

Michael has been taken in vain.

Here is a perfect example.
Below is an ad I found on Christian answers.net selling a book about Michael.

by Ray Comfort

This book reveals the truth. You will be amazed to see how the world has been duped.

Nostradamus's writings are a billion-dollar industry. According to the BBC News, "Books about Nostradamus, the apocalyptic prophet, have entered the bestseller list since the terrorist attacks in the U.S."

Ray Comfort has researched the prophecies in depth to provide this comprehensive, easy reading study. Nostradamus warned the the future would bring earthquakes, famines, wars and plagues. He spoke of the anti-Christ, Gog and Magog, etc. Comfort provides documented evidence that Nostradamus CHEATED. He read the Scriptures in secret, stole Bible prophecies, and claimed them as his own. That is why some of Nostradamus's "prophecies" came true and made him famous. Anyone who is ignorant of Bible prophecy will be impressed with the prophecies of Nostradamus. He plagiarized the Bible. ...

Furthermore, there is no valid basis for all the other celebrated predictions he supposedly made -- the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, man landing on the moon, the rise of Hitler, and so on.

This book documents the truth about this false prophet, and point out the 100% accurate prophecies of God's Word. Use them to help friends and family that have been deceived.

This book documents the truth about this false prophet, and point out the 100% accurate prophecies of God's Word. Use them to help friends and family that have been deceived.

The book was written specifically for the unsaved. The final chapters contain a very clear and thorough gospel presentation. It is an ideal and inoffensive gift for a non-Christian.

GET EXTRA COPIES OF THE BOOK - Donate one to your local public library. Pass a copy onto an unsaved person. Use them as witnessing tools.

Michael wrote; "And so once again, my son, if I have eschewed the word prophet, I do not wish to attribute to myself such lofty title at the present time, for whoever "Propheta dicitur hodie, olim vocabatur videns" and in the same letter; "I do not wish to ascribe to myself the title and role of prophet". And in his Epistle to Henry II Michael wrote "Yet it was determined by astronomy and other sources, including Holy Scriptures, and thus could not err." In the above advertisement, we are told Ray Comfort has researched the prophecies in depth. Anyone who even attempted researching the prophecies, much less in depth, would have carefully studied Michael's letters, the key to understanding his Quatrains. I have not read Ray Comfort's book, but if it coincides with this ad found at Christian answers.net, "He read the Scriptures in secret, stole Bible prophecies, and claimed them as his own", the book should never be read. The ad starts out saying "Nostradamus' writings are a billion-dollar industry," Seeming to bash Michael, as if he was the one profiting from these sales. Then to end the advertisement with this:

“GET EXTRA COPIES OF THE BOOK - Donate one to your local public library. Pass a copy onto an unsaved person. Use them as witnessing tools.”

Looks to me like someone is trying to get a piece of that billion-dollar industry. One of the statements in the ad I will agree with:

“You will be amazed to see how the world has been duped.”

Below is another ad I found at Christian Central, for the same book by Ray Comfort.

Must be a good market, although by the ad, you wouldn't think they are selling the same book.

Famous Prophecies of a Famous Prophet

Nostradamus is a household name. He was the subject of a major Hollywood motion picture. Thousands of books have been written about him and his incredible predictions. Tabloids quote him. Video stores carry documentaries on his work. His life and prophecies have appeared with the famous on A & E's "Biography." This is why:

"With the passing of time, we have come to realize that Nostradamus accurately forecast a host of happenings, ranging from an English naval blitz on Spanish treasure ships at Cadiz to Adolf Hitler's machinations of war; from the invention of the submarine, airplane and Montgolfier balloon to the era of space stations and nuclear war." (Predictions, Fisher and Commins).

Add to this the invention of the radio, the light bulb, the great fire of London, the Kennedy assassination, man landing on the moon and even the naming of America in prophecy, and we can see why he is so highly acclaimed. Let's now look at some of the applauded prophecies of Michel de Nostredame and their incredible interpretations from French into English:

2. America actually named in prophecy...

....The celebrated English medium, Doris Collins maintained that she once made contact with the dead Nostradamus, and the subject came up about his Catholic -.faith. He told her (probably in English):

"I was born a Jew and although I changed my religion, it did not alter the fact that I was born a Jew."

