Our Story

Born and raised in New York and now calling California home, Stanley believed there were no true New York-style Bacon, Egg & Cheese sandwiches on the West Coast-so he decided to bring them here, but better.

NYC BEC OG'z keeps all the nostalgic comfort of the classic bodega sandwich and levels it up with higher-quality, thoughtfully sourced ingredients to make it a little easier on your body (and your conscience).

We're a small local business cooking for our neighbors, here to fuel your most important meal of the day with comfort food, minus (most of) the guilt.
