

1. Mr. Hunter shows his horticulture class how it's done. 2. "These are pretty good for our first try," comments Howard McWilliams. 3. "Who told you that you didn't have to suit up?" asks Coach Drake. 4. Mr. Bielecki and Ms. Hill take time out from their busy schedule for a friendly chat.

Dear Randall D....

You sweetheart you I have loved you all year long and all you did was break my heart. Don't worry I still love you. We had some great times this year: when we went to Corona del Mar to take pictures (I love that picture of me & you) when you saved me from Richard Dillman (don't you dare tell him!) and when you scared me half to death on Halloween as Dracula!! Student Council was another fun thing, I never got to sit by you! It was awful! well

Randall D. I find myself getting sentimental when I think of this year and what may not be next year.

I love you Randall,

Sylvia Garcia

Each year the Seniors have an opportunity to select their class favorites. For the first time, the faculty were also given the chance to select their own "Faculty Favorites". They had fun picking and choosing among their fellow faculty members and then finally deciding on who they felt best exemplified the various categories.

"Best Personality"

They have their Favorites too

"Prettiest Eyes"

1. It's not hard to see why Harvey Keller and Carol Lords were chosen as the couple with the funniest laugh-or- "If I could only remember the punch line!" 2. "Gaze into my eyes if you could only see them", smirk Valaree Wood and Gary Orsinger. 3. Here we have the trio known for their fun-loving and friendly personalities. Gil Bell, Cheryl Kennedy, and Larry Rice (can they really compete with the Three Musketeers?) 4. Mike Coppenger, our dedicated photography teacher, proudly exhibits his plaque after being honored as Young Educator of the Year. 5. "A one and a two and a RAH! RAH! RAH!" cheer Frank Talenfeld and Marge Scott, "most spirited."

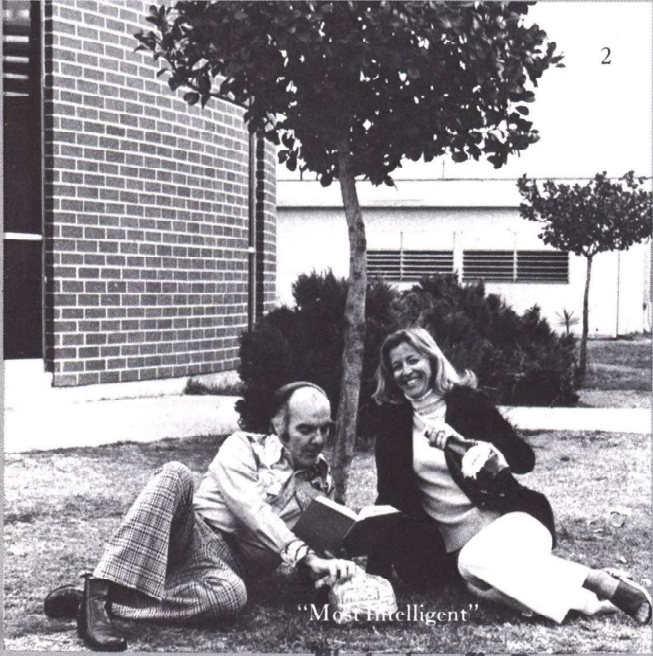

"Most Spirited"

1. "What's a friendly person like you doing in a spot like this?" asks Joe Gough of Carol Ingersoll. 2. Mr. Allgood and Ms. Hill, "Most Intelligent", enjoy a few moments with a loaf of bread, a jug of wine, and thou. 3. Traveling incognito are the faculty comics, Bob Jones and "Ruthie" Ravenscraft - "Most Humorous". 4. A rare minute away from their teams, "Most Athletic", Coach Belladella and Sally Carman pose for their picture.

In Memoriam:

Our beloved Mrs. Mildred Thompson who served as the secretary to the principal prior to her death in October, 1974.

Green be the turf above thee
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love thee
Nor named thee but to praise.

Fritz - Green Helleck

A Tribute

A yearbook is designed to give recognition and to press into the book of eternity all the joys and tears of other days. I should like for the 1975 El Orosio to also express my sincere gratitude to the faculty, staff, and student body of Warren High School. It has been my great joy to serve as your principal during these last four years and I have nothing but heartfelt thanks for the outstanding support and kindness extended to me by so many of you.

Warren High School is a "better place" precisely because of her people. Her teachers and staff are persons who demonstrate a sincere concern about young people and put forth that extra effort to assist them toward maturity. I know of no other high school, faculty, and staff of such stature as ours. It is a daily pleasure to work with the Warren High School family and I shall carry that affection with me all my days.

