TOURNAMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

As a host, I will cooperate with the other staff. As a host, I will use the program called FWANGO.IO to keep track of pool play, bracket games, and final finishes of multiple divisions. I agree to use the resources BC ROUNDNET ASSOCIATION has given to me. I agree that all profits that are made are to go to BC ROUNDNET ASSOCIATION (To help to grow the community and buy tournament resources) or otherwise profits made must be used for resources for the tournament hosted. I agree to disclose any information about the tournament with BC ROUNDNET staff. As a host, I will agree to the tournament's registration fee prices. As a host, I will provide a proper amount of staff for running the tournament.

As a host, I will provide a COVID-19 Safety Plan that will include Social Distancing, Masks, Sanitization, Contact Tracing, Max 49 people (including staff, players, volunteers, etc.) (As we are not sure of what the future has in place, we are currently waiting on the COVID-19 pandemic to resolve. BC Roundnet Association hopes to host events in the 2021 Season, but events will not continue if UNSAFE OR UNHEALTHY to do so.)

BC Roundnet Association will not be accountable for any injuries. As a host, you are required to have liability insurance from an independent provider or the city they are in (May also provide liability waivers alternatively) (As well as photo and video releases).

BC Roundnet Association is a NON-PROFIT SOCIETY. As a host, if you choose to use BC Roundnet to receive benefits such as donations, discounted fields, and equipment. ALL PROFITS from the tournament must be donated to BC ROUNDNET ASSOCIATION. Any use of BC Roundnet Association or NON-PROFIT status is UNAUTHORIZED unless all requirements are followed.

Any individual who does not follow the terms of this contract could be personally liable for any damage or cost associated with hosting a tournament in the 2021 BC Roundnet Tour Series.
