It is recommended to simply pour water gently over both sides of the mold. This will allow the ice to release from the plastic mold and should peel apart without sticking. You can expect a very long life out of your ice ball mold using this method! Do NOT attempt to "TWIST" the mold as your might a standard small-cube tray.

Creati appositamente per soddisfare la voglia dei consumatori più esigenti, scatenando la fantasia dei barman.

Top drinks
Dreamy è un preparato alla frutta che permette al barman di creare cocktails, soft drinks, frappè e granite tutto l'anno, anche in quei periodi in cui non sono reperibili alcuni frutti.

Sapore intenso
L'obiettivo della linea Dreamy è aumentare e rafforzare il sapore del drink finale facendo da sostegno o sostituendo completamente la frutta frullata che si impiega nella preparazione della bevanda.

Alto concentrato, piccole dosi
Grazie all'alta concentrazione di sapore e gusto, basta usare solo una piccola quantità di prodotto per ottenere un'ottima resa del drink. I concentrati Dreamy sono estremamente fluidi e facilmente mixabili.

Mantenimento
Tutti i preparati Dreamy vanno conservati in luogo fresco e asciutto. Hanno una scadenza di 3 anni. Una volta aperti, se conservati in frigo alla fine del lavoro, possono durare fino a 12 settimane.

Facile e veloce
Fare un cocktail impeccabile per soddisfare i clienti. Soprattutto ottimizzare il tempo. Dreamy è stato creato dalla Distillati Group proprio per i barman, che in linea con la tecnica di American bartending vogliono creare un fantastico drink con la velocità necessaria per stupire il consumatore.

Il gusto della velocità
Ogni colore identifica il prodotto all'interno. Inoltre il gusto del prodotto è anche bene evidenziato nella parte alta vicino al tappo dosatore e anche nella parte bassa sotto la foto del frutto.

Boston Bittahs - 44%

Boston Bittahs - A peculiar combination of citrus & chamomile. We recommend adding a dash to libations that you'd rather drink while that you´d rather drink while relaxing outdoors on a warm summer night.

Try it in your favorite fizz, sour or bright tropical drink. It works extremely well with pisco and scotch as well.

Primary Flavors: Citrus, Chamomile and more Citrus

Hopped Grapefruit - 53%

Hopped Grapefruit Bitters - The essence of grapefruit combined with the most noble of hops. We recommend adding a dash to stirred cocktails made with tequila and long drinks made with gin. Try it in a daiquiri, gimlet, or even a gin and tonic (with a splash of maraschino).

Primary Flavors: Grapefruit, Hops

Orchard Street Celery - 44%

Orchard Street Celery Shrub - Thinking about the Lower East Side, one of the classic flavors during the tenement era was Dr. Brown's Cel-Ray Soda, a celery soda so popular during the '30s, it was nicknamed the Jewish Champagne.

Though the only flavor that is declared is celery seed, we always got a sence that there was a bit of ginger and apple in there somewhere.

Wrapping all of this history together, we decided to take all of these ideas and run with them. We took an idea of a brine, a shrub and a classic soda and decided to dedicate it to Orchard Street, home of the Lower East Side Tenement Museum. Funny that something that we made to honor the Eastern European immigrant experience works so damned well with Scandinavian Aquavit!

Burlesque - 44%

Burlesque Bitters - A spicy little tart that is sure to tantalize your taste buds. This menage of hibiscus, açai berry and long pepper is sweet, spicy and a bit of a tart. She loves performing for an international crowd, flirting with Italian amari, Mexican tequila, British gin and Caribbean rum.

A perfect companion for drinks served where jazz is played and garters are de rigueur.

The Burlesque Bitters are a completely new concept for us. For the first time, we're playing with both florals and berries – which creates a fragrant aroma and a tart sourness that plays well with a variety of spirits.

Xocalatl Mole - 53%

Xocolatl Mole Bitters - Our original combination of cacao, cinnamon & spice. We recommend adding a dash to libations made with dark rum, aged tequila and any other dark spirits you may encounter.

Inspired by the classic Mole sauces of Mexico, this bitter was originally designed to pair with aged tequila, but we have found that it works beautifully with aged rum, bourbon and rye as well. We're big fans of putting a dash in an Old Fashioned or Manhattan, and new classics like The Conference or the Latin Quarter just wouldn't be the same without them.

Primary Flavors: Chocolate, Cinnamon, Spices

Elemakule Tiki - 44%

Elemakule Tiki Bitters - A taste of the islands. We recommend adding a dash to libations served in shrunken heads, volcanoes and miniature ceramic Moai.These bitters were inspired by one of the new garde of Tiki legends: Brian Miller. He asked if we ever considered making Falernum, a cordial filled with the spices of the West Indies.

Since we weren't cordial makers at the time, we decided to see if it was possible to create a bitter designed with tiki cocktails in mind. Our formulation takes into account the contributions from both the Eastern (Polynesia) and Western (Caribbean) schools of tropical cocktails.

Primary Flavors: Cinnamon and Allspice with a strong cast of supporting spice flavors

Hellfire Habanero - 44%

Hellfire Habanero Shrub - We love spicy foods here at Bittermens. In fact, habaneros appear in everything from cream sauces to omelets at home. However, we have found that when people try to make spicy cocktails, much of the time the flavor falls short.

The problem as we see it isn't the heat – it's how the heat is incorporated into the cocktail. Infusing jalapeño peppers into tequila is perfect if you want a tequila drink. However, simply putting commercial hot sauces, sambal or sriracha into a cocktail usually throws off the cocktail's balance.

The way that most hot sauces are made is by blending peppers with vinegar, salt and other spices. Vinegar, eh? That sure sounds like a shrub to us. Shrubs are classically refreshing fruit and vinegar-based syrups that were sweetened and diluted to make a beverage since revolutionary times. Instead of making a berry shrub or an orange shrub, why not make a hot pepper shrub?

We've fortified the shrub with alcohol (to better extract the flavors from the spices) and made it much more concentrated, so you only need to use drops instead of ounces to get the desired effect… which, in this case, is a good ol' bit of heat.

Hellfire Habanero

Orange Cream Citrate - 44%

Orange Cream Citrate - Instead of thinking about bitters, we started to explore the syrups and preparations used in soda shops, focusing on cream sodas and phosphates. Riffing on an orange cream soda syrup, we created a concentrated orange cream tincture and modified it with a heavy dose of citric acid (instead of using phosphoric acid like the soda jerks used to use). The result? The Orange Cream Citrate. Sweet, sour, tart and creamy, but not bitter by any sense.

BITTERMENS SPIRITS

Bittermens Citron Sauvage Liqueur

An updated bitter grapefruit aperitif in the Milanese style? A triple sec that's grapefruit instead of orange? What is this Citron Sauvage?Citron Sauvage is a grapefruit liqueur which we find eminently useful with a capital "U". Substitute it for Triple Sec in a Margarita for a beautiful pink hued cocktail. Add a dash to a Hemingway to accentuate the bitter grapefruit flavors. Just add a splash of soda for a refreshing spritz or start opening up new variations on a Negroni. We think it's a little taste of summer in a glass.
The Citron Sauvage is naturally cloudy and may separate during storage. This is normal and does not impact the flavor or shelf stability!

Bittermens New Orleans Coffee Liqueur

A coffee liqueur created by New Orleans-based Bittermens, better known for their bitters. This is a blend of Brazilian coffee beans, French chicory root, Taza chocolate cacao nibs and candi syrup.

Bittermens Amére Nouvelle

In Strasbourg, it's common to enjoy an Amer Biere as an aperitif before dinner. The Amer used for this preparation is a classic Alsatian type of liqueur that tastes of bitter orange, gentian and other spices. The Bittermens Amère Nouvelle is an American interpretation of this classic liqueur, designed to work in classic cocktails such as the Brooklyn and Liberal... and of course, it's beautiful in an Amer Biere.

BITTERMENS SPIRITS

Bittermens Amère Sauvage

At the heart of most French aperitif bitters, Italian Amari and classic cocktail bitters, one almost always finds gentian root. Our Amère Sauvage uses only French yellow gentian root to make our liqueur.Try combining equal parts gin, Lillet Blanc and Amère Sauvage to create a White Negroni or just enjoy it on the rocks or with club soda.

Bittermens Commonwealth Tonic Liqueur

We love a great tonic water, but it's increasingly difficult to find one, even though it seems that every week there's another producer of tonic water popping up.Our issue with the new garde of tonic waters is that they just aren't tonic-y enough. We figure that it's because there's only so much bitterness that you can extract without using a bit of alcohol. Sure, if you're making a soft drink, that's a no-no, but we think that tonic water is at its finest when combined with some gin and a couple of cubes of ice.Combine three quarters of Commonwealth, an ounce and a half of your favorite London Dry Gin and 4-5 ounces of soda water to make what we think is the perfect gin and tonic.

Bittermens Hiver Amer

Sometimes you discover something amazing purely by accident. When we were first working on the recipe for the Amère Nouvelle, we had a bit of a slip up on one of our early prototypes. Basically, due to a dropped decimal point, we put in ten times too much cinnamon. The interesting thing was that it worked. It wasn't a bitter orange and gentian liqueur like the Amère Nouvelle was designed to be, but it was pretty darned good. We thought that it would work well in winter cocktails or mulled wine applications and started toying with the name "Hiver Amer" – The Winter Bitter.

However, it was when the Tiki bartenders started to play with the Hiver Amer that we saw the power of this great mistake. It had many of the qualities of a cinnamon bark syrup but more bitter complexity and less sugar... and combined with our Citron Sauvage, it made a particularly interesting Don's Mix style liqueur.

"Within lies the history of a great product Angostura aromatic bitters; a product that has withstood the test of time, has remained a secret formula, has affected trade policies through its reclassification initiatives, and is today known as "the taste that flavors the world"

Angostura® orange bitters is made from the peels of sun-ripened Caribbean oranges grown in lush, green orchards located in Trinidad. These oranges are hand-picked by select citrus growers and harvested only within the rainy season to ensure ultimate freshness and taste. Clear and with an unparalleled depth of flavour, Angostura® orange bitters is an exotic and versatile bitters that works incredibly well with vodka, gin and whisky, and adds real depth of flavour to rum cocktails. Its complexity and layers of flavours also makes it a culinary must-have ingredient. World renowned chefs have found that it works particularly well in savoury sauces, it complements seafood dishes, and marries well with chocolate.

Made with the same original secret recipe since 1824, the world famous Angostura® aromatic bitters remains the quintessential and definitive ingredient for classic and contemporary cocktails. Its versatility, however, stretches way beyond the bar counter as it serves as a unique flavour enhancer with the ability to marry flavours in the preparation of all food dishes. Angostura® aromatic bitters also adds its unmistakable flavour and aroma to 'soft' beverages and desserts.

The classic New Orleans bitters and a crucial ingredient in the signature Sazerac cocktail, Peychaud's is sure to enhance the taste of whatever you're sipping.

As one of only two brands of cocktail bitters to survive from pre-prohibition days, Peychaud's is used some of the world's most classic cocktails like the Manhattan, Old Fashioned, and Whiskey Sour. Made right in New Orleans, it's been a legendary favorite since the 1800's.

PEYCHAUD BITTERS

In the early 1800's, Antoine Amedie Peychaud, an apothecary, gained fame in New Orleans not for the drugs he dispensed, but for the compounding of a liquid tonic called bitters.

These bitters, good for what ailed one, irrespective of malady, gave an added zest to the portions of cognac brandy he served in his pharmacy.

Cognac had long been a popular drink in the numerous coffee houses of New Orleans, and presently customers began demanding their brandy be spiked, with a dash of the marvellous Peychauds Bitters.

The zest Peychauds Bitters gives drinks and food has given it an honoured place in famous gourmet recipes the world over.

For any bar to be complete there must be a bottle of Peychaud's Bitters. Necessary in all of the most sophisticated cocktails, Peychaud's enhances the taste of whatever you're sipping.

Southern Comfort has been crafting our smooth-drinking whiskey for over 140 years, ever since our founder M.W. Heron created the 'The Grand Ole' Drink of the South' way back in 1874. Back then, he was fond of saying 'None Genuine But Mine' and it still holds true today – as whiskey lovers around the world reach for the unmistakeable, smooth-drinking flavor of Southern Comfort.

LIQUEUR ARTISANALE
ST-GERMAIN
DELICE DE SUREAU

Ironically, for a liqueur destined to assist in the slowing down and savoring of the moment, St-Germain begins with something of a race against time.

This is because there are only a few fleeting weeks in the spring when fresh wild blossoms can be gathered for St-Germain.

LUXARDO

LUXARDO MARASCHINO
- (COD0234LM)

Luxardo Maraschino follows the original recipe from 1821 and requires four years to produce this specialty. Marasca cherries are harvested from Luxardo's own trees and the solid components are then infused in larchwood. The product is distilled in small copper pot stills. Finally a combination of sugar and water is added before bottling.

CHAMBORD

Chambord, France's Liqueur Royale, is a magnificent liqueur made with the world's finest black and red raspberries combined with delicious honey and Madagascan vanilla. Its rich but delicate taste makes it an essential part of any cocktail list.

Chambord was inspired by a luxurious black raspberry liqueur produced for Louis XIV during one of his visits to Chateau Chambord. The Royal Chateau at Chambord is one of the most recognisable chateaux in the world because of its very distinct French Renaissance architecture that blends traditional medieval forms with classical Italian structures.

Chambord Black Raspberry Liqueur represents an era of luxury and indulgence sparked by Louis XIV and his descendants and the brand's orb shaped bottle is inspired by the centuries old symbol of the French monarchy.

CHAMBORD

Chambord is created using all natural ingredients. The finest black and red raspberries are blended, before being steeped in Cognac to achieve a highly concentrated base.
The mixture is then extracted and a second infusion captures the remaining flavours from the berries.
The final step is in the hands of the Maitre Liquoriste, who marries the berry infusion with Cognac and extracts of Madagascan vanilla, Moroccan citrus peel, honey and hints of fragrant herbs. The result is an unprecedented level of all-natural complexities, flavour and aroma.

Midori Liqueur

In 1971, when the International Bartenders Association held its International Cocktail Championships in Tokyo, delegates raved about the melon liqueur they sampled at the Suntory plant.

Taking the hint, Suntory spent seven years developing a new melon liqueur for the international market. 7 years later, Midori made its debut at Studio 54 Saturday night fever party with the "Japanese Gin and Tonic". It was the key ingredient in 'The Universe' – the cocktail that won first prize in the US Bartenders' Guild annual awards. This was the start of many award winning cocktails.

MIDORI is the original melon liqueur enhanced by premium Japanese musk melons that can be enjoyed with juices, spirits and other liqueurs. A fruity sensation of fresh melons.

Strawberry Liqueur

Briottet's Wild Strawberry Cream is the result of macerating several varieties of strawberries, and this gives rise to the liqueur's inimitable wild strawberry taste.

Mango Liqueur

Our Mango Liqueur, which is both soft and a great way of treating oneself, seduces the drinker by means of its unique taste. It will provide an exotic and tropical touch in all of your cocktails.

Apricot Cream

For our apricot cream (25% alcohol content) we select the most delicious variety of apricot the Bergeron apricot. Harvested in the Rhone valley in France in the month of August we leave the apricots to macerate for more than two months in a mixture of water and very fine neutral alcohol.

Raspberry Liqueur

The raspberries are soaked in a water-alcohol solution for a minimum period of two months. This enables all the finesse of the small berries to be extracted.
White sugar is then added to the infusion obtained and this elegant Raspberry Cream is the result.

Creme De Mure

The recipe for this product has evolved as techniques have developed -- about 15 years ago, we made our Blackcurrant Cream using macerated blackberries. This technique did not bring out the fruit's true flavours. The extraction process employed to obtain the natural flavours of the blackberry is much more effective and it brings out all of the taste of the small fruit.

Ginger Liqueur

Our Ginger Liqueur is made from fresh ginger roots, which are macerated and then distilled. Following the addition of sugar, we obtain a powerful liqueur with a pronounced ginger taste.

Rhum Martinique

Dark Agricultural Rhum
Martinique AOC – Santa Marita
(COD0929)

Our Dark Agricultural Rum (40% alcohol) is an agricultural rum which has Martinique AOC status. It meets very specific specifications as to the manufacturing process employed, the variety of sugar cane used and also as to storage and ageing. Rhum Agricole is a form of rum popular in the French islands of the Caribbean including Martinique (where this one is from and which has AOC status), La Reunion, Haiti, the Dominican Republic and Guadeloupe. It's made from fermented sugar cane juice and not molasses as all other rums are. The reason for this was the change France made in the early 1900s when the country switched to using cheaper sugar beets for sugar production instead of sugar cane.

THE BERRY COMPANY

The Berry Company

The exotic Brazilian rainforest brought to life the Acai berry and it is now vastly recognised as one of the most dominant antioxidants, thus can accelerate the fight against free radical damage to the body.

Packed full of antioxidants, amino acids and essential fatty acids, Acai berries are known to help digestion, improve sleep, boost immune system, along with a plethora of other health benefits.

Acai tastes like a vibrant blend of berries and chocolate. Hidden within the acai's royal purple pigment is the magic that makes it nature's perfect energy fruit. Our Acai berry juice is blended with raspberries to give it that dazzling, unique taste leaving you wanting more and more!

OCEAN SPRAY

CRANBERRY JUICE:

The history of the cranberry dates back hundreds of years.

Native Americans mixed deer meat and mashed cranberries to make pemmican - a survival cake that kept for long periods of time. They also believed in the medicinal qualities of cranberries, with Medicine men valuing the cranberry as an ingredient in poultices to draw poison from arrow wounds. The rich red juice of the cranberry also served as a natural dye for rugs, blankets and clothing. And amongst the Delaware Indians in New Jersey the cranberry was even revered as a symbol of peace.

Cranberries are one of only three fruits native to North America (Blueberries and Concord grapes are the other two).They have been known by many different names. Eastern Indians called them "sassamanesh" while the Cape Cod Pequots and the South Jersey Leni-Lenape tribes named them “ibimi” or bitter berry and the Algonquins of Wisconsin called the fruit "atoqua".

But it wasn't until German and Dutch settlers came up with the term "crane berry", because the cranberry blossom resembles the head and bill of a crane, that we arrive at what we know today as the cranberry.

Step-up features:

Timer with Auto Shutoff stops under- and over-blending problems and lets operators multi-task while the blender is on.

Cycle Blending takes the guesswork out of popular drink profiles. Each cycle contains pre-programmed pulses & speeds that maximize results and minimize mistakes.

Memory Card remembers a company's unique drink profiles for consistent blending results every time.

Jar Pad Sensor helps prevent "over and sour" from operator misuse. It turns the motor off when the container is not in place to reduce senseless clutch grinding.

Wave~Action™ System has a unique container and blade design for smooth results with no ice chunks.

Hopper Sensor prevents the lid from being opened when the machine is operating.

Drain Sensor automatically sends melted ice in the hopper down the drain – not into drinks. Unique design resists clogging, which can cause backflow and flooding.

Quiet Shield™ sound enclosure reduces blender volume so effectively that this blender is the quietest in its class.

Auto Blend is a feature that stops the blender when drinks reach the perfect consistency to help prevent over-blending and watery results.

Cavitation Control automatically adjusts the blending speed if cavitation occurs to help prevent under-blending and minimize blending time.
