

RANDALL D. GUYNN
SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

EL OR OS
O

Randy,
Thanks for friend being my friend and helping me out in cross country.
God bless you
Dw (MVP)

Randy,
It was fun this year being on the yearbook staff for two weeks. Have a good summer and will probably see you around York Noell
Ed Hester

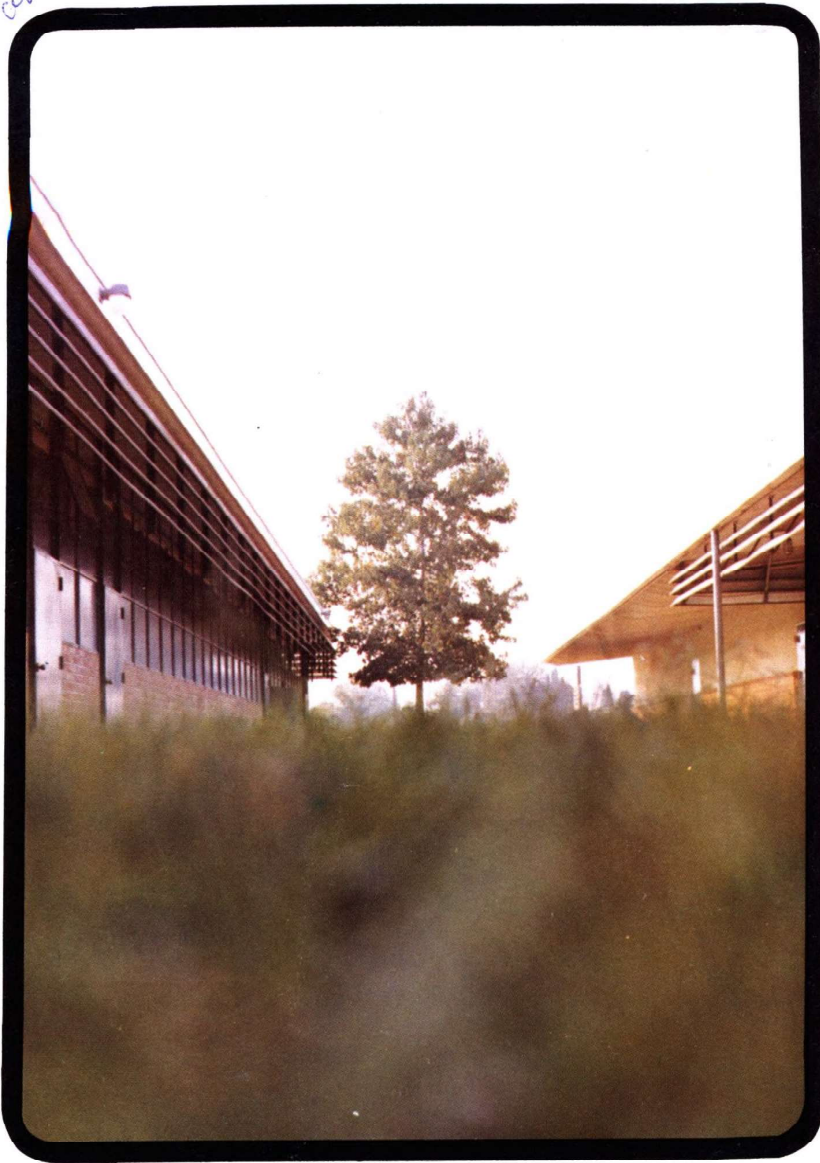

Photo by R. D. Gynn

1975 El Oroso 'the golden bear' Volume 19

COVER PHOTO by
Photo by R. D. Gynn

Warren High School
8141 DePalma
Downey, California 90241

Published by the El Oroso staff

Beginning	1-15
Academics	16-25
Organizations	26-41
Student Life	42-69
Athletics	70-113
Seniors	114-161
Honored Bears	162-177
Underclassmen	178-219
Clubs	220-239
Faculty	240-275
Advertisements	276-305
Index	306-315
Ending	316-320

