Presented letters of resignation from Douglas Taylor, Judge Joseph Cassata, John Guido (treasurer), George Ferber (secretary)

Request by Joseph Hogenkamp to have letters read. George Ferber read letters. They are attached to the email delivering these minutes.

Discussion by new board members about whether they should accept swearing in at this time.

Lengthy discussion about what we are as a group and what are our objectives.
No outcome was determined because there is not a current set of objectives in place.

All new members elected to not join the group at this time.

6:06 Fred Foels had to leave because of other commitments and meeting was essentially over.
