2025 update of Killing Guadalupe, in the arrowhead section, page 146 or 147, I explained that I believed that God wanted me to confirm and document that He was doing many things to frustrate me and make my R/revelation work difficult (I also made this clear in STSN, chapter 14, etc.). I suspect the expectation that I document God's ongoing problematic behaviors continues. Thus, I hereby confirm God, in curtain form, has continued to engage in all the disruptive behaviors described in Killing Guadalupe and STSN. These behaviors began in the fall of 2024, and have not stopped. The behaviors tend to end when it is night, then resume in the day.

The Wolf Hidden In the Image of Liberated Western Women.

The same image area contains a couple of hidden images of Satan, outlined to the right and left.

Who Watches the Watchmen

Over the past 10 years, or so, I've investigated and published probably a few dozen legal papers, reports and stories on the various methods US and Western elites have developed to backdate and falsify internet records, websites, copyright records, book ISBNs, intent archives crawls, comic-books, Wikipedia sources… That investigative work also involved investigating and revealing how the US/West falsified nations histories, with fraudulent archeological "finds", including the Rosetta Stone, and how they falsified the Bible with the Dead Sea Scrolls (research that has awaken minds and ethics discussions –among Westerners lacking the ethics to attribute the person who revealed it all).

Thus, with accuracy and understatement, I am a peerless expert on records falsification.

April 2026, I discovered the 7 timelines of mankind, and Steve-A (Steve K. Yayayar), who once lived on Line 5 (see L5:THTRT). Steve-A is responsible for countless famous literary works, movies and songs. He also in the true creator of the Watchmen comic-book mini-series. In that series, Steve-A, first posed the powerful question, "Who watches the watchmen?"

On Line 7, the US/West attributed the origin of that line (Who watches the watchmen?) to the Roman poet Juvenal (who may also be another Western invention). Juvenal is alleged to have lived from 55 AD to 128 AD, and to have written at least 16 poems.

To attribute Steve-A's line to Juvenal, the West alleged that in 1899 British Latinist E. O. Winstedt somehow found 36 lines of undiscovered Juvenal poetry lying around the Bodleian Library at Oxford, 1,771 years after Juvenal died. If you trace this story, you learn it originates in 1918, in a single sentence in an obscure (possibly falsified) book by G. G. Ramsay.

This story has greater meaning. I believe the reason God, in curtain form, continued to do all the unpleasant things to me, described in STSN (see chapter 14) and Killing Guadalupe (Post section), was to get me to ask, "Who watches the W*atcher*s?"

On Earth, the watchmen are police, politicians, military, media moguls and publishers… The solution to who watches the watchmen? must be citizens' oversight panels, who watch the watchmen and themselves, with power to launch investigations and arrest. Oversight without teeth is meaningless. National reforms should include oversight panels, at all levels.

Revelation 20:4 and other Divine disclosures (e.g., L5:THTRT, chapter 8) indicate God and Jesus utilize tools analogous to oversight panels.

Science

On page 1, I promised scientific evidence of Line 5. That evidence has 3 parts, based on 5 messages in and around the Elder Badge, and three confirmation image messages in the Candelaria Likeness, all of which follow.

PART ONE is pretty simple: Satan and the West used deliberately falsified theories to mock knowledge and God. One of their great theories was $E=MC^2$. Months ago, in STSN, I called $E=MC^2$ junk. In time it will be proven to be junk. Satan learned that God had imbued certain materials with certain reactive properties, then misapplied the scientific method to link $E=MC^2$ to nuclear detonations. My evidence is simply: all of the scientist who have retreated from $E=MC^2$ since I attacked it in 2025. A couple years ago the entire scientific world accepted that absurdity as prereq to enter the world of pre-paid corporate junk-science. Soon no one will accept that theory. Until $E=MC^2$ can be explained and demonstrated, without Western smoke and mirrors, Line 5 existed.

In the Notes of STSN I explained: The true meaning of $E=MC^2$ is M (13) times C (3), which equals 39; squared (39 x 39), which equals 1521. 1521 is the year Satan began to divide God's Western Christian Church, in the Edict of Worms. The E in the equation refers to the Edict; and alphanumerically E = 5, to reference Revelation 13:5, the verse that first speaks of Satan and Martin Luther's attack on the Church, in the Edict of Worms, in 1521. E (5) also refers to 1555, the year God's Church was officially divided (referenced in Revelation 13:6).