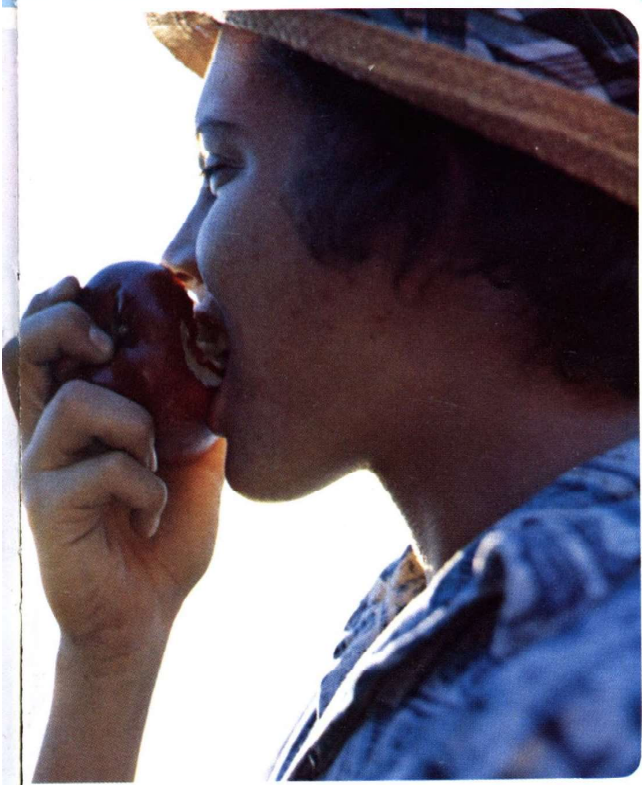

Photo by R. B. Gynn

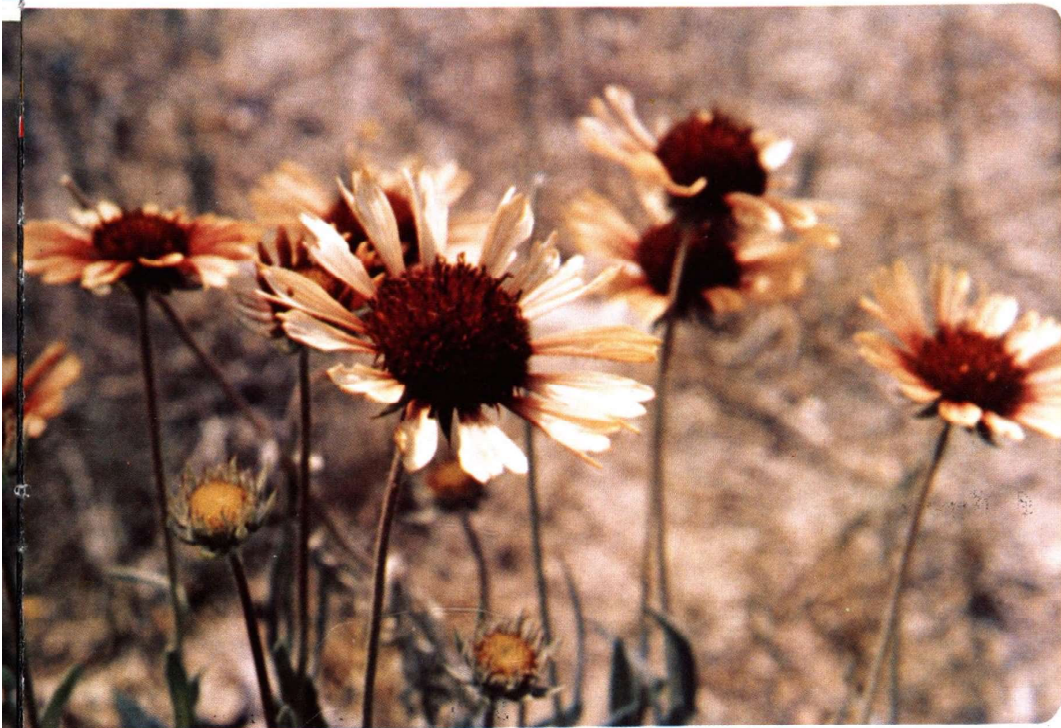

Photo by R. B. Gynn

Look to all that surrounds you, Listen to the serenity of your world.
Catch the scent
of joy and sorrow;
Reach out and touch someone who cares to share the bittersweet taste of life.

Photo by R. B. Gygis

Our world keeps whirling - rushing the times by and marking life with happenings
Some go by with a wink, Others,
surprise our essence.
compelling us to respond - with a cloudburst of rain, or the dawnbreak of sun.

