From the Office of Les Smith:

Les Smith is a retired deputy sheriff of the City of Chesapeake with over 28 years of service in the Sherriff's Department. He is currently a business owner in the financial industry where he hosts business expo's throughout the City of Chesapeake, Virginia.

As native of Chesapeake and former Chairman of the Chesapeake Democratic Committee, Les wants to be your voice on Chesapeake City Council.

Les is a graduate of The University of Richmond with an undergraduate degree from St. Paul College and a faithful member of numerous organizations such as, New Chesapeake Men for Progress; New Chesapeake Men for Progress Education Foundation; NAACP; Fraternal Order of Police; Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated; National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice; and the Chesapeake Democratic Committee.

Les also serves as Founder of Ground Zero Development Program. It is a non-profit male mentoring program that Les started to support young males in the Chesapeake community. He is also a member of the Chesapeake Sports Club and Hampton Roads Democratic Business Alliance.

Les Smith has been a huge supporter of the well being and public safety of the Chesapeake community.
