- Track audience attendance numbers and design/tabulate concert surveys
- Design new method to better capture audience data, if applicable
- Assist with donor stewardship efforts, including mailings
- Work with volunteers
- Assist with FACP events

MARKETING

- Provide input and suggestions on social media calendar
- Ensure correct concert and artist information on all print and digital media, and list concert info on several online event calendars
- Design and edit printed and online materials as necessary
- Assist with production of TV and radio ads

QUALIFICATIONS

- Applicants must be a currently enrolled undergraduate student who will return to college as a full-time sophomore, junior, or senior in the fall of 2020
- Experience in music or arts administration discipline preferred

ABOUT THE BASICALLY BEETHOVEN FESTIVAL

The Festival began in 1981 and has reached nearly 86,000 people. The free concerts feature professional classical musicians at Moody Performance Hall in the Dallas Arts District. These concerts reinforce FACP's dedication to breaking down access barriers to those who want to attend a professional performance.