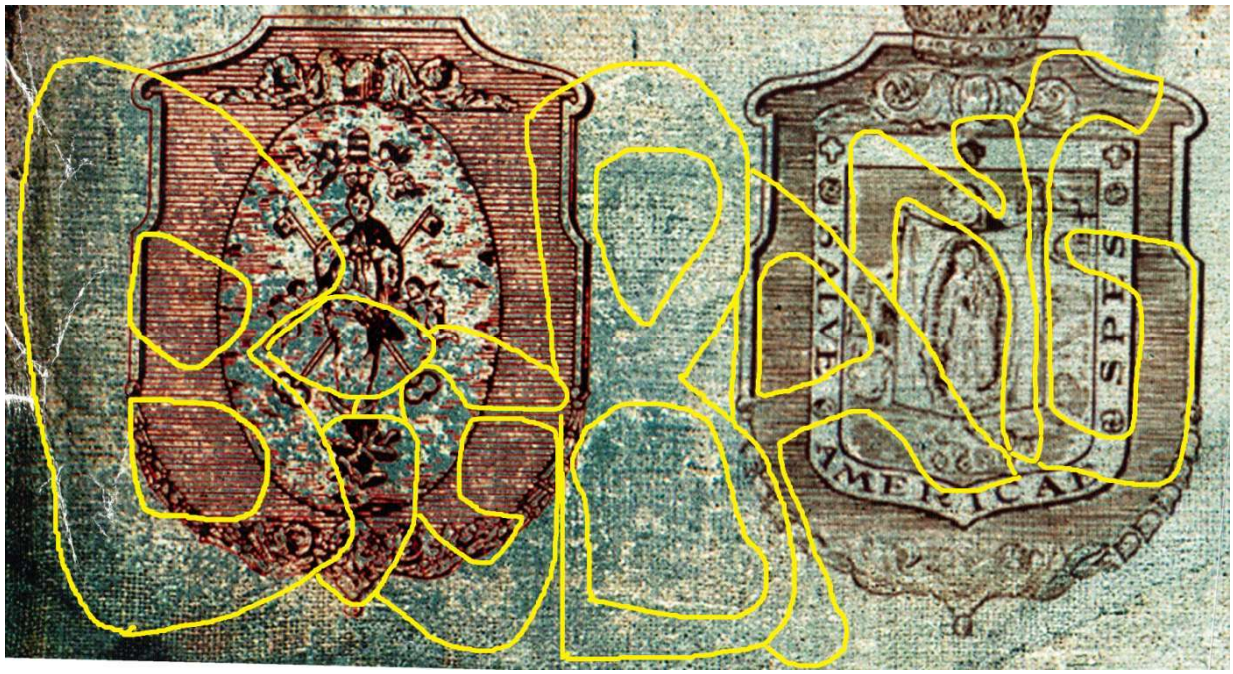
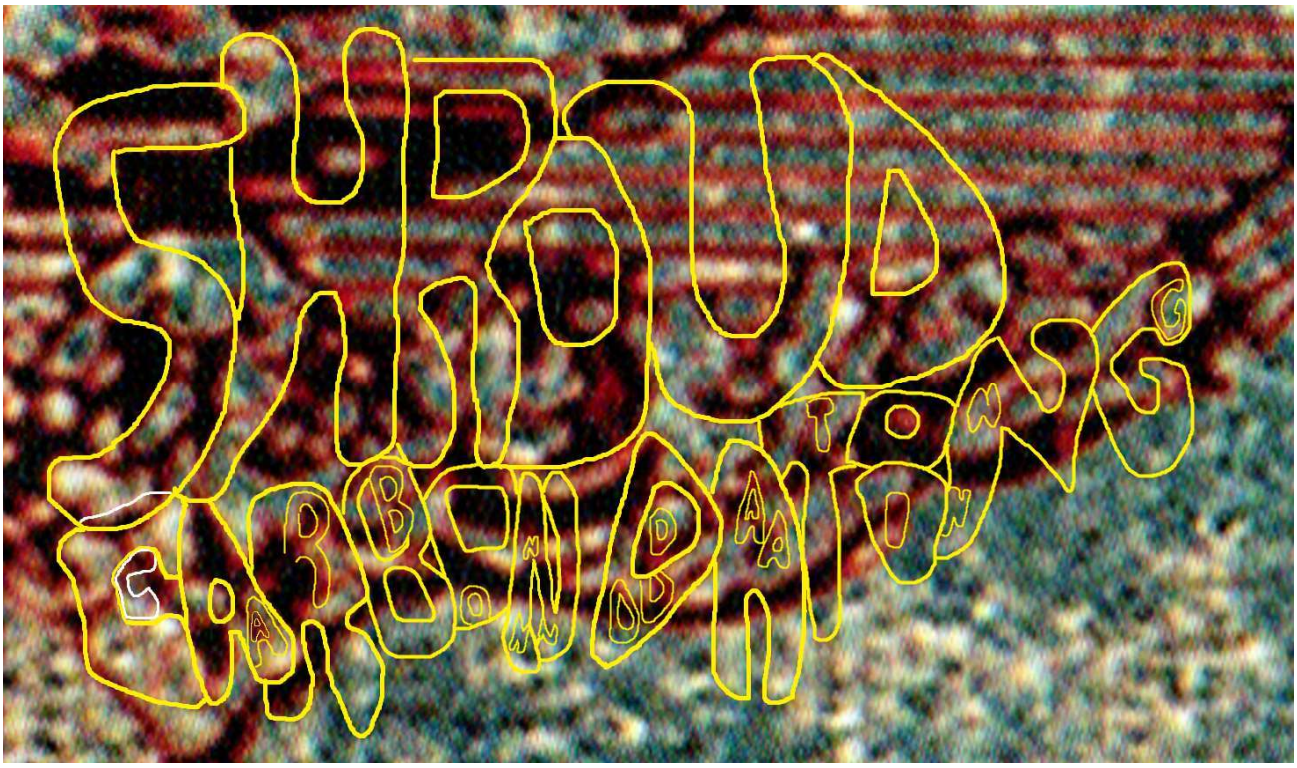
PART TWO is a variation on part one. As you saw in chapter 3, Part II, the Big Bang is literally written all over the Elder Badge and the Juan Diego Badge, as you see in the image below. This was a direction from God to attack the Big Bang as absurdity, every syllable, ever. The infinite universe did not explode out of an area smaller than a needle tip. Any fake scientist that conformed to that nonsense should be decertified. As the man who defended true science from throngs of pretenders who will say anything for approval or money, until one them can prove the Big Bang, I say, again, with certainty, Line 5 existed.





