

✦ Frequently Asked Questions

Vacation Bible School for Creatives | July 16–20, 2025 | 4 PM – 9 PM

1. What is Vacation Bible School for Creatives?

Vacation Bible School for Creatives is a one-of-a-kind summer experience designed for youth and young adults who are passionate about art, fashion, and faith. This is more than sewing—it's where purpose meets creativity, style meets scripture, and your gifts are awakened and aligned with God's plan.

2. Do I need to know how to sew, draw, or design before attending?

Not at all! This VBS is for all levels—beginners, hobbyists, and aspiring professionals alike. Whether you've never picked up a needle or you're already designing garments, there's something here for you to learn, create, and grow.

3. What age group is this event for?

This experience is specifically designed for ages 16–18 and 19–25. It's tailored to young people who are exploring identity, purpose, and creative passion.

4. Is there a registration fee? What does it include?

There is a small fee to cover supplies, guest speaker honorariums, creative materials, and refreshments. More details will be provided at registration. Seating is limited to 25 students, so early enrollment is encouraged!

5. What supplies should I bring?

Most materials will be provided, but we encourage you to bring:

- A sketchpad or notebook
- Any personal fabric or design elements you'd like to incorporate
- A willing heart and an open mind!

Frequently Asked Questions

6. What should I wear?

Dress comfortably and creatively! You'll be sitting, sewing, sketching, and possibly painting or pinning garments. Feel free to express your style but be ready for hands-on work.

7. Will food be served?

Yes! Light snacks and refreshments will be served each night to keep you energized and inspired.

8. What kind of projects will we work on?

Expect to create:

- Custom wearable art pieces
 - Vision boards and fashion sketches
 - Group creative challenges
 - Scripture-inspired fashion design ...and more! All rooted in biblical principles and purpose-driven creativity.

9. Are there Bible teachings during this VBS?

Yes! Each day will include powerful moments of teaching and reflection using real biblical figures—both male and female—who were gifted, artistic, and led by purpose. Every activity is anchored in spiritual truth.

10. Who are the special guests?

Each night we'll welcome a special guest from the fashion industry—designers, stylists, or creative directors—who will share personal insights, professional advice, and how their faith fuels their creativity. Some will join in person, others via Zoom.

11. What if I can't attend every day?

While full participation is highly encouraged for the full experience, we understand life happens. If you must miss a session, let us know in advance. We'll provide materials and updates to keep you connected.

Frequently Asked Questions

12. Can I bring a friend?

Yes—but space is limited to 25 students. Make sure they register early and secure their spot!

13. Is this only for Christians?

Not at all! While this event is rooted in biblical values and teachings, anyone with a desire to grow creatively and spiritually is welcome.

14. Will I receive any follow-up or mentorship after the event?

Yes! Vacation Bible School for Creatives is just the beginning. You'll be invited to join future workshops, creative meetups, and mentoring sessions to continue growing in your gift and purpose.
