It is important to remember the irrespective of an individual child's ability, parents and spectators have a responsibility to offer positive encouragement to all players. This approach has demonstrated that:

- Children take great enjoyment from football;

- Children have higher self-esteem; and
- Children improve their skills and football techniques much quicker when praised.

- 1.Ensure that your child arrives punctually and is collected on time;
- 2.Ensure you display good sportsmanship at all times;
- 3.Stand behind the respect line when spectating, if there is no respect line please stand back from the touchline/playing area;
