November

“Following the Spirit of Truman’s Leadership in ROA”

2019

President’s Message

By CAPT Fred Lydic, USN (Ret)

It’s that time of year where we are focused upon family and the holidays. To each of you, I would like to extend a wish that your holiday season is filled with love, family, good times and good health. As I write this letter, the forecast is calling for the first snows of winter. I can only hope that it melts fast, warms up and makes me think I am in Florida.

President Lydic

The push by local chapters to reach out to members continues. Forward...always forward...a good sign for our ROA. In particular, a lot of work has been done with our members at the 442 chapter at Whiteman AFB. Kudos to Col Rick Nelson and Col Bob Shankel for their hard work in rounding up chapter documents and establishing a new footprint for the chapter.

The Annual Missouri Athletic Club’s celebration of Veterans Day will be held at the MAC’s main club in downtown St. Louis on November 7th. Chief of the National Guard Bureau, Lieutenant General Joseph Lengyel will be the featured speaker. Co-sponsored with the St. Louis Rotary Club, this is a well-attended event and Missouri ROA will have an information table in the exhibit hall prior to the event. This is yet another chance for us to put the new Reserve Organization of America banner out in front.

As mentioned in my last letter, we are engaged in an outreach plan to connect with the varied reserve and ROTC commands within Missouri to let everyone know about the expanded opportunities for membership in ROA. With the current opportunities for a free membership, ROTC Cadets and Midshipmen are in a unique position to benefit from the information and leadership resources of ROA. To date, a packet of information, including the most recent Report to Congress, historical and chronological accomplishments of ROA and our mission and objective statements has been sent to the Naval Reserve Operational Support Center commanding officers and the commanding officers of the twelve ROTC units located at Missouri colleges and universities. Time will tell if this initial outreach will yield results.

In addition, we are attempting to establish a line of communication with the leadership of the Missouri National Guard. The Guard’s structure and its active National Guard Association are well versed in the same topics that ROA has promoted. While MOROA can serve as a Voice for both Guard and Reserve matters, there has not been a solid connection to the Guard...and realistically, little incentive for Guard members to join ROA. Our efforts are not focused on obtaining Guard members as much as beginning a dialogue. There are any number of scenarios where the efforts of ROA and the Guard are parallel and a combined effort could be beneficial to both organizations....it never hurts to talk.

At our annual convention in April 2019, the Executive Committee agreed to hold the 2020 State Convention in the St. Louis area.

St. Louis Marriott-West

SO...MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW. The 2020 Missouri ROA Convention will be held on April 24-26, 2019 at the St. Louis Marriott Hotel – West, located within the office park development at Maryville Center (I-64 and Missouri Route 141). Planning is already underway to obtain a keynote speaker for the Saturday banquet and we have a tentative commitment for the ROA Legislative Director, Susan Lucas to be with us either in person or via Skype. So, if you live in the St. Louis area...we are bringing the convention to you!

As if a St. Louis State convention in 2020 isn’t enough...National ROA will hold its annual convention in St. Louis, September 17-20, 2020, at the Sheraton Westport Chale. All in all, it looks like the next twelve months are going to be busy...YOUR chance to volunteer some time and help us put this all together.

Happy Holidays from MOROA

ROA National Convention Des Moines

By CAPT Dick Kallemeier

The 2019 ROA National Convention opened on 26 September at the Des Moines Marriott Downtown. The day was filled with committee meetings and the ROA Academy. The Academy prepares members for Chapter and Department leadership positions and updates current leaders with recent organizational changes. At this session the students learned about the new website to be online later this year. In the evening a welcome reception was held at the Des Moines Veterans Hall of Honor.

Eileen Bonner Scholarship presentation an Eileen Bonner Scholarship for medical excellence of $2,000. The members then broke into facilitated round table discussions to make recommendations on items such as membership recruiting/retention, communications, member services, etc. The afternoon was devoted to Service Section Meetings. The Naval Services section presented Junior Officer Awards to USPHS, NOAA and Coast Guard recipients. The Marshall Hanson Anchor Award was presented to four members for service to ROA. The Admiral Russell Waesche Trophy and RADM Bennett S. "Bud" Sparks Unit Award were presented to Coast Guard units.

