4. PRODUCTS

All products are subject to availability. We reserve the right to discontinue any products at any time for any reason. Prices for all products are subject to change.

5. IN-APP PURCHASE AND PAYMENT

We will launch and distribute our apps globally through the Apple App Store and/or Google Play. Our apps, however, will provide certain features and limits to users as paid in-app purchases. To access these paid features under this Agreement, you must first complete the payment process.

In-app purchase features are available on an annual, semi-annual, quarterly, monthly, or weekly basis and will be re-billed periodically by the Apple App Store and/or Google Play, depending on the auto-renewable subscription model, until cancelled by the user. The Apple App Store and/or Google Play will send a notification email with a subscription management link prior to renewal. App payments will be processed through the platform from which you initially downloaded the app. You can access the in-app purchase rules and policies directly from the Apple App Store and/or Google Play. You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for managing your in-app purchases and the amount spent within our apps.

Be aware that purchasing content or our apps through Google Play requires a Google Payments account and agreement to Google Payments Terms and Terms of Service. The Google Payments Privacy Notice applies to purchases made using a Google Payments account. You are responsible for all amounts payable related to purchases made through Google Play on your Google Payments account. Additionally, Google may offer various payment processing methods besides Google Payments to facilitate content or app purchases through Google Play. You must comply with any relevant terms and conditions or other legal agreements, whether with Google or a third party, governing your use of a specific payment processing method. Google may add or remove payment processing methods at its sole discretion. You are solely responsible for all amounts payable associated with purchases made on Google Play.

To determine eligibility for billing content or app purchases through your network provider's account, Google Play will send your device identifiers to your network provider when you create a Google Play account. You must accept the network provider's terms of service to enable this. The network provider may send your billing address information to Google Play, which will be held and used in accordance with Google's Privacy Policies and Google Payments Privacy Notice.

If you are under 18, you must obtain legal permission from your parents or guardians to make in-app purchases. By completing an in-app purchase, you confirm that you have obtained the necessary permissions. We recommend that parents or legal guardians of individuals under 18 consider using any parental controls provided by the Apple App Store and/or Google Play if they are concerned about excessive in-app purchases.

In-app purchases are bought from and billed by the Apple App Store or Google Play, not us. These purchases are subject to the terms and conditions of the Apple App Store and/or Google Play. All billing and refund inquiries should be directed to the respective platform. We do not have access to transactions or accounts on these platforms.

If an in-app purchase fails to download or function properly after successful download, we will investigate the issue upon becoming aware of the problem or receiving notification from you. We will reasonably determine whether to provide a replacement or issue a patch to fix the issue. We will not charge you for any replacement or repair. If we are unable to replace or repair the in-app purchase within a reasonable time and without significant inconvenience, we will authorize the Apple App Store and/or Google Play to refund you up to the cost of the purchase. Alternatively, you may request a refund by contacting the Apple App Store and/or Google Play directly.

You acknowledge and agree that all billing and transaction processes are managed by the Apple App Store and/or Google Play, depending on where you downloaded our apps, and are governed by their respective terms and conditions/end-user license agreements. If you have any payment-related issues with in-app purchases, you must contact the Apple App Store and/or Google Play directly for assistance.

6. REFUNDS POLICY

All sales are final and no refund will be issued.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right, at your expense, to assume the exclusive defense and control of any matter for which you are required to indemnify us, and you agree to cooperate, at your expense, with our defense of such claims. We will use reasonable efforts to notify you of any such claim, action, or proceeding which is subject to this indemnification upon becoming aware of it.

28. MISCELLANEOUS

These Legal Terms and any policies or operating rules posted by us on the Services or in respect to the Services constitute the entire agreement and understanding between you and us. Our failure to exercise or enforce any right or provision of these Legal Terms shall not operate as a waiver of such right or provision.