PART THREE of my scientific evidence of Line 5 is a carbon copy of parts one and two (if God gives you three aces, you play 'em). Around the time I discovered the end of the Wager date (which I mistook for the One Hour War date) in the Shroud of Turin, I found the phrases "Shroud carbon dating" (outlined above) and "carbon dating" (outlined below) in the base of the Elder Badge. God and Jesus placed these hidden images in the Elder Badge to mark carbon dating as absolute junk science (I've claimed this for some time). Until Satan and the West can prove carbon dating, Line 5 existed.

To verify the existence of Line 5, and confirm Satan and the West created lots of junk science, including the Big Bang, carbon dating, and $E=MC^2$, God inserted these junk sciences in the Candelaria Likeness' message line; the words Big Bang , below.

The words carbon dating.

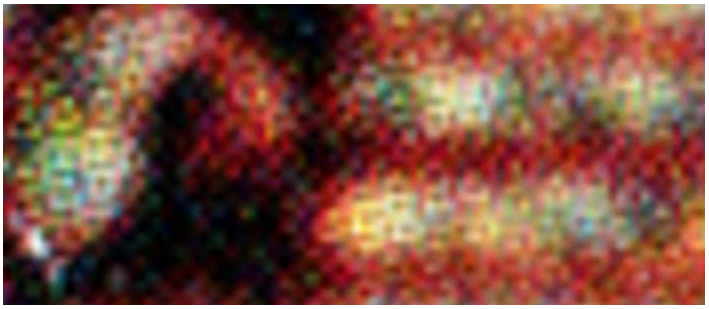
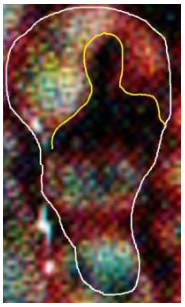
More secrets revealed in the Candelaria Likeness. Left, Thomas Edison Was A Fraud. Below: Einstein Was A Fake.