It's a shame she didn't ask him what he was talking about in this quatrain.....

3. The naming of Adolf Hitler...

4. The dropping of the atomic bomb:

7. The assassination of President Kennedy and Senator Robert Kennedy:

...Cost: $14 each or 5 for $50.

I don't think an Image would last too long in a battle of truths.

There is one thing that both SALES ads agree on:

“The book was written specifically for the unsaved.”

*“And there was war in heaven:
Michael and his angels fought against the dragon;
and the dragon fought and his angels,”*

Re 12:7

There is only one book in history that has been in print as long as Michael's thousand Quatrains.

Michael has been taken in vain for many other reasons. Like people making fake quatrains said he prophesied the terrorist attack on the Trade Towers “9-11.” This type of thing, like the ads above, or the interpretations below by the experts encourage Michael to be taken in vain.

In the year 1999 and seven months [July],
A great King of Terror will come from the sky.
He will bring back the great King Genghis Khan.
Before and after Mars rules happily.

Could you imagine the Bible being interpreted that way?
We'd be in for one hell of a shock.

“And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the LATTER SIGN.”

Ex 4:8

3797

A number familiar to those studying Nostradamus.

...I have compiled some books of prophecies, each containing one hundred astronomical quatrains composed of prophecies which I have desired to render a little obscurely. They are eternal prophecies, and extend from now to the year 3797. It is possible, that some will raise their brow at seeing such a far –reaching extent of time and a treatment of everything under the vault of the moon that will happen and universally perceived all over the earth, my son...

Michael

Michael was right about that.

I don't know how many of you reading this are familiar with a Concordance of the Bible. Basically it's Greek & Hebrew dictionaries which number, define, and show locations of every word in the Bible. Thus making another interesting relationship between words and numbers. So, if you SEE in the following readings "Strong's Greek" or "Strong's Hebrew" with a number next to it, for example "Strong's Hebrew 05760, this would allow you to establish the definition and every location where the word is used in the Bible.

When was the Concordance of the Bible created?

FROM: <http://www.restoredcog.org/articles/wahdwgtb.html>

... The work of dividing the Scriptures into chapters, by Langton and his assistants, was not inspired by God (as far as we know). However, this work was foundational for the following project in which a French printer by the name of Robert Estienne (usually known by the Latin form of his name, Stephanus) accomplished in 1551. In this year, Robert Stephanus divided the Greek New Testament into verses (Encyclopedia Britannica, 11th edit., Vol. 9, p. 799).

Then, in 1555, Stephanus divided the entire Latin Vulgate Bible into verses. He took Langton's chapters as they existed and further divided them into verses. In 1560, the year following the death of Stephanus, the Geneva Bible became the first English translation divided into chapters and verses. Even Jewish scholars came to accept these divisions and followed suit by dividing the Hebrew Scriptures accordingly. However, the order of the Hebrew Scriptures was preserved, as always.

"...Michael's first seven Centuries in March 1555."

Looks like Michael's Quatrains and the Concordance of the Bible were created at the same time.
Coincidence ?

*"I have compiled some books of prophecies, each containing one hundred astronomical quatrains composed of prophecies which I have desired to render a little obscurely. They are eternal prophecies, and extend from now to the year 3797."

Strong's Greek 3797 opsimos; later, i.e. vernal (showering):--latter.*

"...and extend from now to the year of the LATTER RAIN"

Strong's Greek 3797

ONLY USED ONE TIME IN THE BIBLE.

"Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and LATTER RAIN."

{Be...: or, Be long patient, or, Suffer with long patience}.

Jas 5:7

WHEN IS THE LATTER RAIN TO FALL?

<http://wwwremnantofgod.org/latter-rain.htm>

There are quite a few different ideas, theories, and beliefs being heard today throughout the world in regards to the timing of the Latter Rain. As we know that every wind of doctrine is blowing today, we all are forced to ask ourselves this vital question: Is what I have heard, or may believe, on this subject really the truth? Or is it just the faulty opinions and theories of men? This is a vital question which you must ask yourself, because what you may or may not believe on this particular subject will indeed involve your salvation!

"Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. {the former rain moderately: or, a teacher of righteousness}"

Joe 2:23

Trade Towers "9-11"

It would seem like something so calamitous would be foretold. And it most definitely was, as you will SEE. On the recent program "Nostradamus 500 Years Later," the skeptics made a good point. They wanted to SEE something translated prior to the claimed event. Skeptics, you're going to get what you wanted. Below are two translations of Quatrain 10:49 with provable dates prior to the event.

The Prophecies of Nostradamus

Erika Cheetham 1ST t Published in Great Britain by Neville Spearman Ltd. Copyright @ 1973 Page 409

Quatrain 10:49

The garden of the World near the the New City
In the road of the hollow mountains
It will be seized and plunged in the tank
Forced to drink water poisoned with sulphur.

"This extraordinary quatrain talks of a city, New York, being poisoned through its water supply, an idea more suited to James Bond than to Nostradamus. The cite neufue is New York. The Iardin du Monde is possibly a way of describing it as a world centre. The second line is interesting. Could the ' road of hollow mountains' be the nearest Nostradamus could get towards describing a street lined with skyscrapers? The tank is unclear. ...

Skeptics, please try your best to discredit the ensuing review and translation of Michael's* Quatrain 10:49.

Line 1

"Jardin du monde aupres de cite' neufue"

Let's use the most common translation of line1.

"The Garden of the World near the New City"

WORLD TRADE CENTER PATH TERMINAL UNVEILED

On Thursday, January 22nd, in the Winter Garden of the World Financial Center, the design of the new $2-billion permanent PATH Terminal at the World Trade Center site was unveiled. The design of this landmark transportation hub has been entrusted by the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey to the Downtown Design Partnership, ... DMJM+HARRIS . <http://www.dmjmharris.com/index2.html>

Line 2

“Dans le chemin des montagnes cauees”

Below are two common translation of line 2

"In the way of the man-made mountains"

"In the path of the hollow mountains"

Dans: conj. afterwards adv. then, afterwards

Le: the, him, her, it, plural them

Chemin; way, path, track, course des: of; in, by, for,

montagnes

The fifth word Michael used in line 2.

“montagnes”

Let's take a closer look and SEE why.

The French word that translates to “mountain” is “montagne”.
If you don't have a French dictionary, you can get the same translation below using Micro

Montagne; feminine mountain; la montagne the mountains plural

Montagne: mountain; 1a natural raised part of the earth's surface, usually rising more or less abruptly, and larger than a hill (Webster's New World Dictionary)

Look at the word Michael used.

Montaignes

The only difference is the “i” between the “a & g” and the “s” at the end.

Montagne

Can the "i" make that big of a difference?

Let's take a quick look at an example of a Greek word used over 200 times in the New Testament.

hagios :--(most) holy (one, thing), saint

Most of the time it is translated to “holy” or “Holy.”

Look at what happens when the “i” is removed.

hagos: an awful thing

Can an “i” make that big of a difference

Michael's WORD: Montaignes

Montaignes; [OFr montaigne (assumed; Made or produced by human skill and labor, in OPPOSITION TO NATU

1. like a mountain; esp., very high, towering, lofty, elevated, that towers

MONTANEUS: 1: characterized by mountains

2: resembling a mountain: HUGE, GIGANTIC

Below is the definition of the English word I'm using to replace “Montaigne” in line 2.

1. very high; elevated; rising aloft; as, a towering height

The replacement word is:

tower: d. SKYSCRAPER

With more support from the last word on line 2.

Cauees; cavee: 1. v. collapse, cease to resist, submit; cause to collapse line 2 so far....

“afterwards the WAY TOWERS collapse”
(way or; path)

It still doesn't look like Michael to me. Let's look at the third word again.

