

SPEND YOUR SUMMER CHANGING THE WORLD: Be a Marketing Intern at DCAC

Gain valuable communications and marketing experience in the nonprofit sector, courtesy of the ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program

ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program

Each year, the ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program (CSJP) provides assistance to nonprofit agencies and enables college students to gain valuable work experience and a better understanding of the important role of nonprofit organizations. With the DCAC internship, you are a part of a team working to change the conversation about child abuse in Dallas County.

Your paid internship at DCAC will give you these life-changing opportunities:

- Learn the intricacies of nonprofit marketing and branding, including the launch of DCAC's rebrand
- Craft a specific marketing plan related to a large fundraising opportunity for DCAC
- Plan and execute digital content related to events, North Texas Giving Day and awareness
- Help produce event and organization collateral
- As a CSJP intern, you'll have a community of other interns and will complete a group community service project and participate in professional development trainings

Be a part of a team working to change the conversation about child abuse in Dallas County.

About Dallas Children's Advocacy Center