Photo by R. D. Gynn

Photo by R. D. Gynn

Photo by R. B. Gynn

Photo by R. D. Guyon

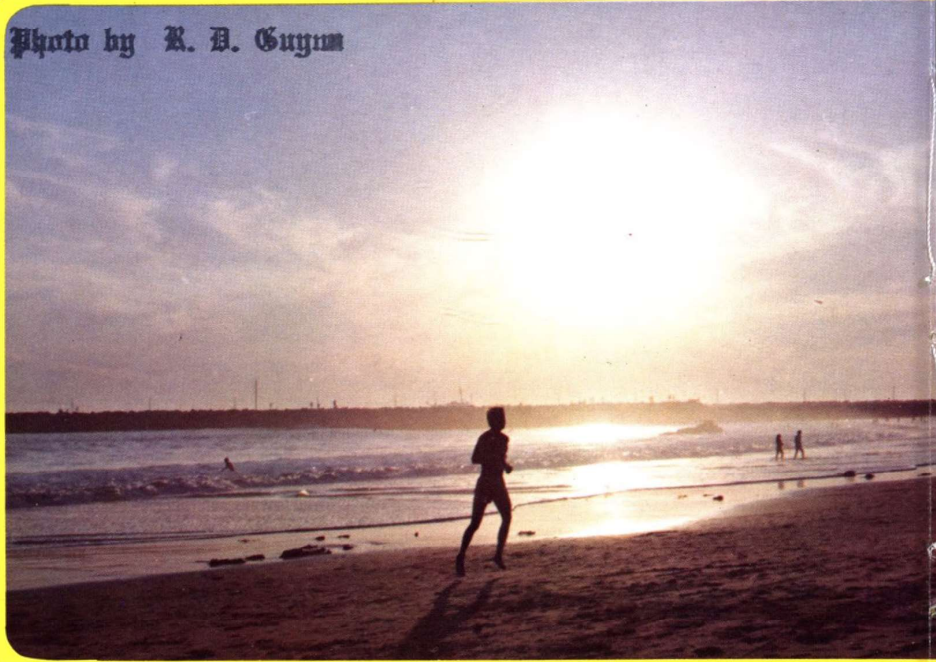

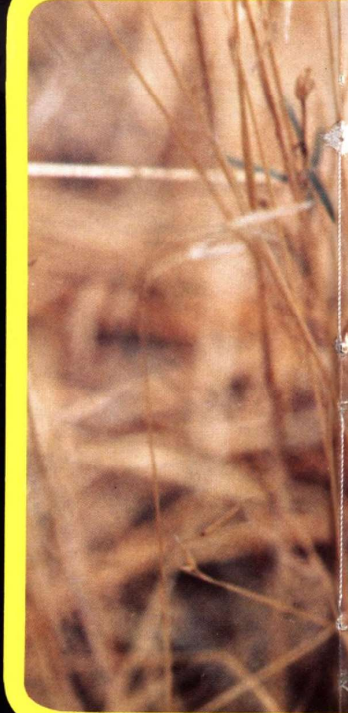

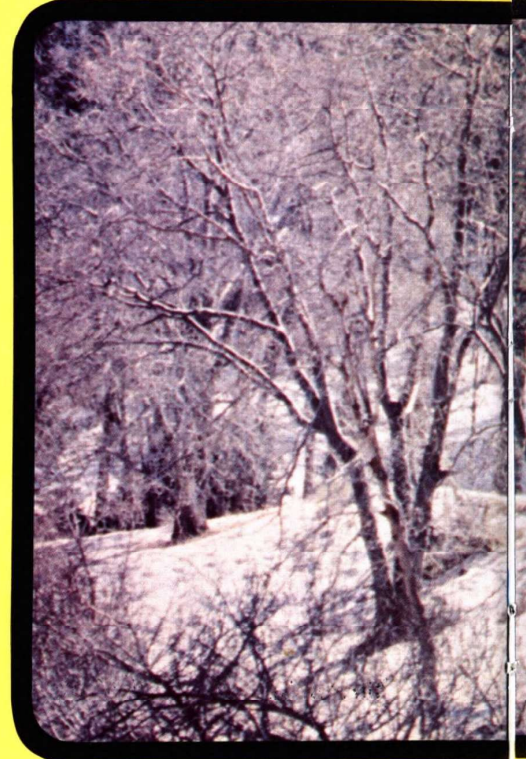

Photo by R. D. Guyon

Remember those lazy days, When you kicked back and felt as carefree as the wind?
Every adventure was special, while the sparkling minutes turned to pass shining hours of the day.

Of course there were times when you were trapped with responsibilities.

Yet dreams of faraway places and faces still trimmed the corners of your mind.

And how about those mischievous twinklings,
When to do something sneaky was the biggest thrill of life - Only to find out later it was just a crazy idea that was wonderful while it lasted!

At this time, Warren High pays tribute to our "golden bear" the character the yearbook was named for.
Through the years, he has turned touched all of us to turn us into true
"Warren Bears!"

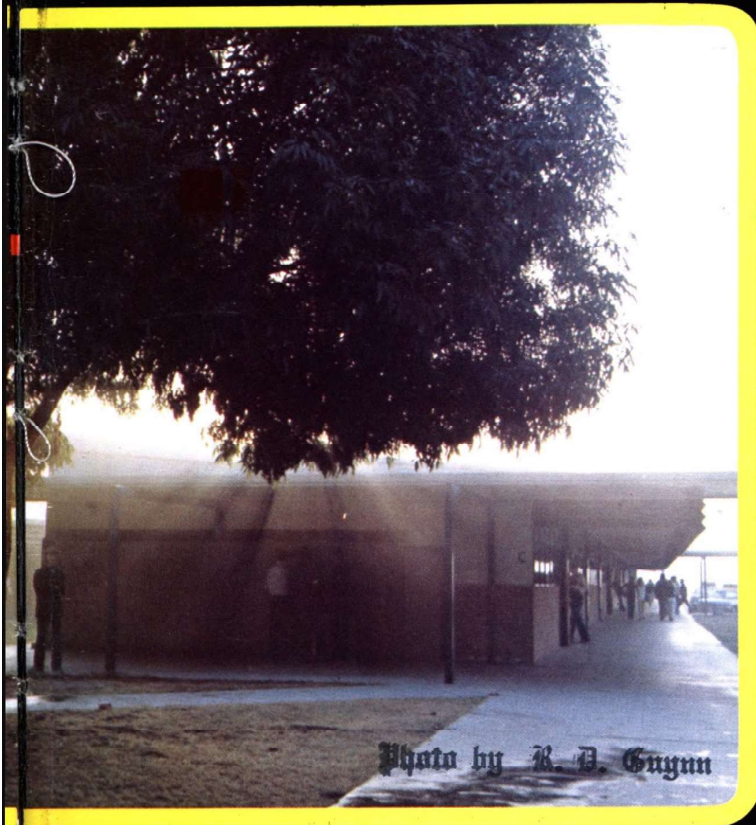

Photo by R. D. Gagnon

All these feelings had their meanings, Sharing places - times - people still recalled Through the eyes and shadows of Warren High,
Our world was real and life was all.

ACADEMICSACADEMICS

ACADEMICS

In the following section, the El Oros covers academic activities at Warren High School. Basic courses such as Music, English, and Home Economics have expanded to offer classes such as Bachelor Living, Rock to Bach, and Humanities. The learning experience for Warren students occurred away from school as well as on campus: for instance, Biology classes went to study and observe the flora and fauna of Wilderness Park; Oceanography class and club learned more about the sea on their visits to Scripps Institute of Oceanography, San Onofre Nuclear Power Station, and a special cruise aboard a large oceanographic research vessel. Field trips such as these allowed more room for creativity and enlightenment. Warren has been active in both sports fields and academic areas. This section is dedicated to the students who explore the world of the mind.