Translation by Microsoft Word

Chemin; masculine way; road; path (also information technology); chemin de fer railway, American

Chemin; path, track, way, course trade Formerly, a [path.] 1a track; a way; a path, course. Webster's 1913 Dictionary

Specifically: The act or business of exchanging commodities by barter, or by buying and selling for money; commerce

Link to Webster's 1913 Dictionary

<http://www.hyperdictionary.com/search.aspx?Dict=&define=Trade&search.x=16&search.y=4>

“Chemin Montaignes” or “Trade Towers”

Now it's starting to look like Michael.

“The garden of the World near the New City
afterwards the TRADE TOWERS collapse”

Line 3

“Sera saisi & plonge' dans la Cuve”

These are two common translations of line 3.

It will be seized and plunged into the Tub.
Shall be seized on & plunged into the Vat.

Sera: be, exist; belong (to, à); lie, stand; colloquial, go

Saisi: Seize; to take control forcibly and quickly; grab [to seize power]

Hi-jack; to seize control forcibly of (an aircraft, ship, etc.)

plonge' dive, plunge; to move violently and rapidly downward or forward dive: to make a steep, sudden descent, as an airplane

crash: plunge, be hurled, pitch, nose dive dans; direction: into: so as to strike

la; them. things previously mentioned: “trade towers”

Cuve: (Fr, of cuve, Vat < OE f+t, vessel); vessel: boat, ship, aircraft

Hi-jacked Aircraft will plunge into the Trade Towers”

10:49 p.m.: CNN Congressional Correspondent Jonathan Karl reports that Attorney General Ashcroft told members of Congress that there were three to five hijackers on each plane armed only with knives.

“Hi-jacked Aircrafts plunge into World Trade Center Towers in New York, afterwards they collapse”

Line 4

“Beuuant par force eaux sulphre enuenimees”

Following is the most common translation of line 4.

“Forced to drink waters poisoned by sulfur”

Workers at the remains of the World Trade Centre have been exposed to dangerous levels of toxic chemicals and suffered unnecessary injuries, it was revealed today...

The New York Daily News reported the documents showed dioxins, PCBs, benzene, lead and chromium among the substances released in dangerous levels at the site...

Monitoring devices have found the Hudson River, which neighbours the site, has high levels of CONTAMINATION, while on one day air levels of benzene, which can cause leukaemia, was 58 times higher than the legal limit...

And on a series of days, the air in lower Manhattan was choked with SULPHUR dioxide at levels above what is defined as "hazardous" by the EPA, which can trigger asthma attacks and allergic reactions...

I saw this picture in the book listed above, "The Prophecies of Nostradamus" 1975 by Crown Publishers, Inc., and thought you might find it interesting. Take a close look.

Hear the rumor? Nostradamus and other tall tales

October 3, 2001 Posted: 3:38 PM EDT (1938 GMT)

AP photo

This authentic Associated Press photo was circulated worldwide -- with the claim that the face of Satan could be seen in the smoke.

From Beth Nissen
CNN

NEW YORK (CNN) -- Did you hear? Nostradamus predicted, in 1654, that "two metal birds" would hit "two brothers" ... "and the world will end soon after." But it's not true -- no such writings are attributed to the French astrologer.

Did you see? The photo of a tourist on a World Trade Center observation deck, moments before one of the hijacked planes hit. The photo is a fake.

Did you know? As one of the Twin Towers collapsed, a man on the 82nd floor rode the rubble down, and survived with only a broken leg. The story is apocryphal -- one of hundreds of false rumors and instant urban legends that have circled the globe in urgent e-mails since September 11.

Urban Legends

Did Nostradamus Predict the 9/11 Attacks?

<http://urbanlegends.about.com/cs/historical/a/nostradamus.htm>

Inevitably, ponderous tracts will be written in the coming months and years extracting "proof" from the works of Nostradamus that he foresaw the World Trade Center and Pentagon attacks of September 11, 2001 — such exegeses-in-hindsight have appeared in the wake of every modern catastrophe — but, thanks to Internet hoaxers, we needn't wait months or years for the he-told-you-sos to begin. "Spooky" quatrains purportedly describing the events of 9/11 with amazing specificity were already circulating within hours of the first jetliner crash — completely bogus quatrains, as it turned out. It wasn't a question of whether or not they accurately predicted anything; Nostradamus simply didn't write them....

