20th Anniversary - ITURRIOZ alpaca

2006 – 2026

From Baby Alpaca Collection to a global symbol of ITURRIOZ alpaca.

Two decades ago, Baby Alpaca Collection, marked the beginning of a journey that would weave together heritage, craftsmanship, and timeless design.

What started as a tribute to the Noble Andean Fiber has evolved into ITURRIOZ alpaca - a brand that embodies Sustainable Luxury and the Soul of Artisanal Creation.

Many pieces are industrially crafted and hand-finished, merging precision with artisanal mastery.

Every creation balances innovation and tradition, ensuring excellence, consistency, and soul in every detail. We honor nature, the hands that weave, and beauty that transcends time - staying true to our origins and to a philosophy built on authenticity, refinement and consciousness.

At ITURRIOZ alpaca, we work exclusively with Peru's most respected textile mills, certified under the highest international standards: RAS (Responsible Alpaca Standard), OEKO-TEX® Standard 100, Fair Trade Perú - Good Practices and GOTS Natural Fiber Control.

Our founder has maintained direct collaboration with these mills for over two decades, having served as an official representative of one of them — ensuring deep expertise in the fiber, its transformation, and full traceability from origin to final product.

Each piece is born from an ethical, transparent, and verifiable chain — from the Andes to your home.

Ethically made · Socially conscious · Crafted with Andean soul - Ethics & Community

At every stage of our production, we ensure full compliance with labor laws and ethical working relationships.

Alpaca herding and fiber work play a vital role in the livelihood of Andean highland communities, sustaining thousands of families who preserve this ancient craft.

ITURRIOZ alpaca collaborates with both industrial and artisanal production, providing fair employment to women artisans who handcraft original and one-of-a-kind pieces.

Each blanket is a reflection of ethical work, responsibility, and human connection.

EXPRESION NATIVA

Prendas pensadas en Argentina, producidas en Perú y con presencia en Europa.

“La alpaca es la fibra del futuro”, le escuché decir Mariana Iturrizoz Mardones a un amigo durante una visita a Perú a comienzos de los años 2000. Inmediatamente quise conocer más sobre esta fibra natural de propiedades excepcionales de una especie nativa de América del Sur. En la experiencia de recorrer la cadena productiva de la alpaca vino una oportunidad para aplicar sus vastos conocimientos en comercio internacional. Unos pocos años después creó las marcas Baby Alpaca Collection e ITURRIOZ alpaca Silent Luxury para llegar a los mercados mundiales del lujo.

V OFICIAL: ¿Cuál es tu definición de lujo silencioso?

MARIANA ITURRIOZ MARDONES: Se trata de un estilo sigiloso y sutil, sin logos a la vista ni extravagancias. Es parte de una forma de vida que entiende el lujo como algo cotidiano. Salvo para la mirada experta, puede pasar desapercibido. Se lo identifica por detalles que revelan alta calidad. El empleo de materiales nobles, un diseño de líneas netas, terminaciones impecables, cortes de excelente caída y la preferencia por los colores naturales son algunos de sus atributos.

V O: ¿Por qué elegiste ese estilo?

MIM: Adquirí mi primer tapado de alpaca en la tienda neoyorquina Saks en el año 1990. Una tía que me llevaba de compras allí, me enseñó a valorar las cualidades de una buena prenda. En aquel entonces desconocía las propiedades de este material; El tapado resultó fabuloso! Lo lucí a lo largo de muchísimos años sin ser consciente de lo que llevaba puesto.

V O: ¿Cuándo surgió tu interés por las fibras naturales?

MIM: Por diferentes motivos, he viajado frecuentemente a Perú desde el año 1985 y la alpaca me llamó la atención desde el primer momento. En el año 2006, durante un almuerzo en Lima, me comentaron que la segunda alpaca del país había abierto sus primeras tiendas y me invitaron a visitarlas. Quedé fascinada. Meses después volví y tomé contacto con la empresa líder de exportación del hilado. En una charla informal le comenté a uno de sus directivos acerca de mi experiencia con el comercio internacional y mis conocimientos sobre diferentes mercados. En breve me llamó para ofrecermé una colaboración para la exportación de producto terminado, un proyecto nuevo. Así comencé a contactar a los grandes clientes y distribuidores del mundo.