On Friday, 27 September National President LtCol Don Stockton, USAF (Ret) officially opened the convention and welcomed the Honorable Kim Reynolds, Governor of Iowa. Governor Reynolds spoke about the importance of the military and its veterans to the state of Iowa and expressed great appreciation to all military members and their families. Stockton then presented awards to the Chaplain of the Year, the Warrant Officer of the Year, Distinguished Service Award to Susan Lucas, Legislature Director, and President's Award to Lani Burnett, Chief of Staff and utive Committee members. The Missouri delegation met after the service section meetings to discuss the resolutions to be enacted during Sunday morning's business meeting. Missouri's delegates were, MG Peggy Wilmoth, COL Michael Clarke, LTC Leslie Hobbs, LTC Bob Dietrich, CAPT Mike Nolan, CAPT Dick Kallemeier, Col Bob Shankel, Col Rick Nelson, and LtCol Don Stockton.

Following the reception and banquet on Saturday evening, the guest speaker, Iowa Senator Joni Ernst, retired Lieutenant Colonel Army National Guard and member of the Senate Armed Services

Committee expressed great appreciation for the reserve and guard. Due to her personal experience with the guard she has a great understanding of military reserve life and is a positive voice for the military in the Senate. In appreciation for her support ROA presented her the Minuteman of the Year Award.

MG Evan "Curly" Hultman, USA (Ret) was inducted into the Minuteman Hall of Fame. Curly, now 94 is a former ROA National President, ROA Executive Director and Iowa Attorney General. For decades he has distinguished himself as a dynamic military and civic leader. The evening ended with dancing to the sound of the High Society Big Band.

The Sunday morning session opened with award presentations for websites and newsletters. Missouri's Transmitter received a Sword and Pen Award. Six resolutions were presented and approved including Missouri's support of the Mothers of Military Service (MOMS) Leave Act. All of the ROA resolutions, the major drivers of our legislative action program, are listed at www.roa.org under the legislation tab. Nine proposed Constitution and By Law changes were submitted including three to change membership eligibility. All the potential membership eligibility changes failed. Due to the elimination of ROAL a Family Support Committee was established, and a Family Support Group was created to advise on family support matters. The convention closed with election of officers.

COL Judi Davenport, USA (Ret) was elected the 81st National President and Lt Col Don Stockton became Immediate Past President. We congratulate Don on his most successful two-year term as National President. He is the sixth Missourian to have led ROA. Col Rick Nelson USAF (Ret), MOROA's President-Elect was elected National Air Force Commit-

National Council Report

By CAPT Dick Kallemeier, USN (Ret)

As part of ROA's plan to improve communications with the Departments and Chapters, the National Council and Presidents met at the national convention. The Department of Pennsylvania is developing and piloting a ROA Mentoring Program for drilling reservists. The goal is to improve readiness with a stress-free counseling environment. There will be a guideline handbook with reference material and they hope to have measured results next year.

The ROA STARS Foundation School Kit program for activated reserves with children is an easy way for parents to formally notify their children's schools that a family member is about to be deployed. It also serves as a resource to educators on how to reach out to Reserve families during a deployment period. Information and kits are available at www.starsinschools.org

The Library of Congress Veterans History Project (VHP), started in 2000, seeks Veterans who served in the U.S. military, in any capacity, from World War I through recent conflicts to contribute to this national preservation effort. To learn more go to www.loc.gov/vets Or if you wish to participate locally the Missouri Veterans History Project is assisting with video interviews and data collection. The information is then sent to the VHP. Contact Dave Schroeder dbschroeder1944@sbcglobal.net (314) 961-7470 to schedule an interview.

As we approach 2022 and ROA's second century of supporting the nation's guard and reserve a Second Century Campaign has been launched. The 5 year goal is $10 Million. The funds will be used to effectively influence legislation and military policy, operate with a positive cash flow, and grow and engage membership. There are three levels of giving, the Pershing Society-$250 quarterly over 5 years-$5000; Legacy Circle Planned Giving-$10,000 through your will, trust or beneficiary; Minuteman Guardian-combined blended gift of $15,000. To date, contributions total $1.3 million toward the goal.

Remember the ROA Henry J. Reilly Scholarship Foundation supports scholarships fellowships, internships, and other programs. You must either be a regular or associate member or the child/grandchild of a regular or associate member of ROA. Each year up to twenty $2500 scholarships are awarded to students pursuing courses of study leading to certificate, associate, bachelor, and graduate degrees. The application date normally in mid-April will be announced at www.roa.org

Coming in February, The Reserve Voice Magazine will include analysis of issues impacting the Reserve/Guard, reports from Guard/Reserve component chiefs, ROA advocacy efforts, and profiles of your colleagues on duty around the globe. We want to highlight the dual roles members of Reserve Components play. Send your action photo along with a short description of your life in the service, civilian career and service to the community. Email to editor@roa.org with "magazine" in the subject line. Please send your submission by 15 December 2019.

