Since the train is a mode of transportation controlled by someone other than yourself (unless you dream yourself as the engineer), it can symbolize a powerful force guiding you, which you may either feel flowingly aligned in trusting, or for some, you might feel you have no control and that can cause anxiety. In my dream, this felt very relaxed and peacefully relieving, which is what I've been feeling in waking life of trusting completely in where I'm guided, whatever that means or takes...Tania Marie <https://taniamarieartist.wordpress.com/2013/12/13/riding-the-train-of-life-symbolism-to-navigate-the-tracks-of-your-journey/>

Suffice it to say, the news isn't good for criminals stealing homes with the counterfeit securities being paraded as Deed's of Trusts or Mortgages. Our team is on the move and as i am fondly referred to by Jack Suttie as "The Freight Train for Justice" i will not run out of steam until every last criminal is in jail and all homes are returned! PLUS DAMAGES PAID!! We are rolling through town fast and without stopping! Get on the train or walk into a jail cell, your choice.

Judges, Sheriff, police, court clerks, Bank Employees, Attorneys and more are being arrested at alarming rates for Fraud upon the court, for pay to play schemes, for planting evidence, for covering up crimes to unjustly enrich themselves, and yes, FOR STEALING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY via COUNTERFEIT SECURITIES! Are you going to jail with them or are you getting on my freight train to Justice? Your call.
