Article One

By ALMIGHTY God granting us FREEDOM: By unanimous decree the Local people(s) in Local Peaceable Lawful Assembly; in Settlement Covenant in Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, a member with other Free and Independent States also known as Republic for the united States of America, set forth the following affirmations.

Section 1 - Local-people in Family of Man and Woman centered in ALMIGHTY God live on Local-land and use Rights of Way in People Jurisdiction in Grace affirmed by the authority of The Unanimous Declaration of Independence, Cir. 1776 and Bill of Rights Articles, the 5th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th c.1787-1791-February 12, 2022 and beyond; beyond the reach of predator others; and also living in Friend(ship) and in Peace Treaty(s) c.1789-1791 and beyond; beyond the reach of predator others; and also affirmed by circa 1812 Louisiana State Constitution, and the Covenant of Louisiana a Free and Independent state, circa 2022 and beyond.

NOW Local-people by Local-common-consent do name, affirm, ordain, establish and continue Local Settlement Covenant in East Baton Rouge Parish and other Parish Settlements and Covenant of Louisiana, a Free and Independent state and Nation America Settlement as their absolute Accumulated Legacy prepaid with blood taken from Family of Man and Woman centered in ALMIGHTY God who came before and granted Local-people ALMIGHTY FREEDOM;

Section 2 - Local Parish Settlement Covenant in East Baton Rouge Parish, affirms natural inherent rights, one with the Spirit of Man, as the absolute dominion belonging to each man and woman; Local-people in Family of Man, living in Grace on Local-land in Local Parish Settlement Covenant in East Baton Rouge Parish in People Jurisdiction affirmed by the authority of The Unanimous Declaration of Independence, Cir. 1776 and Bill of Rights Articles, the, 5th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th c.1787-1791-2022 and beyond; and Friend(ship) in Peace.

Section 3 - Local Parish Settlement Covenant in East Baton Rouge Parish, one with the Spirit of Man, is the free exercise of all natural inherent rights; which is unlimited in scope and is our lawful inheritance to be defended and protected from abuse by all means:

- a) Free Spirit, Free will with Free choice is originally one with the Spirit of Man and by-blood cause slavery of any kind is an abomination to all natural inherent rights. Each man and woman, Local people, living on Local land in People Jurisdiction reject slavery in any form and we reject legal-fiction-oxy-morons and libel of any kind including "ex-felon" status-quo by-cause of cruel and unusual punishment.

b) Personal empowerment, prosperity and responsibility of Family of Man and Woman remain one with the Spirit of Man and by cause, personal empowerment, prosperity, and personal responsibility of family continue beyond the reach of bogus barriers or restrictions erected by State agency agents and predator others.

Section 4 - Subject to existing and prior rights, land in Local Parish Settlement Covenant in East Baton Rouge Parish uses the survey track, Metes and Bounds as boundary for East Baton Rouge Parish and as soon as practical be defined and recorded in the parish Records Library.

Article Two

Section 1 - Settlement in East Baton Rouge Parish is fundamental local law in sustaining the free exercise of right of men, women, and families in Grace to exercise, defend and protect their property, their liberty, their prosperity, their posterity, their inheritance, and their existing political rights from abuse by evil intent by public or private persons or predator others who would invade, attack, attach, steal, pillage, plunder, divert, redistribute or spoil any part of their pre-paid Absolute Accumulated Legacy.

Article Six

We the people in public assembly, with intent to restore lawful government and lawful courts in East Baton Rouge Parish, do hereby restore common law courts and de jure government by lawful notice. No lawful courts are currently being exercised, and the courts and process imposed upon the people in East Baton Rouge Parish are based in despotic foreign civil law, being a sham, we therefore claim our position of the lawful keepers of the public trust implied by our position as tacit procurator, and by the expressed intent through delegation of authority by the signatories hereto.

Article Seven

We, the undersigned declare that we inhabit the area described as East Baton Rouge Parish, that we are Peaceful People and have always been, and rebut any presumption of subjugation. We declare that we own the land of East Baton Rouge Parish with such exceptions as are privately held by men and women living on the land, and that we own the water and minerals under the land to the center of the earth, the water, vegetation, living creatures, non-living material and structures on the land, and the air above the land to the outer most edge of the universe, with such exceptions as are privately held by people in the parish, and that we declare our rights as a rebuttal to the claims of any corporate entity and/or foreign person.

Article Eight

This Parish Settlement Agreement hereby establishes a Parish Jural Assembly for the benefit and purposes of We THE People. Such Assembly is open to all the inhabitants of the parish who choose to remove themselves from fourteenth amendment citizenship status and return to being free men and women on the land. They may become electors and jury pool members for the de jure grand juries both state and federal level to provide due process of law and equal protection under common law for all people. The juries and all other lawful process accepted are to provide remedies for injured parties in loss of property, rights or liberty. The people in assembly shall provide a venue and a forum to convene court, to decide structure of offices and the function of administrative personnel, and to discuss other business concerning the grand and petit juries. Calling to order, form of assembly, maintenance of records, and other business of the people are further delineated below.

Article Nine

We, the people do hereby affirm and establish our lawful right to appoint or elect our Delegate to be sent to the House of Delegates legislative body for Louisiana, a Free and Independent state. We will interact with the other parishes designated in accordance with the Covenant for Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, as a region to elect a Statesman to be sent to the House of Statesman to represent the designated region.

The Delegate shall be selected from free men and women, inhabiting the parish, to be appointed as Delegate to provide the response(s) of the people in Parish Jural Assembly to Louisiana, a Free and Independent state and to the National level, in a lawful manner on all issues regarding the safety and welfare of the people. The Delegate is essential to the free-exercise of duties and decision-making processes, including but not limited to communications and interactions between the local parish and the Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, levels; and by and between the local levels to the national level, in order to maintain proper and comprehensive maintenance and implementation of the people's lawful business.