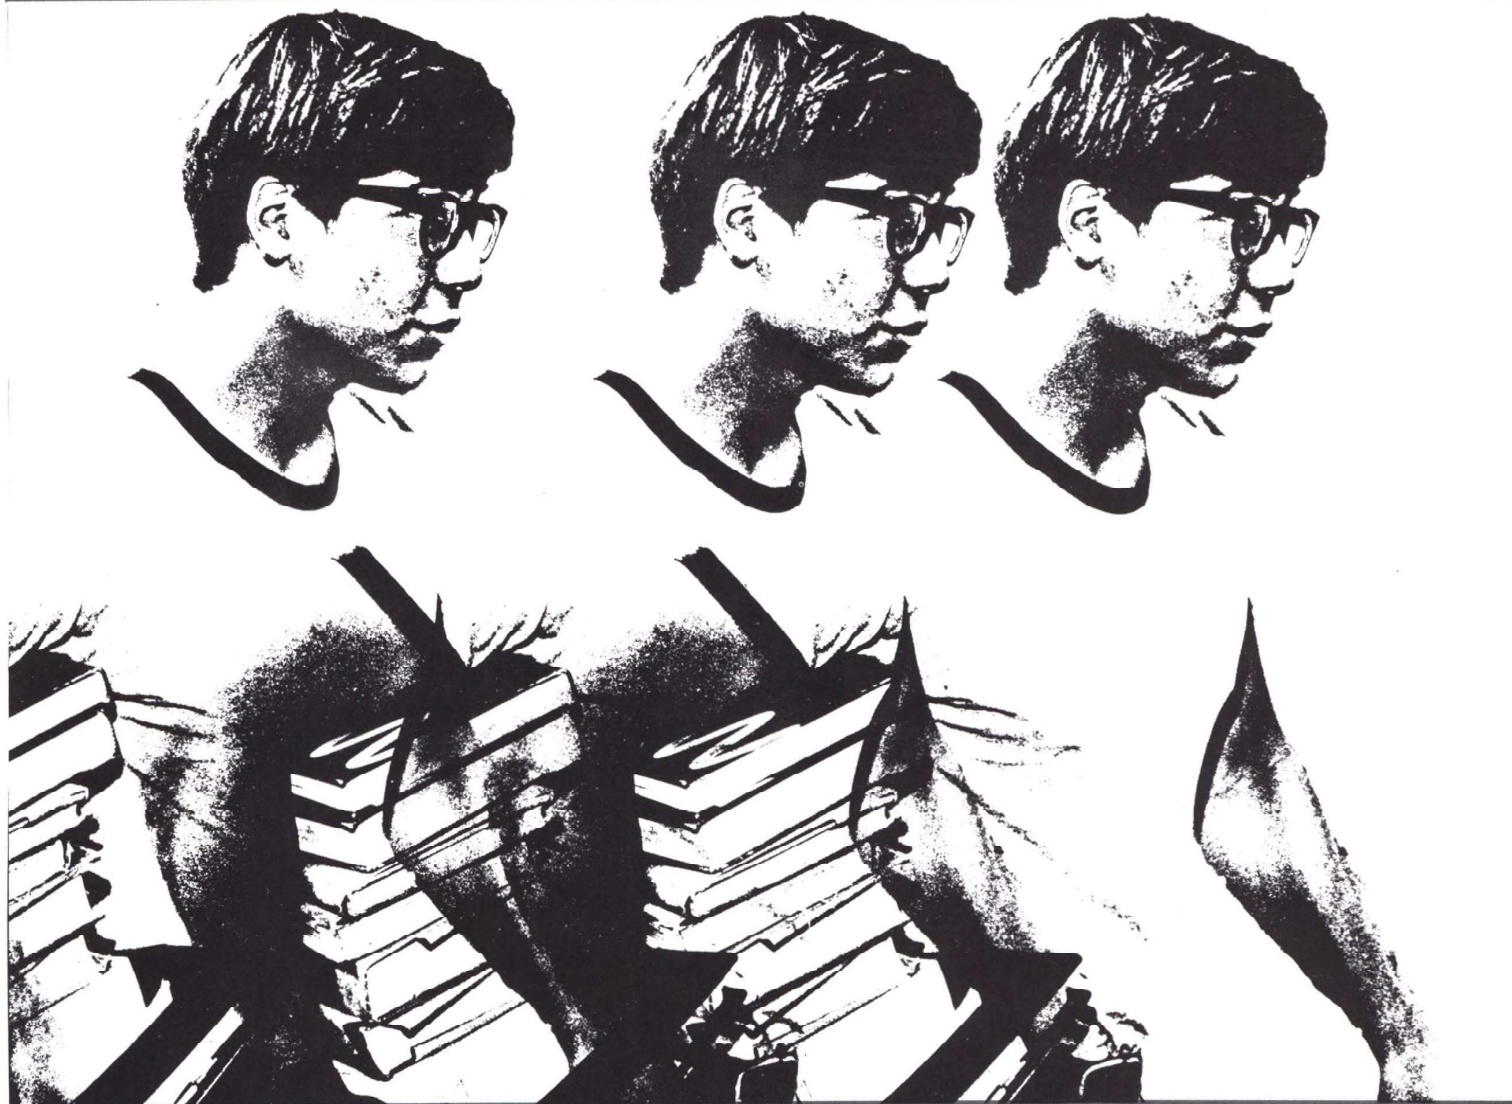

Photo by R. B. Gynn

A Closed Mind, like a Closed Room

Photo by R. D. Guynn

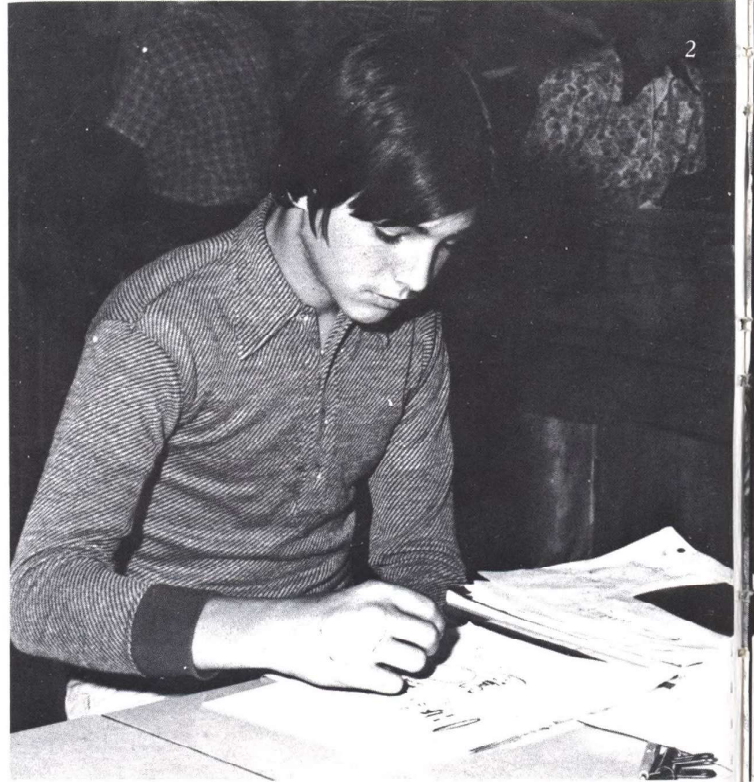

Photo by R. D. Guynn

1. Jeff Clingan creates a work of art(?) 2. David Forinza carefully adds shading and lines to his drawing of your basic Hi-C can. 3. Peter Clopp assembles his Grandfather clock — the product of a year and a half of work. 4. Randy Guynn displays one of the various photography techniques used for taking pictures of the camera shy. 5. Marianne Reibel tries her hand at drafting, once a "Boys Only" course. 6. Kicking back and relaxing while supposedly improving the landscape are (the feet) Jerry Ozman, Guy Brinson, and Brian Berk. 7. Mr. Coppenger, who was awarded the "Educator of the Year" looks on as Rob Cron puts the finishing touches on his photo project.

Photo by R. D. Guynn

For a great runner you're a prose photographer. HA! HA! You can become awfully Stuffy had a great year and I hope to see you in the future.
Mike Wick

Photo by R. D. Gwynn

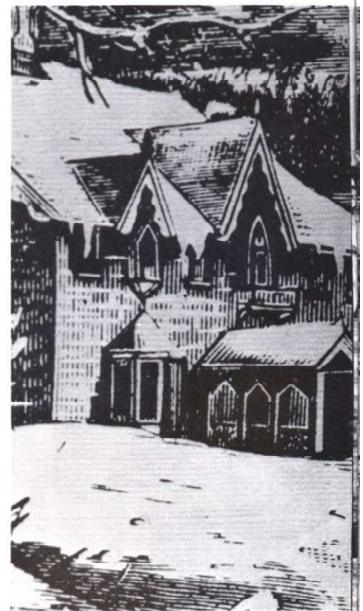

Photo by R. D. Gwynn

Combined Colors, Shapes, and

*And the wolf will actually reside for a while with the male lamb, and with the kid the leopard itself will lie down, and the calf and the maned young lion and the well-fed animal all together:
and a mere little boy will be leader over them.*

Isaiah 11:6,7

Sizes create things of Beauty . . .

SKI

1. Clay Anderson depicts a motocross rider, a Graphic Arts project that may have been seen on the backs of motocross freaks at school. 2. Marsha Mulloy's batik shows creative design and patterns. 3. Dedicated to those people on campus who frequent the snowy slopes of California: Mike Weyrick catches the style and grace of freelance skiing in his magazine cover project for Photo II. 4. Marla Sheehan captures the glamour of one of World War II's pin up girls - Rita Hayworth. 5. The icy waters of a Washington spring are shown in this picture by Bruce Clumpner. 6. The hometown character of country singer John Denver is portrayed in a Commercial Art project by Kelly Usher. 7 Words of inspiration, as quoted from the Bible by Valerie Griffith. 8. A snow scene reproduced by Dan Stromen in Graphic Arts.

