THE BARNHILL'S STORY

Ted and Marge were high school sweethearts in Nashville and married in 1968, the same year Ted started graduate school at the University of Michigan. Ted went on to become a professor at the George Washington University for forty years. They were fortunate to have the opportunity to experience many wonderful city center restaurants around the world.

Flagler Beach has also been a lifelong destination to visit family, vacation, create businesses (e.g. GOLA), work, and now live. Their vision is that Barnhill's Cafe Bar and Grill, with its upstairs ocean view deck, will offer a space where people can have a great meal and a good time.

All the Best,
Ted and Marge Barnhill

We are very fortunate to have Chef Casey Ford with over 20 years executive experience, at upscale restaurants, creating wonderful food.