Legislative Affairs

By CAPT Michael Nolan, USN (Ret)

Members of Congress (both the House of Representatives and Senate) returned from summer vacation during early September 2019. Each house has passed its version of the fiscal year 2020 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). This Act provides the congressional funding as authority which will result in the implementation of a National Defense Strategy that restores our combat advantage and supports our warfighters.

The funding differences between the House and Senate will be worked out in a "Conference" to resolve these differences, probably during early November 2019. Listed below are some of these differences, which are specific to our reserve forces, and a resolution will be needed:

- House Section 511-reinstates the mandatory requirement for reserve chiefs to be appointed in the grade of lieutenant general/Vice Admiral.
- House Section 566-a "Records of Service" form (similar to a DD-214) needs to be established for the reserve component members. ROA will continue to ask for these changes and for the form to be accepted by the Department of Veterans Affairs.
- House Section 718-limitations on the realignment or reduction of military medical Manning end strength until a determination can be made of its full effect on the reserve components.

There are several other differences which are scheduled to be worked out in the conference. These are listed on the ROA website.

I urge ROA members in Missouri to communicate with your elected representatives on these important issues which affect our total military force (active and reserve). Today's reserve and guard forces represent about 50% of our total military force. These reserve forces have many unique challenges including extended time away from family, employment, etc. and as a nation we need to support them in their patriotic military service.

Army Affairs

By SFC LaTonya Kelly

At Fort Knox, Kentucky, the U.S. Army Human Resources Command stood up a new Reserve Personnel Management Directorate (RPM) at its headquarters, September 30, 2019, with the goals of increasing efficiency, transparency and accessibility when processing Army Reserve personnel actions.

Deputy Commanding General BG Twanda (Tia) Young of U.S. Army Human Resources Command and the director of RPM, explained how establishing this directorate will facilitate increased transparency, collaboration, and support the chief of Army Reserve in the execution of U.S. Title 10 responsibilities while meeting the intent of the Army's Total Force Policy.

BG Twanda Young

RPM consists of four primary divisions; Army Reserve enlisted and officer personnel management, Army Reserve health services management, and operational and readiness support. "Each division is responsible for executing new processes and services that garner improving organizational efficiencies while lending itself to better transparency for our customers," said Young. The directorate will encompass better business practices for the full-time support force. The divisions within RPM manage a myriad of functions to processing personnel actions for Troop Program Units, Active Guard Reserve, Individual Mobilization Augmentee, and Individual Ready Reserve Soldiers.

Establishing the four divisions within RPMD supports the Secretary of the Army's reform initiative that enables getting the right Soldier with the right talent to the right place at the right time. Young said, while everything that is Army Reserve related may not be found in RPMD, the directorate will serve as a gateway. HRC will continue to provide support outside of the RPMD scope for the Army Reserve population. "RPMD is part of HRC, it is not an extension," Young said. "What we had before were layers of red tape that created obstacles for Soldiers and leaders to obtain services in a timely manner," Young said. "We took what made sense to gain efficiencies and combined them in order to make a single-entry point for timely responses and services."

RPMD will be prepared for the introduction of integrated personnel and pay system-Army (IPPS-A) online human resources system and be used as a model for the future consolidation of the Active component enlisted and officer divisions. Launching RPMD is not only beneficial to Soldiers in the Army Reserve but beneficial to the active component by enabling Enlisted Personnel Management Division and Officer Personnel Management Division to focus solely on active component matters. Young said, "I am excited about having the opportunity to lead this effort and create a legacy that can be built upon to better the organization providing support to its greatest treasure - our Soldiers."

Naval Services Affairs

By CAPT Dick Kallemeier, USN (Ret)

The Naval Services section meeting guest speaker at the national convention was RDML Todd C. Wiemers, USCG. Admiral Wiemers is the Assistant Commandant for Reserve

USCG, a newly formed directorate for reserve management. The directorate achieved initial operating capability on 11 June 2019. As a result, the legacy Office of Reserve

RDML Wiemers with CAPT Bob Carmack, USN (Ret), Naval Services VP

Affairs was disestablished, and the Reserve Component management functions have moved to the Civil Rights Directorate. Reserve human resource policy responsibilities shifted to the Office of Military Personnel. The new directorate provides operationally capable and ready personnel to support Coast Guard surge and mobilization requirements in the Homeland and abroad. It is responsible for identifying and sourcing new and extended capabilities, competencies, and capability to meet the U.S. Coast Guard mission requirements. Admiral Wiemers spoke to the status of the force and the increased importance of reserve utilization in the Coast Guard mission. Unlike the other service's reserve leadership, Wiemers is not a reservist.