To Learn something New, take the

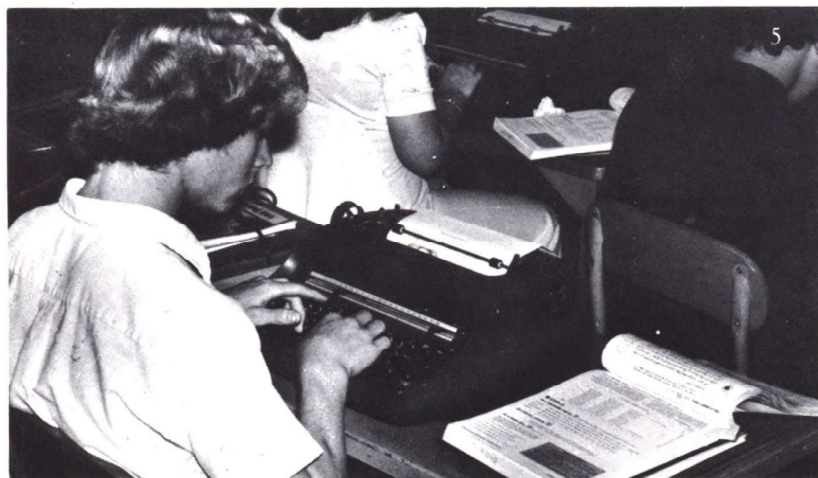

Photo by R. B. Gynn

1. Jerry Ozmon, Mark Landon, and Chris Fuller struggle with the newly acquired task of sewing in a new Home Economics class called Bachelor Living. 2. Carrie Psalmonds, Carrie Monroe, Lynn Rochrs, and Debbie Myers concentrate on the dialogue in a Foreign Language lab. 3. Mr. Allgood explains the inner meaning of the book "A Separate Peace" to members of his Sophomore Honors English class. 4. Petra Edmonds passes a cup of flour to the cook in the process of making another confectionary delight. 5. The hurried clatter of typewriters as David Husband speeds through a timed writing, praying for that sounding bell. 6. Mark Landon, dabbling in the world of sewing, starts to wonder if he wants to be a Bachelor in the future or not. 7. Note taking time, but Patty Schneid has eyes for the camera, but after all, which is more fun? 8. Lori Lynn Ross, Future Homemaker of America??

