

PASTOR'S CORNER

Brothers and Sisters
in Christ,

In this week's Scripture's Seeker's Study group, they explored John 4. Jesus met a Samaritan woman with a bad reputation at a well. Likely, she was hanging out at the well in the heat of the day because she was ostracized from her community; she felt "less than." But when Jesus confronted her sins and spoke to her as if she had worth, He set her free, so much so, that she had to run tell the very ones that made her an outcast about the Messiah. She no longer worried about what they thought of her because of her past because Jesus loved her beyond her sin. Jesus offers each of us this same freedom as well!

Peace and blessings,
Brandon