With all due respect to true believers, Nostradamus couched his "prophetic" verses in such obscure language that the words can be, and have been, interpreted to mean virtually anything...

...Again, a very few words actually written by Nostradamus — lines drawn from two separate quatrains — have been rendered out of context and supplemented with made-up lines by person(s) unknown to make them seem relevant. The result, again, is pure bunk.

Anyone else want to have a go?

~ David Emery

The King of Terror- Part 1

<http://paranormal.about.com/library/weekly/aa070599.htm/mbody.htm>

In one of Nostradamus' most famous predictions, he specifies July 1999 as the date for the arrival from the sky of a person or thing that will profoundly change life on Earth...

...Prophecy expert John Hogue, author of Nostradamus – The Complete Prophecies among many other titles, offers two possible interpretations of the verse. His first theory is that the "King of Terror" is a PLO-trained Arab terrorist who will launch a war with Israel using nuclear or chemical weapons. His second theory depicts the People's Republic of China as the King of Terror seeking to restore the kingdom of Genghis Khan.

You can't blame them for being skeptical.

Skeptics

Please, don't forget the rules.

EVERY "WORD" MUST BE ESTABLISHED.

"And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them."

Isaiah 7 - Rev 12 - Michael 10:72
THREE WITNESSES,
THE MATTER IS ESTABLISHED.

Is Michael Infallible?

Michael Strong's Hebrew 04317. who (is) like God

“Yet it was determined by astronomy and other sources, including Holy Scriptures, and thus COULD NOT ERR.”

Michael

infallible

1 INCAPABLE OF ERROR

2 not liable to fail, go wrong, make a mistake, etc.; dependable; reliable; sure

3 R.C.Ch. INCAPABLE OF ERROR in SETTING FORTH DOCTRINE on FAITH and morals: said esp. of the pope speaking ex cathedra (i.e., in his official capacity)

FAITH: UNQUESTIONING BELIEF THAT DOES NOT REQUIRE PROOF OR EVIDENCE

Why was the Church so concerned about Michael. Was it because he proved he knew who would be a future pope? The Church has St. Malachy, who made a list of them. I believe Michael is telling us the church has the same ability as himself, to foretell the future? And they didn't want anyone else to have this ability.

New Bible Dictionary

a. Messiah as the antitype of historical figures

Israel's teleological view of life on earth, already mentioned, was rooted in the knowledge of the unique God who revealed Himself to them. The faithfulness and self-consistency of their God provided them with A KEY TO THE FUTURE, in so far as it was necessary for faith to discern things to come.

Think about it!

Does that mean they could have had prior knowledge of things like or similar to September 11, 2001? Maybe Michael was aware of a code in Scripture, like the so called “ Bible Code.” The problem I’ve seen with the Codes shown in the book “ The Bible Code” is that there is no tangible way to translate from what the book showed. If you have researched it, I'm sure you know what I’m talking about. There are gaps between the letters and they go every which way. I played with the computer program with the concept that Michael broke this code. I translated a line from one of Michael’s quatrains into Hebrew, and put it in as a whole sentence, (not separate words that come up all over the place), it was very interesting.

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.”

Some people believe Michael has hidden a code in his quatrain?
This thought is acquired from his letter to Caesar, his son?

“Your late arrival, Caesar Nostradamus, my son, has made me spend much time in constant nightly reflection so that I could communicate with you by letter and leave you this reminder, after my death, for the benefit of all men, of what the divine spirit has vouchsafed me to know by means of astronomy. And since it was the Almighty's will that you were not born here in this region (Province) and I DO NOT WANT TO TALK OF YEARS to come but of the MONTHS during which you will struggle to grasp and understand the work I shall be compelled to leave you AFTER MY DEATH: assuming that it will not be possible for me to leave you such (clearer) writing as may be destroyed through the injustice of the age... The key to the hidden prediction which you shall inherit will be locked inside my heart. Also bear in mind that the events here described have not yet come to pass, and that all is ruled and governed by the power of the Almighty God,”
