

Langley Quilters Guild Retreat Update

Theme: Favorite Beverage

Dates and Times: From Friday, October 14 at 10:00 am to Sunday, October 16 at 2:00 pm. No late departures are permitted.

Quilters are invited to work on any type of project. There will be some ironing boards, cutting mats and extension cords available but some quilters may prefer to bring their own. A portable light for your sewing table is suggested. You are welcome to bring your own chair and items that will make you comfortable.

We are hoping to have 2 pop up shops available for your shopping pleasure. Details to come.

Seven meals are provided as well as some snacks in between meals. The kitchen staff are able to accommodate a variety of dietary needs if required. Breakfast is at 8:30, lunch at 12:00 and dinner at 5:30.

Bedding is provided although you may wish to bring your own pillow.

Indoor shoes or slippers are required.

Charis <https://www.chariscamp.com/> is a Christian camp and a blessing will be said at each meal. Charis camp is a DRY camp; i.e. no alcohol or marijuana is permitted on the premises. We encourage you to check out the website. We are grateful that the camp is honoring the price that was quoted when the retreat was scheduled for 2020 and cancelled due to Covid.

Current Public health Covid 19 protocols will be followed.

For ladies that wish to share 4 to a room the cost is $280.00 per person, for 3 to a room the cost is $ 300.00/person, 2 to a room is $310.00/person, single per room is $340.00/person and single in a cabin is $370.00/person. Please indicate on your registration form the type of room you'd like and who you would like to share with. A $50.00 non refundable deposit is required upon registration. There is a maximum of 32 quilters. Completed registration forms and cheques made out to Langley Quilters Guild can be mailed to:
