

SkillsUSA Members, Advisors, and Guests,

Welcome to the 59th annual SkillsUSA West Virginia State Leadership and Skills Conference! My name is Bobby Lucas, your 2024-2025 state president, and I am thrilled to see all of you at our conference this year!

The 2024-2025 year has been characterized by a combination of hard work, learning, and of course plenty of fun. My fellow state officers and I would like to extend a personal thank you to each member for their support and dedication to SkillsUSA. Throughout the course of this year I have learned and experienced numerous new things. With the constant help and support of a great officer team, SkillsUSA West Virginia, as well as every member, I have done everything in my power to be the leader and the president each one of you deserve. Our state officer team has done well to promote career and technical education in the great state of West Virginia. As a new SkillsUSA officer team takes our place, I hope that they will continue to push towards the closing of the skills gap. I wish the best of luck to every one of our skilled competitors as they show how career and technical education is the road to a bright future. I know SkillsUSA West Virginia will be represented well.

I would like to sincerely thank everyone for the unwavering support I have received during my time as a state officer. I can't express how incredible of an experience this has been. During my year as your president, I have learned how to be a leader, but more importantly how to be part of a team. Over the course of my membership, SkillsUSA has taught me not only soft skills and the importance of career skills, but it has granted me the opportunity to make real connections that I am eternally grateful for. To my officer team, I would like to thank you for going above and beyond any chance you get. Whether it be preparing for a conference, making activities for your classrooms, or just being genuine friends, you would go the extra mile every time, and my gratitude for that is immeasurable. I will always cherish you all, and I can't wait to see what you accomplish! To our talented SkillsUSA WV state director, Mrs. Melissa Wilkinson, and state officer trainer, Ms. Tonia Fry, thank you for making me into the best version of myself. From teaching me about leadership, to teaching me the value of myself and my actions, you both have supported me endlessly. You have not only blessed my life, but you also continue to bring life to SkillsUSA WV like no one else could. To Larry Harshbarger and Jennifer Bayless, thank you for always driving me and supporting me in my journey as a state officer. The difference you have made in my life is immeasurable, and I will forever be indebted to you. And to my first supporters, my mother and father, thank you. Thank you for preparing me to step into such a position of leadership, and for supporting me while I'm there. And finally, to my fellow members, keep learning, connecting, and pushing.

You are all capable of phenomenal things.

Best Wishes, Bobby Lucas 2024-25 SkillsUSA WV State President

Guest Speaker

Dr. Michael "Mike" Davis

Dr. Michael "Mike" Davis began histenure as the 27th President of Fairmont State University in July of 2023 and immediately committed himself to positioning Fairmont State as the best regional university in West Virginia.

Using the insights he gathered from listening to countless constituents ranging from students to faculty and staff, community members, business partners, international partners, and state legislators, he guided the creation of a robust Strategic Vision. This vision — for the University to become a Great Place to Learn, to Work, and to Call Home — will guide Fairmont State throughout the next decade as it seeks to educate engaged citizens in a community distinguished by opportunity, growth, and achievement, and delivers transformational impact for West Virginia and beyond.

Dr. Michael "Mike" DavisFairmont State University
President

Under President Davis' guidance, the Fairmont State University Day of Giving set fund-raising records in each of his first two years. He created new ways for Fairmont State to engage with our local communities like the Presidential Speaker Series and community movie nights. He also changed the way the University engages with our state lawmakers. During Fairmont State's annual Day at the Capitol, President Davis placed an emphasis on demonstrating our importance to West Virginia and ensured that Fairmont State continues to be part of vital legislative discussions concerning the state's future. He has initiated studies to ensure equitable pay across the University and implemented further benefits to improve the lives of its employees. Finally, President Davis enhanced students' academic and life experience at Fairmont State, and created new academic programs, new internship and externship opportunities, and a more vibrant campus experience.

Prior to assuming the leadership role at Fairmont State, Dr. Davis was Chief of Staff at James Madison University (JMU). In that role, Dr. Davis managed JMU's presidential priorities and directed matters of policy and institutional importance, including strategic planning, institutional research, and accreditation. He was also regularly involved in external relations, crisis management and strategic communication, alumni engagement and advancement, diversity and inclusion leadership, fundraising, and fiscal management.

President Davis earned a Doctor of Philosophy in Communication Studies and a Graduate Certificate in Women's and Gender Studies from the University of Georgia. He also holds a Master of Arts and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communication and Rhetorical Studies from Syracuse University. His academic research interests center on women in the Civil Rights Movement, debate pedagogy, presidential rhetoric, and argumentation and advocacy.

President Davis believes that higher education is fueled by relationships. His interactions with students, faculty, staff, alumni, parents, legislators and friends of the university foster teamwork, regularly propel innovative partnerships and position Fairmont State University as a Great Place to Learn, a to Work, and to Call Home.