V O: ¿Cuándo iniciaste tu propia línea?

MIM: Al poco tiempo empecé a desarrollar productos de tejido plano industrial con mucho éxito. En el año 2008 creé la etiqueta Baby Alpaca Collection y nuestros diseños fueron sumamente bien recibidos y requeridos. En el año 2010 comencé a exportar pequeños volúmenes desde Perú a Estados Unidos y, en el año 2022, aposté por el mercado europeo. Para eso constituí una sociedad en Málaga desde donde puedo distribuir al resto del continente y desarrollé ITURRIOZ alpaca, Silent Luxury. Hoy en día la marca tiene presencia en París y San Juan de Luz, Barcelona, Marbella, Nueva Andalucía, Sotogrande y, con exclusividad, en Gibraltar.

V O: ¿Qué características tiene esta fibra en particular?

MIM: La alpaca baby no es necesariamente producto de la primera esquila del animal, se puede obtener de alpacas adultas en cantidades mínimas. La calidad de una fibra está definida por su grosor, que en este caso es de entre 16 y 23 micrones. Eso hace que sea siete veces más abrigada que la lana de oveja, tan suave como el cachemir y mucho más liviana. Además, es hiperalérgica por su bajo contenido de lanolina. Es biodegradable y, dada su constitución, repele el agua. La alpaca es una fibra rara e inteligente y de larga duración.

Thanks so much!

V O: ¿Qué criterios de sostenibilidad rigen la producción?

MIM: En primer lugar, hay que destacar que a lo largo de todas las etapas de la cadena no existen ni el trabajo infantil ni las condiciones de trabajo esclavizantes. La esquila respeta los principios del cuidado animal, siendo hasta beneficiosa si se realiza en tiempo y forma. La fibra obtenida es clasificada manualmente siguiendo una técnica ancestral. El hilado insume unos treinta días, luego, pasa a la etapa de tejeduría en unos telares armados a la medida de los diseños.

V O: ¿Los productos cuentan con certificaciones?

MIM: Orgullosamente puedo decirte que todas las plantas industriales con las que trabajo tienen el sello Comercio Justo. Para obtener la calidad Premium que demanda la exportación empleamos alta tecnología y mano de obra calificada. El mercado europeo es muy exigente y es sumamente importante dar cuenta del trato que reciben los animales.

V O: En cuanto a los camélidos sudamericanos, ¿son todos conocidos en los mercados internacionales?

MIM: Todos, y muy apreciados. En escala de valoración y precio, de mayor a menor, se ordenan así: la vicuña, el guanaco, la alpaca y la llama. Actualmente, la alpaca baby compite internacionalmente con el cachemir por sus excelentes propiedades y su condición de sostenible. Si bien se produce en otras partes del mundo, la peruana se distingue por su calidad. La alimentación de los animales en base a la quinua del altiplano andino le otorga un brillo y una suavidad increíbles.

“LA alimentación DE LOS ANIMALES EN BASE A LA quinua DEL ALTIPLANO andino LE OTORGA A LA FIBRA UN brillo Y UNA suavidad INCREIBLES”.

V O: ¿Alguna vez pensaste en incorporar producción artesanal?

MIM: He desarrollado colecciones con artesanos tejedores de Puno, Perú. En muchas oportunidades he permanecido en la alta montaña acompañando y supervisando el trabajo, mi vínculo con las comunidades siempre fue muy bueno. Lamentablemente, para mi tipo de proyecto los volúmenes artesanales son mínimos, llevan más tiempo y el resultado no es uniforme. Un producto de esas características demanda otro tipo de comercialización.

V O: ¿Quiénes diseñan los productos?

MIM: En el caso de Baby Alpaca Collection los diseños son propios de los tejedores. En ITURRIOZ alpaca el diseño es más simple con prevalencia de los colores naturales. Esta línea se especializa en mantas, throw's, bufandas, estolas, capas y wraps.

V O: ¿Cuáles son tus planes a futuro?

MIM: La idea es incorporar otras fibras como el guanaco y la vicuña e ir sumando piezas como suéters y chalcos. Mientras tanto, voy a continuar introduciendo la marca en Bélgica, Italia, Alemania y Suiza. ■
