

Ethan Updike is a student-centered music educator with ten years of experience dedicated to inspiring lifelong learning through differentiated pedagogy and creative exploration. He currently serves as the US IB MYP and DP Music Teacher at Carrollwood Day School in Tampa, Florida and leads the school's Spirit Band. During his decade-long tenure at Shorecrest Preparatory School, Ethan served as Department Chair and successfully doubled music program enrollment. He is recognized for developing contemporary, student-centered course offerings, including Rock Band and Intro to Recording Arts. Beyond the classroom, he directed the New Horizons Band of Gulfport from 2021 to 2025 and co-founded Sea Us

Rise. Ethan earned a Master of Music Teaching and Bachelor of Music degrees from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and is an alumnus of the Interlochen Arts Academy. He is an active member of NAFME, FMEA, FBA, and FOA.