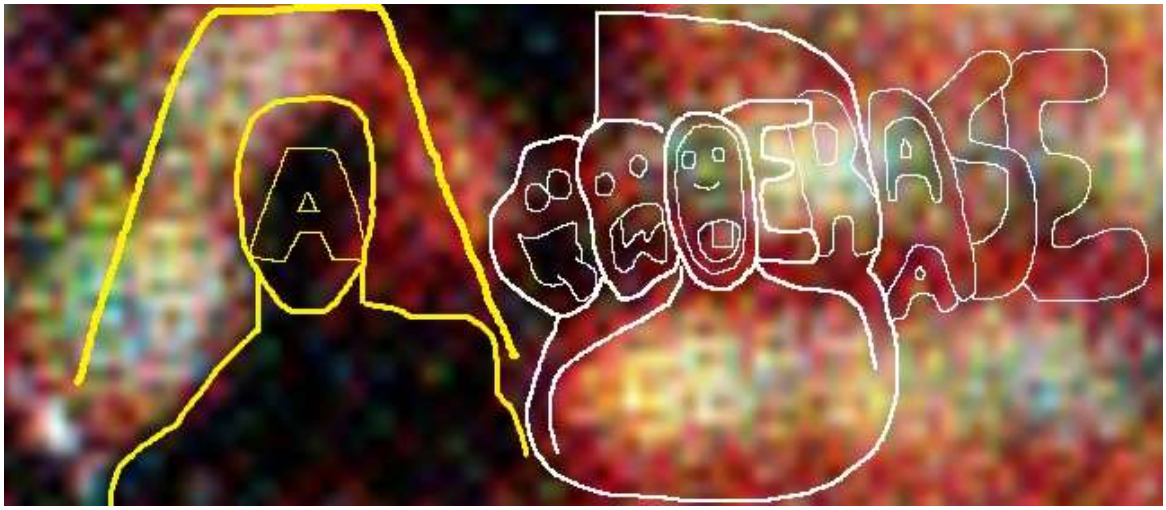
One of many reasons God chose Steve-A as his solver, was to make a point about the unfairness of nature. Steve-A hit the jackpot in every natural category. Origin Stories explains how Steve-A and I were born with extremely high creative IQs, and 6 to 7 times more energy than the average person. Hence, to the right, God depicts Steve-A as extremely fit, like a superhero.

Origin Stories also explains that, on this line (Line 7), Satan gave me women's hormones, when I was 4 to 8 years old, to reduce my energy level. This had a some success. But I still had about 3 times more energy than the average person.





In the area of the Elder Badge where God reveals Steve-A's statuesque frame (above, left), he also reveals Satan's obsessive interest in Steve-A (above center and right); placing Steve-A in the center of Satan's eyes and mind. God also used the image area above to reveal Satan's war plan against Steve-B (me), as seen in the rendering below.



Above, Steve-B (me) is presented to the right of Steve-A, with about 4 heads. Each head represents one of Satan's strategies against Steve-B: (1) try to turn Steve-B gay; (2) try to make Steve-B insecure and worship the beast: (3) try to make Steve-B obsessive an dumb; (4) if all else fails, erase Steve-B –steal his work, and make his original writings and art impossible to find. The first 3 strategies failed, but, to this point, erasing me has been successful; but, in the end, it will fail.

- To protect the Emanuel Prophecy/Mystery, it is almost certain that God asked Emanuel that when He [Emanuel] chose Revelation's writer to keep that information secret from God. This meant not telling John or anyone else –because the moment anyone else learned the name of Revelation's future writer, God would also learn, through the portal of that person's mind; instantly ruining the Prophecy/Mystery. (Supporting this, in Revelation, John does not learn he is Revelation's chosen writer until Jesus arrived in his home –60 years after Jesus' death.)
