- All guest / spectators must wear their mask when in the facility.
- Players / Guest must bring their own hand sanitizer and will be expected to hand sanitize during activity breaks as appropriate.
- All players / parents must keep to themselves/child and avoid congregating with other participants when on and off the court.
- Make sure to bring plenty of water for your athlete.
- Please assure that you clean up after yourself and dispose of trash into proper containers.

This document is to make known that all guests ('participants', 'athletes', 'players') are participating voluntarily in SA Empire events. Participants and guests are aware and made known that dangerous conditions, risks and hazards do exist at the gym facility due to the recent COVID-19 pandemic. Participants and guests also acknowledge the risks of playing indoor volleyball and coming into contact with other participants, volleyballs, and training equipment that might be at this location can present a hazard and risk and can result in injury or illness. I understand that SA Empire and the gym practice facility do not provide medical insurance for my child. I am aware and will follow all of the Clinics protocols & policies and I understand that by signing this waiver, I acknowledge that until COVID-19 is either eradicated, a vaccine is developed, or a cure is found, there is no way to completely eliminate the risk of infection. I also understand that SA Empire Volleyball Club will take all necessary precautions to prevent injury and the spread of the Coronavirus, and that any expenses incurred for medical attention required by my child for an injury or an infection while participating at in SA Empire training sessions or events will be my sole responsibility.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY AGREEMENT:

I have read and understand the Parent/Guardian COVID-19 Release of Liability Statement and agree to its contents. The SA Empire Volleyball Club, the gym facility, its owners and/or their staff are not responsible for any injuries which may occur to athletes. All participants are asked to be on their best behavior, follow all gym rules and be respectful to coaches, staff and other participants. Parents and/or Guardians are responsible for all medical attention which may be needed in case of injury and hereby release SA Empire and the gym facility from any and all responsibility.
