WHO WE ARE

West Coast Roofing Contractors Association

WCRCA is an FRSA affiliate trade association. Our association represents roofing industry professionals that serve our local community.

WCRCA works to support our members through educational information, technical data and local industry involvements. We also serve as a resource for state certified licensed roofing contractors and consumers who require roofing services.

OUR VISION

To promote professionalism, competency, and high standard workmanship in the roofing industry through qualified membership, educational programs and community involvement.

OUR GOAL

We strive to keep our members informed on changing building codes and modern roofing practices while creating opportunities to give back through charity projects, strengthen ties within our local community, and build lasting connections throughout the industry.
