

Scott M. London

Chief Deputy Constable | Former Sheriff | Constitutional Speaker

Based in: Granbury, Texas

Email: booking@scottmlondon.com

Website: scottmlondon.com

Liberty, Law Enforcement, and Public Trust

Practical Constitutional Judgment Under Pressure

Scott London is a Texas Chief Deputy Constable and former Sheriff with executive law-enforcement leadership experience across two states, constitutional teaching experience, and years of public presentation on liberty, lawful authority, and public trust.

This presentation examines where liberty, lawful authority, and public trust intersect in real-world decisions. Drawing from executive leadership, constitutional teaching, police instruction and field-tested experience, Scott London offers practical lessons on restraint, discretion, and the meaning of our oath.

Audience Outcomes

- Clearer understanding of constitutional limits in daily encounters
- Practical tools for exercising lawful discretion
- Renewed perspective on public trust and professional restraint

Ideal Audiences

Law enforcement agencies and associations, civic organizations, academies, constitutional education groups, leadership forums, and public-policy audiences.

Available Formats

20-minute keynote | 45-minute presentation | 60 - 90-minute workshop | 4 - 8-hour course | Panel discussion
Eligible for TCOLE credit hours

Professional Background

Entered Law-Enforcement in 1997 | Police Instructor since 2005

Former Sheriff, Eddy County, New Mexico | Chief Deputy Constable, Hood County Precinct 4, Texas

TCOLE PID 264343

Liberty and Justice for All

Crimes Investigated. Rights Protected.