

Family Support Newcastle's Family Relationships & Skills Project in partnership with Hunter Women's Centre invite women of the Rainbow Community with children in their care to a Free

Tie Dying Workshop!

Celebrating LGBTQIA Pride in a safe space!

Show off your unapologetic Pride by transforming your boring mainstream apparel into a work of Art!

Connect with parents in your community

Bring along any white cotton material you would like to revamp

Morning Tea, Materials & Children's Activities provided

When: Wednesday 8th May, 2019

Time: Meet at 9:45am for a 10.00am start - 1.00pm

Where: Hunter Women's Centre,
60 Industrial Drive, Mayfield

To book your place please call the Hunter Women's Centre on 4968 2511