

Paid Summer Internship Position for College Students

Achieve Marketing/Event Specialist

ExxonMobil Community
Summer Jobs
Program

About the Position

This is a deeply rewarding opportunity to develop marketing, branding, project management, communication, social media, and diversity awareness skills while interning for an agency that honors and celebrates individuals with disabilities.

You will be responsible for the acquisition, logistics, and coordination of all in-kind support and vendors relative to Achieve's annual Dash for Dignity (5K) event as well as for the recruitment and coordination of event volunteers and participant teams. Additional responsibilities include creating event and program-related marketing materials and marketing this event as well as agency programs through e-newsletters, Facebook, and Twitter posts.

Basic Requirements

- Currently enrolled undergraduate student returning to college as a full-time (minimum 12 credit hours/semester) sophomore, junior or senior in the fall of 2020.
- Able to work 35 hours/week for 8 weeks between May 11, 2020 and Aug. 21, 2020.
- Able to attend 3 mandatory ExxonMobil intern events.

To Apply (by April 3, 2020)

Email resume and cover letter to: djones@achieveDFW.org

Learn more about Achieve at www.achieveDFW.org

This internship is made possible through a generous grant from the ExxonMobil Foundation through their ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program.