Section 2 - There shall be established a limit of one (1) lawful Statesman representing a region as designated by numbered parishes. The Statesman will represent the people within the region in the House of Statesman for the purpose of providing hearings and responses in a lawful manner on all issues related to decision making and communications between the local parish level and Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, governance. The Statesman shall be selected from free men and women, inhabiting the counties in the region, to be represented and to provide the response(s) of the people in the Parish Jural Assemblies to Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, and the National level, in a lawful manner on all issues regarding the safety and welfare of the people. The Statesman is essential to the free-exercise of duties and decision-making processes, including but not limited to communications and interactions between the local parish and the Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, level; and by and between the local levels to the national level, in order to maintain proper and comprehensive maintenance and implementation of the people's lawful business.

Section 3 - Any seated office holder(s) can request from the Library of Records a Parish Jural Assembly rulebook and convene a Parish Grand Jury as the originator. The procedure for such an assembly shall be the same as provided for in Article Seven of the Covenant of Louisiana, a Free and Independent state, Article VII, Grand and Petit Juries.

Article Ten

We THE People recognize the necessity of establishing an Office that shall provide for the defense of the People's Rights, Land and Law in the Parish.

Said office shall be titled Office of Sheriff of East Baton Rouge Parish. The title of Sheriff shall be conferred upon the individual who is elected by majority vote of the electors of the Parish Jural Assembly, to hold such office for a period of time to be three years. Issues as to the methods of operation, structure, duties, method of management and all other pertinent and appropriate issues pertaining to the establishment, maintenance and function of such office and the office holder shall be determined by a committee created for such purpose. Upon the submission of the final report of recommendations by said committee, the Parish Jural Assembly shall discuss, modify if required, and vote, adopt and enter it into the parish records to create and implement the Office of Sheriff as called for by this article.

Article Eleven

We THE People by these articles establish parish offices to administer the affairs of the people in common. Such offices are empowered with certain delegated limited power(s) as the people deem just for the maintenance and function of parish administration. The following is a limited and initial outline of the structure of such offices and shall be further detailed and expanded upon by a select committee formed for such purpose, and upon the submission of the final report of recommendations, the Parish Settlement Assembly shall discuss, modify if required, adopt such recommendations, and enter it into the parish records to create and implement the Offices of Parish Administration as called for by this article. The following list comprises the initial offices to be filled by proper election by qualified electors of this Parish Settlement Assembly:

1. Municipality Supervisor (1 per municipality in the parish)
2. Parish Sheriff (1)
3. Parish Chief Justice (1)
4. Chief Justice of the Peace (1)
5. Municipality Justice of the Peace (usually four (4) per municipality)
6. Parish Library of Records Secretary (1)
7. Parish Recording Clerk (1)
8. Parish Land Records/Title/Abstract Clerk (1)
9. Parish Treasurer/Comptroller (1)

Further offices to be created and filled shall be identified by the above referenced committee as from time to time are required to properly fulfill and maintain proper administration of the people's requirements for governance in Parish Settlement Assembly.

No member of the legal industry is qualified to hold any office designated and established for the administration of parish business. The exception to this is for a legal industry member to surrender their BAR membership and be out of the legal industry for fifteen years and pass a constitutional exam as required by the Covenant of Louisiana, a Free and Independent state.

Article Twelve

This covenant shall become lawfully established upon the unanimous acceptance and ratification of the living men and women, gathered in Parish Settlement Assembly, who have convened to review, accept and ratify by the placement of their hands (autographs) as provided for below.

After acceptance of this covenant any and all addenda that the people see fit to make to this covenant shall be drawn up and presented to the Parish Settlement Assembly body of electors of this parish as may from time to time be deemed necessary and appropriate. The passage and inclusion of any addendum to this covenant agreement shall be by a minimum of three fourths vote of all qualified electors of the body of this Parish Settlement Assembly. All articles in this covenant shall remain intact and all addenda shall be made as attachments so a complete and continuous record will be maintained.

Article Thirteen

In Witness Whereof, We the people of East Baton Rouge Parish Settlement, in conjoined action with all other lawfully established parish settlements in Louisiana a Free and Independent state, and in accord and express trust with the confederated union of the Republic for the united States of America, in the presence of our Creator who has so endowed us with the authority to enact as we have herein do declare by our autographs as evidence of our living substance and as set forth below, this Parish Settlement Covenant for the people assembled on the free, dry soil of East Baton Rouge Parish in Louisiana, a Free and Independent state.

This Parish Settlement Covenant of, by, and for the people of the East Baton Rouge Parish shall be open for continuing acceptance by all men and women who ratify of their own free will and volition, and who place their Autographs onto a copy of same and have such placed, along with their Declaration of Sovereign Rights in Inherent and Indigenous Power, into the Library of Records as provided for herein.

Autographs and Seals

We the people lawfully convened on the day set forth below, do hereby mark our autographs and ratify these Articles of Establishment of the East Baton Rouge Parish Settlement Covenant. We stand on the authority as set forth above and by our individual Declarations of Sovereign Rights Held in Indigenous Powers executed by our Autographs and Seals. We do hereby ratify this covenant in the presence of our Creator, Almighty God, with whom all glory and power does reside and to whom we humbly present this covenant for His supreme ratification and ask for the blessings that flow forth from His Divine Providence to guide, nurture and protect the undertakings of this lawful assembly and our countrymen. These undertakings have been established, certified and confirmed on the Land so that current and future generations will enjoy the fruits of their labor and the bounty of the land uninhibited and unbound, so that all in this One Nation Assembled and together with all nations conjoined in the family of Man shall abide in such as the abundance of the Divine Hand shall bless us with now and forever.
