

RECOVERY IS HERE

Join the movement. Find hope. Be the change.

A statewide call to action this September

This September, during National Recovery Month, recovery organizations and Alabama's community colleges are joining together to launch Recovery is Here. This powerful statewide campaign will mobilize action, awareness, and support around substance use disorder.

Coming to a campus near you

Throughout September, Alabama's community colleges will host high-impact events designed to connect students and communities with real resources, real stories, and real hope.

Each event includes:

- Resource Fair: Meet local and statewide recovery organizations.
- Resourcing Recovery Presentation: Learn how to access critical recovery support.
- Live Recovery Stories: Hear inspiring personal journeys, followed by Q&A.
- Guest Remarks: Leaders in education, recovery, and state government share their perspectives.
- Some events will also feature local recovery organization presentations and networking opportunities.

Details

Events will be held at community colleges across Alabama in September for students or the community.

- Visit recoveryishere.info for the full schedule..

Dates open to the community

- Sep 3 Enterprise State (Ozark) – 6pm
- Sep 4 Enterprise State (Enterprise) – 6pm
- Sep 26 Bevill State/Walker County Chamber – Jasper Civic Center – 6pm

This isn't just about awareness — it's about action. Recovery is not just possible. Recovery is here.

— Curt Lindsley, Campaign Director

Spread the word. Show up. Help someone take the first step toward recovery.

RECOVERY IS HERE

Join the movement. Find hope. Be the change.

A statewide call to action this September

This September, during National Recovery Month, recovery organizations and Alabama's community colleges are joining together to launch Recovery is Here. This powerful statewide campaign will mobilize action, awareness, and support around substance use disorder.

Coming to a campus near you

Throughout September, Alabama's community colleges will host high-impact events designed to connect students and communities with real resources, real stories, and real hope.

Each event includes:

- Resource Fair: Meet local and statewide recovery organizations.
- Resourcing Recovery Presentation: Learn how to access critical recovery support.
- Live Recovery Stories: Hear inspiring personal journeys, followed by Q&A.
- Guest Remarks: Leaders in education, recovery, and state government share their perspectives.
- Some events will also feature local recovery organization presentations and networking opportunities.

Details

Events will be held at community colleges across Alabama in September for students or the community.

- Visit recoveryishere.info for the full schedule..

Dates open for students

- 9/3 Enterprise State – Ozark Campus 11 am
- 9/3 Enterprise State – Ozark Campus 4 pm
- 9/4 Enterprise State – Enterprise Campus 10 am
- 9/9 Snead State – Boaz Campus 10 am
- 9/10 Jefferson State – Shelby Campus 10 am
- 9/18 Wallace State – Selma Campus 10 am
- 9/18 Bishop State – Mobile Campus 12 pm
- 9/23 Calhoun CC – Huntsville Campus 1pm

Spread the word. Show up. Help someone take the first step toward recovery.

RECOVERY IS HERE

A STATEWIDE CALL TO ACTION THIS SEPTEMBER JOIN THE MOVEMENT. FIND HOPE. BE THE CHANGE.

This September, during National Recovery Month, recovery organizations and Alabama's community colleges are joining together to launch Recovery is Here. This powerful statewide campaign will mobilize action, awareness, and support around substance use disorder.

COMING TO A CAMPUS NEAR YOU

Throughout September, Alabama's community colleges will host high-impact events designed to connect students and communities with real resources, real stories, and real hope.

- Resource Fair: Meet local and statewide recovery organizations
- Resourcing Recovery Presentation: Learn how to access critical recovery support
- Live Recovery Stories: Hear inspiring personal journeys, followed by a Q&A
- Guest Remarks: Leaders in education, recovery and state government share their perspectives

"This isn't just about awareness - it's about action. Recovery is not just possible. Recovery is here."

CURT LINDSLEY, CAMPAIGN DIRECTOR

Visit recoveryishere.info for the full schedule and details.