Path that you took Yesterday

Photo by R. D. Gynn

Photo by R. D. Gynn

Photo by R. D. Gynn

Strange how much you've got to know

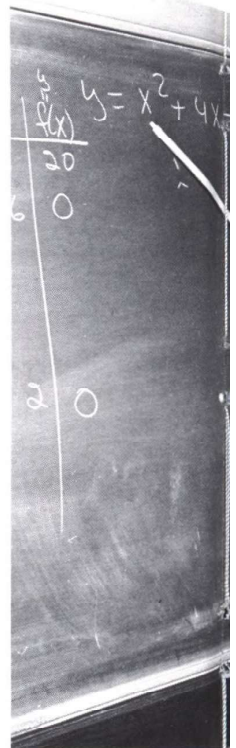

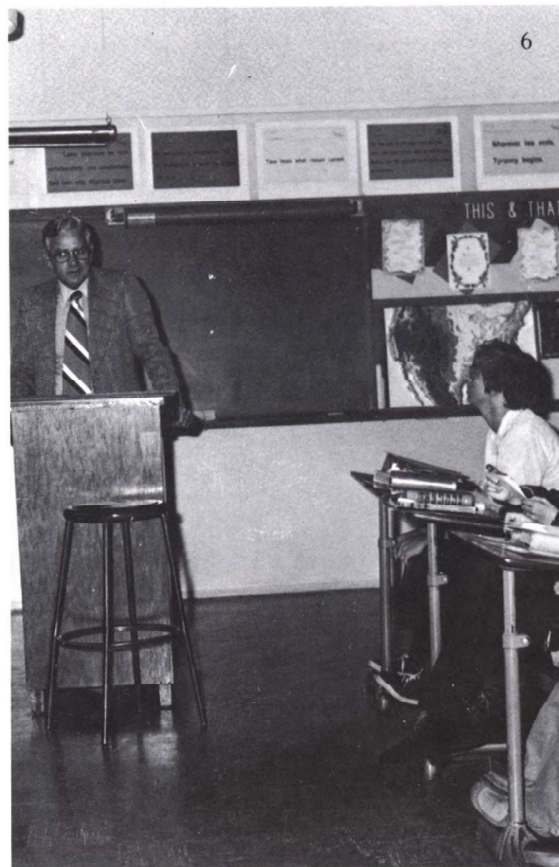

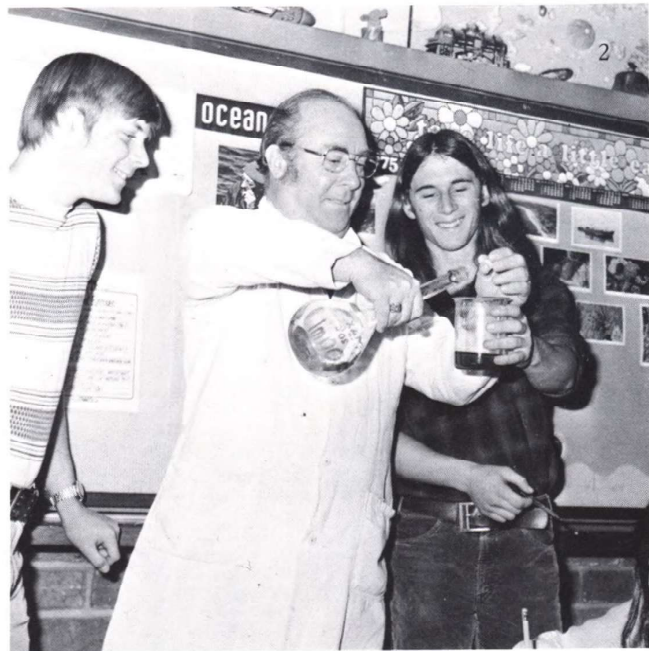

Photo by R. D. Guggen

before you know how little you know

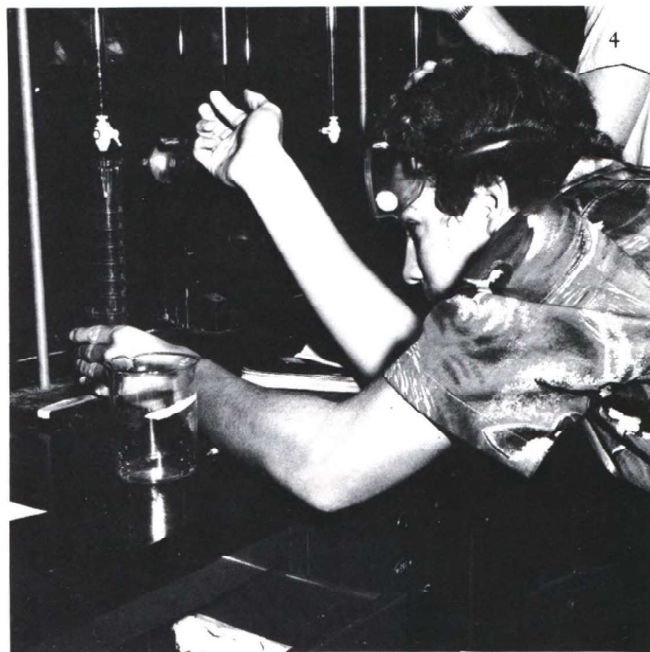

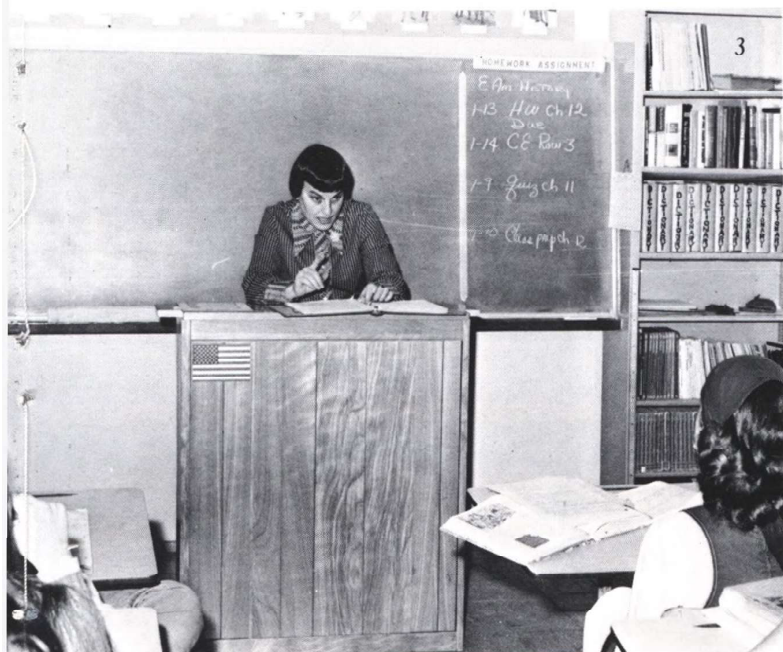

Photo by R. D. Gwynn

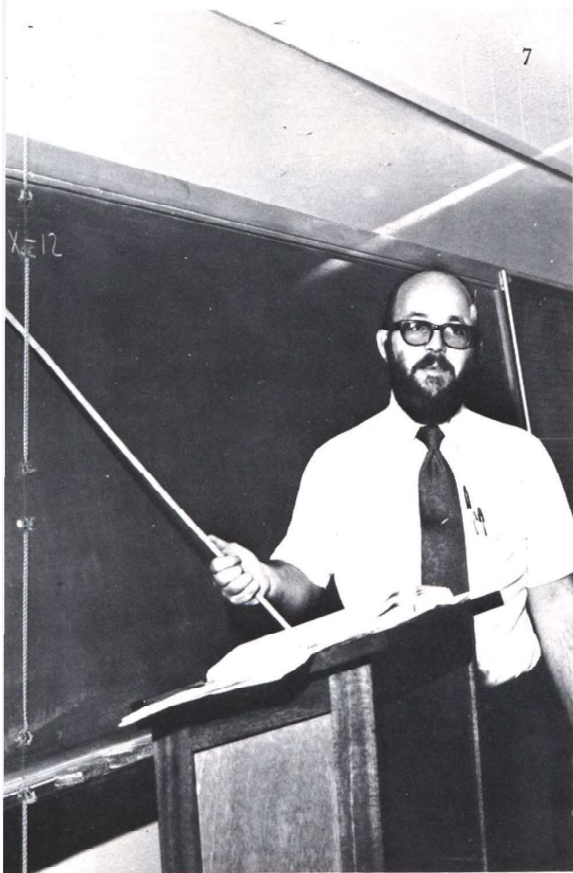

Photo by R. D. Gwynn

1. Kerry Fisher and Eric Hoemann are "Switched on Bach" portraying a new class offered by the Music Department called Rock to Bach. 2. Mr. Gough and lab assistants Eric Walter and Tory Starr, pour the stuff into the whatchamacallit. 3. Mrs. Perretta, whose Advanced Placement American History Class is mainly opinion based on fact, tries to get the point across. 4. Jacques Molyneux, while dispensing a reagent into a graduate (which, by the way, you aren't supposed to do), practices the basics of Chemistry. 5. Frank Dominguez, trying to decide whether or not to raise his hand. 6. Mr. Kent relates American History to what's going on in Today's world. 7. Mr. Wright points (get it?) out the fundamentals of Algebra, much to the excitement of the class! 8. Susan Diess and Erin Hirsch, budding Biology students (?) look into a microscope beyond what the eye can see, into the world of microorganisms and other wonders.