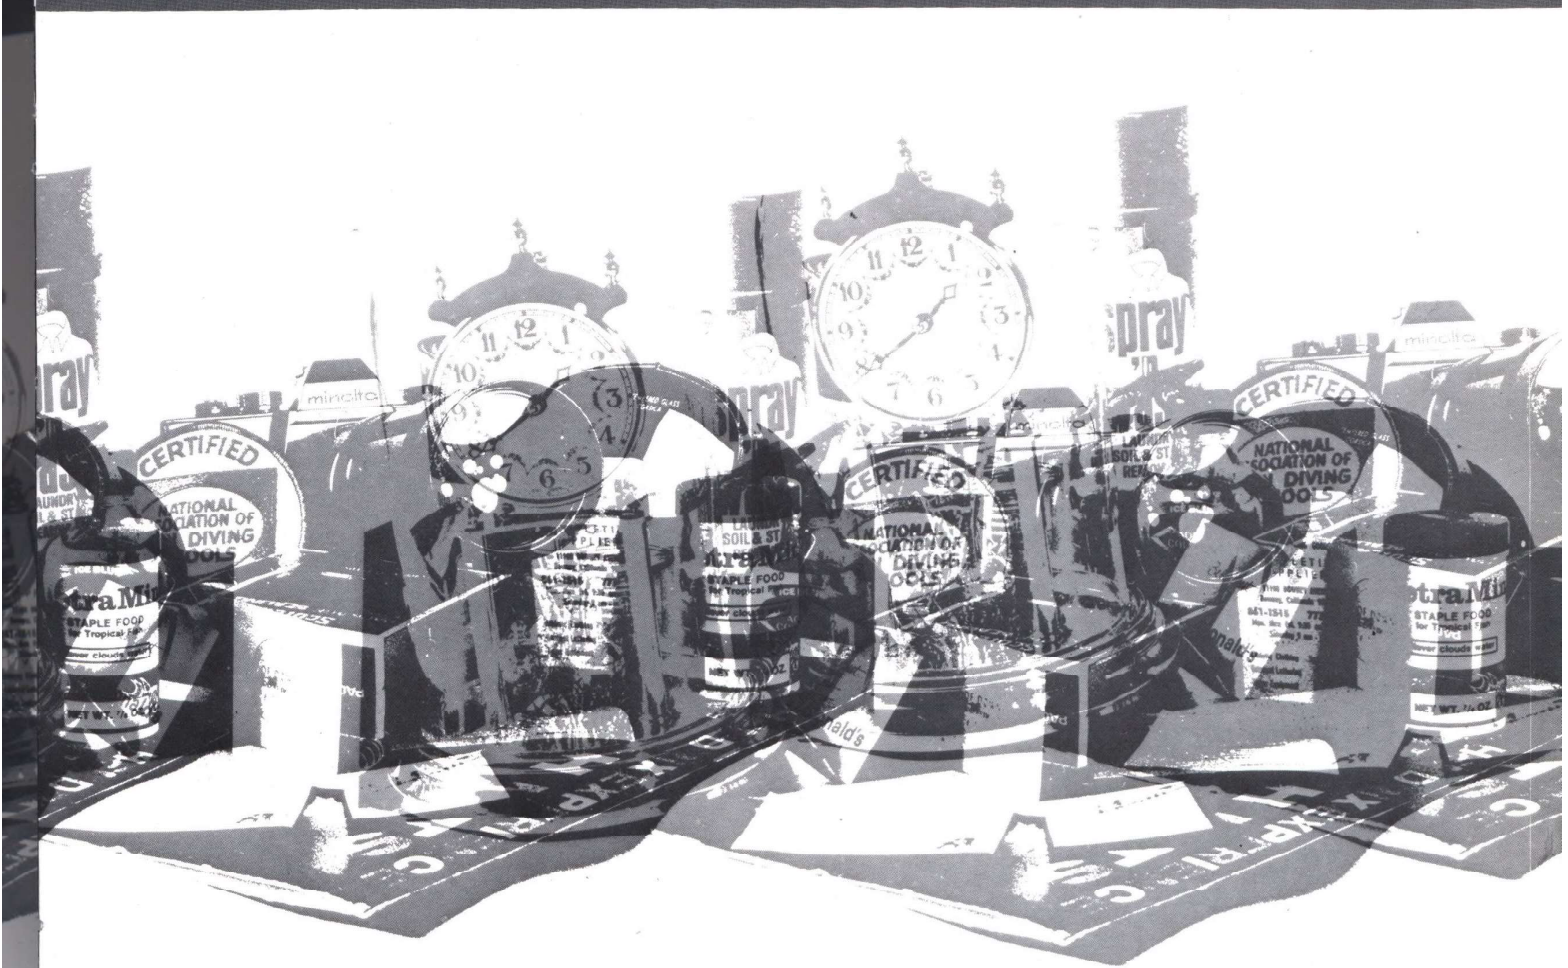

Tom Robinson

We are grateful to those businesses who have purchased advertisements. Whether you knew it or not, without these advertisements our El Oroso would have no color or special effects, pictures, and very likely would contain fewer pages. These advertisements aid us in the cost of the El Oroso. To show your gratitude, please thumb through the advertisements and patronize them. They helped us so let's return the favor.
