

Matthew Shipp (4-7-23)

cosmic rumbling and cosmic waves of sonic energy which are above all forms of conscious thought leaving you in a meditative fog on its most beautiful and profound level sound (music) is an energy form it is vibrational and has the ability to transform matter the harder one can listen to the center of the sound the greater the amount of healing energy which can enter the body is