The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has launched the PRICE Main Competition to preserve and revitalize manufactured housing units and Manufactured Housing Communities (MHCs). The maximum award amount is $75 million. The deadline to submit applications is July 10, 2024.

The Hoopa Valley Indian Reservation has more than 50 mobilehomes that are substandard and could be replaced through this program. BLBS is applying for the grant as a Tribal Organization. If awarded, BLBS and its partners HomeContained LLC and Pacific Builders will work with the Tribe and low-income households to replace their substandard mobile homes with new modular homes and advance the goal of preserving affordable housing on the Reservation.

The BLBS draft application for the PRICE Main Competition outlines the proposed activities to be funded through the PRICE Main Competition. If approved, the funding will support the replacement of existing substandard mobile homes with new modular homes and development of new modular homes for lower-income residents of the Reservation.

The BLBS draft PRICE Main application can be accessed online for review and comment prior to submission at the link provided above. Physical copies of the application are available for review during regular business hours at the