ROA and MOROA continue to pursue legislative action supporting the need for inland river tender replacements and correcting the zero-pay problem experienced by coast guard personnel during the government shut down last year. Because the CG is in the Department of Homeland Defense, they are not covered by the law protecting DoD military pay during shutdowns. As a result, they were without pay for 40 days.

During the section meeting numerous ROA awards were presented. The Admiral Russell Waesche Trophy for outstanding large and small Coast Guard District performance was presented to CG Districts 9 & 8. The ADM Bennett S. "Bud" Sparks Unit Award for the Coast Guard unit judged to be the most supportive of a totally integrated coast guard force, demonstrated by its effective use of Coast Guard Reservists was given to Station Mayport and Sector New York. Junior Officer of the Year awards were presented to LT Jeffrey Kemp, USCGR, LCDR Trent Laboef, NC, USNR and LTJG Marybeth Head, NOAA Corps. And last, the CAPT Marshall Hansen Anchor Award for longtime service, over an extended period of time, in posts of high responsibility within the Naval Services Section of ROA was presented to CAPT Henry Plimack, USCG (Ret) and CWO4 Dale Anderson, USN (Ret).

Air Force Affairs

By Col Bob Shankel, USAF (Ret)

The 442 FW welcomed a new wing commander in September. MajGen Brian Borger, 10th AF Commander and former 442 Wing Commander, passed the guidon to Col Michael Schultz. Col Schultz is a highly experienced A-10 pilot, who started his Air Force career as a missile launch officer before beginning pilot training. Born in Florida, growing up in Houston, TX, and having served in mostly warm climates, he and his family are learning to adjust to our Missouri seasons. Kudos to BrigGen Roger Suro for his service as the 442 FW Wing Commander. MOROA appreciates his support for ROA and Missouri's Air Force members. MOROA sends their best wishes to him and his family at their new assignment.

MajGen Borgen, Col Schultz and BrigGen Suro

The 442 FW held a Family Day on Saturday of the October UTA. Col Rick Nelson and I manned a table promoting ROA at this wing function. We handed out literature and membership applications to many personnel attending, including the new wing commander. Rick, SMSGT Hershel Cole and I have been working on revitalizing Chapter 442 the last 3 UTAs, meeting with the folks there and signing up drilling reservist new members, including wing command CMSGT Lisa Furgeson.

Capt Addis with Ricky Boedeker

ROA Chapter 442 sponsors an annual scholarship for higher education. Capt Mike Addis, member of the 442d ROA Chapter and a logistics readiness officer, presents Ricky Boedeker, a 7th grade science teacher, with a $1,000 scholarship during Family Day at Whiteman on October

6th. Boedeker is the spouse of TSgt Kiley Boedeker.

We attended the national convention in Des Moines, IA where we celebrated the end of LtCol Don Stockton's tenure as ROA President and the election of Col Rick Nelson as an Air Force Executive Committeeman. Don is the sixth ROA national president from Missouri and the fourth with ties to the 442nd. Well Done Don!! and thanks to Rick who will have a busy year ahead.

Charitable Contingency Trust

The MOROA Charitable Contingency Trust Fund provides funds for the education, training and professional development for Junior Leaders and ROTC students in Missouri. This Fund provides an excellent opportunity for individuals to make a contribution to ensure the next generation of service members receive appropriate training opportunities to assist them as they serve in leadership roles in our armed forces. The Department continues to build this Fund and only the earned interest/dividends are used on an annual basis to provide development programs. As a result the principal amounts, donated by ROA members, remain in the Fund to provide an ongoing source of revenue to assist in training and professional development. Contributions may be tax deductible and now, before the end of the tax year is a good time to consider a donation. A contribution form is on the next page.

TRICARE Reminder

Open Season is for enrollment in the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program, or FEDVIP. With FEDVIP, eligible TRICARE beneficiaries can choose between multiple dental and vision plans and carriers. Both the TRICARE and FEDVIP open seasons will run from Nov 11 to Dec 9 with an effective date of 1 Jan 20. For more info go to www.tricare.mil

MOROA PATRIOT AWARD

The Patriot Award is given to members contributing the equivalent of their first military retirement check to the Department. It recognizes the member's leadership, support and commitment to the Reserve Officers Association objective of "providing adequate national security to the United States" as highly commendable and in the spirit of a true American Patriot. The member may direct the funds to the contingency trust, general operating fund or a specific program/event.
