WORDS FROM

Pastor Steve

A Moment of Thanks

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. 1 Thess. 5:17-18

In his letter to the congregation in Thessaloniki, the apostle Paul directs the congregation to give thanks to God in all circumstances. This is no small task. At first glance, not all circumstances appear to be worthy of thanksgiving. Why would we give thanks to God for being sick? Why would we give thanks to God for being in financial stress? Why would we give thanks to God for anything that is not understandably good? Unless we are fully detached from God, and doing and being what is "good", then, well, we don't. (Many would argue that we cannot fully detach ourselves from God in the first place. See Romans 8:38-39). We don't thank God for being sick and broke. Just as we don't thank God for suffering. But what we ought to thank God for is the ability to navigate the difficult circumstances of life that are ultimately inevitable. That ability is granted to us through the gift of faith through the Holy Spirit, trust in God.

Nothing is more beneficial and formative to one's faith than to witness the peace-filled and assured heart of something hoped for. And nothing is more uplifting to one's spirit than to witness someone else's trust in what has not yet been revealed by God (Hebrews 11:1).

Lately, I have been blessed to witness the conviction of faith in things yet seen and realized in persons literally fighting for their lives, living paycheck to paycheck, and being told they are not worthy because of _____ (fill the blank). There are plenty of dignity and liberty stripping labels to choose from these days! This strength of heart, mind and soul comes from none other than the one who formed us in our mother's womb (Jer. 5:1). Thanks be to God for those who persevere in spite of life's circumstances, rejoice always, and whose life is a living prayer that never ceases to give hopeful determination to us all. It is because of them that we can say, I know that my redeemer lives (Job 19:25).

As a sort of new year's resolution Nativity is being more mindful about giving thanks in worship. In between the prayers and sharing of the peace we are taking a moment to be thankful to God for just about anything. The first few weeks the assisting minister led us in devotions of thanksgiving for our God-given gifts for the kingdom, the gift of time and presence, and the church as a place of sanctuary.

There are plenty of topics for me to look up and feed you on Sundays. But what I really want, what you really want, and more importantly, what God truly wants is for you to feed each other's spirit with moments of thanks. What are you thankful for, and why? Take a moment, many moments, and inventory in what circumstances of life God has met you in, provided for you, and delivered you through. What better place than with your church family on Sunday to exercise your faith, hope and love of God. Your pastor, your church family need your words of hope. Pray about it, and then talk to me. I am all ears, and heart.

Thanks be to God,

Pastor Steve

HIS LOVE

Is Above Everything!

Don't be discouraged.
Don't be disappointed,
for the world, and all that is in it,
belongs to Christ, the Lord.

His Love is above everything in your life.

Jesus has not left you alone.
He still stands
at the door of your heart and knocks.

If you will trust more and more in
His love,
His power, and
His name,
what a peace,
what a comfort, and
what a hope you will have!

For His Love is above EVERYTHING!

THIS MONTH'S THEME

Health & Fitness

If your children are hungry for learning, they will love this delicious experience. Follow food from the farm to the truck that picks it up, then on to the market, bakery and all the way to your table. Learn the basics of measuring, pouring, stirring and chopping. After a well-balanced meal, go outside for a marathon of jumping, kicking, catching and relay races. Everyone is a winner in this learning adventure.

Look for the daily notes about your child's art projects!

Making food & fitness a priority!

Research shows that a child's eating habits are largely shaped between two and four years old. Support the importance of healthy food choices, healthy lifestyle choices and help build healthy habits.

- Involve children in the food preparation process. This gives children ownership over the snack or meal and makes it more likely they will try new foods.
- Give children limited choices. Provide two vegetables and ask them if they would rather have corn or peas.
- Make healthy habits a part of the daily routine. Encourage children to wash hands and set the table before a meal.
- Eat family style. This encourages conversation. Children will also be more likely to try certain foods when they see others eat them.
- Role-model good manners at the table and encourage children to do the same.
- Discuss where food came from, which food group it is from, other recipes that can be made with the same foods and how much is enough.
- Make movement and exercise a standard part of the daily routine, including outdoor free play every day possible.

NEW! THE GOOD NEWS FROM THE GARDENS PODCAST

This is the audio of Sunday morning's scripture and message made available following Sunday's service.

LISTEN! CONVERSATIONS WITH THE COMMUNITY

Listen! Is an occasional series of conversations with members of Nativity Lutheran.

Who will we listen to next? Maybe you! Contact Pastor Steve at pastor@pbnativity.com before he contacts you!

Dear readers:

There are few instances where we can recall people publicly admitting they were wrong, though as humans we should be saying that more often. However, this is one of those moments.

Last year Living Lutheran ceased as a print publication and continued as a digital-only service because of financial constraints. Running a monthly publication grew too expensive during a time of consolidated resources and shrinking readership. Since then, Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton and staff have heard from many of you who have shared concerns about members who don't have access to computers or don't read content online for various reasons. As a result, people have felt disconnected from the ELCA.

We heard you and listened. At the request of Bishop Eaton, we have found a way to bring back the magazine's print publication. Beginning in 2025, Living Lutheran will again appear in your mailboxes with four issues a year (spring, summer, winter and fall). The cost for one year will be $19.95 for an individual subscription and $17 per year for a congregation group subscription.

To start receiving your print magazine, you can:

Call 800-328-4648 (use this method for congregation group subscriptions).

Sign up at www.livinglutheran.org/subscribe.

Fill out the form below and mail it to Augsburg Fortress, P.O. Box 1553, Minneapolis, MN 55440-8730.

Please note: You will be invoiced in spring 2025 for your subscription. If your subscription didn't lapse at the end of 2023, you will receive a renewal notice when it expires. Rostered ministers don't need to sign up—we already have your addresses.

Thank you for your support in the past—and in the future. We look forward to again sharing in print our church's stories of God's people living their faith.

Blessings,
