How we've been working for you

- ➔ Prioritizing Lower Nob Hill
- ➔ Meeting weekly with neighborhood stakeholders
- ➔ Walking the neighborhood, personally visiting sites
- ➔ Converting the Adante shelter
- ➔ Overseeing 822 Geary
- ➔ Supporting return of SFPD foot patrols

Return of Foot Patrols

- Months of advocacy
- Successfully restored
- Thanks to LNHNA, SFPD, Mayor Lurie, Chief for Public Safety Paul Yep
- Commitment to public safety in LNH
- Stay connected for public safety town hall

Economic and Small Business Empowerment

- PermitSF package
- District 3 small business legislation
- Responding to small business owners' needs
  - Cleaner streets
  - Connecting with grants and OSB
  - Attention from Downtown funds

Clean Streets and Open Spaces

- Called hearing with DPW and Recology
- Fought to preserve street cleaning
- Plan for more trash cans
- Enforcement of illegal dumping
- Continuing to monitor, identify problem areas, escalate issues to DPW
- Identifying new open space for Lower Nob

Adante Hotel

- Listened to residents & small business owners
- Personally toured & visited facility multiple times
- Negotiated terms of lease renewal
- Conversion to RESTORE program
- Legislation to make easier to redesignate
- Addressing concentration of services

822 Geary

- First of its kind stabilization center
- Gamechanger for behavioral health services in our city
- Return of foot patrols synced with opening
- Toured & met with staff
- Regularly walk by to ensure ‘good neighbor’ policies are being adhered to

We're just getting started

- Continuing to meet with residents, community groups, and small businesses
- Neighborhood tours with Mayor Lurie and District Attorney Brooke Jenkins
- Working with departments to better address alleys and encampments
- Working for expanded community ambassador programs
- Public safety townhall coming soon