ANIZATIONS ORGA

NIZATIONS

Organizations produce. Though what they produce isn't always tangible, there is a product of which to be proud. Being a member of an Organization is much like work experience because of the hard work both members and Supervisors do to make their product, be it a note of music, an extra assembly, or the El Oroso, proof that "Bears do it better!"

Photo by K. B. Guyon

Student Publications go on and on

THE JUSTICE STAFF

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
David Knapp (first semester)
Sue Paulino (second semester)

NEWS EDITOR
Sue Paulino
(first & second semester)

OPINION EDITOR
Dori Bickers

FEATURE EDITOR
Patti Pernal

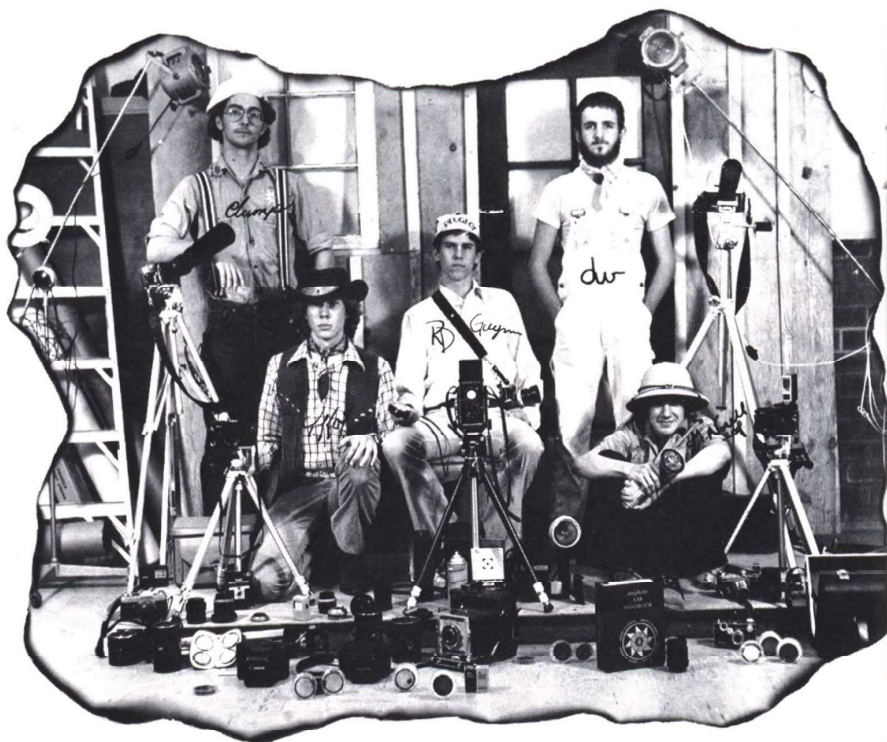

SPORTS EDITOR
Eric Walter

BUSINESS & EXCHANGE
EDITOR
Marlene Parnell

REPORTERS

Robin Babou, Launie Bahama, Liza Bellizzi, Rene Binette, Paul Foy, Steve Haworth, Mary Krick, Phillip Michaels, Karen Myers, Wendy Norvell, Ken Olsten, Marlene Parnell, Lloyd Shonkwiler, DeVar Skinner, James Staggs, Kim Upton, and Alan Wilburn.

Both the Justice and the El Orosi staffs would like to express their sincere love and appreciation to Mrs.
Cheryl Kennedy, our dedicated advisor, more affectionately known as Ms. K., who stuck with us through all the hassels of student publications. Out of her guidance and faith in us, we kept up with the grind and did our best.

The newspaper class is where the "learn by doing" method is put into practice. Every two or three weeks, the diligent efforts of the reporters materialize and eventually produce, "The Justice", including feature stories as well as opinion articles, and reports on both boys and girls' sports. It is in this classroom that reporters attempt what might be their future

Whether it be school hours, weekend hours, or sleeping hours, the El Orosito staff did their best to give Warren High a memorable yearbook. A lot of time and effort was spent to take that picture to fit that certain layout, to match that particular headline. Not only were their graphical abilities involved in the book, but their creativeness to write as well. The main theme of the yearbook class was "a staff that slaves together stays together", which produced a unique yearbook.

THE EL OROSO STAFF

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Nancy Bauer

ASSISTANT EDITOR
Kelly Jo McNatt

ACADEMICS
Sylvia Garcia

ORGANIZATIONS & STUDENT LIFE
Debbie De Rocili (Editor)
Kathi Schroeder

ATHLETICS
Jacki Fittinger
Jim Fuenmayor

UNDERCLASSMEN EDITORS
Laurie Jennings
Connie Walker
Darla Jepeway
Lisa Small
Karen Scalf

CLUBS
Charlotte Jacobs

FACULTY
Linda Keays (Editor)
Marc Udoff

ADVERTISEMENTS
Susan Shonkwiler (Editor)
Terri Wilkinson
Terri McGraw Joyia Di Palma

SENIOR PHOTOGRAPHERS
Bruce Clumpner
Randy Gynn
Terry Kay
Mark Norell
David Wells

JUNIOR PHOTOGRAPHERS
Joshua Wells
John Mall

IMPORTANT HELPERS
Mark Fallon
Susan Donatelli
Cami Armas
Robert Lenox