20th Anniversary - I T U R R I O Z a l p a c a

2006 – 2026

From Baby Alpaca Collection to a global symbol of I T U R R I O Z a l p a c a

Two decades ago, Baby Alpaca Collection marked the beginning of a journey that would weave together heritage, craftsmanship, and timeless design.

What started as a tribute to the noble Andean fiber has evolved into I T U R R I O Z a l p a c a - a brand that embodies Sustainable Luxury and the soul of artisanal creation.

Many of our pieces are industrially crafted and finished by hand, merging the precision of technology with the sensitivity of artisanal mastery. Each creation reflects balance - between innovation and tradition, modernity and the human touch - ensuring excellence, consistency, and soul in every detail.

For twenty years, every piece has carried a story of respect: for nature, for those who weave with their looms and hands, and for a beauty that transcends time and trends. Today, the brand continues to honor its origin - Baby Alpaca Collection - as the essence of a philosophy built on authenticity, refinement, and consciousness.

20 years of weaving legacy, emotion and Silent Luxury
