

Marty Qually - advocating for the financial ruin of Republican-owned businesses.

it's come up twice in the past two days (& i can't re-post from gbg rising), so i've compiled a full list & am posting it here, for those who share a conviction about supporting (or NOT) businesses with shared values.

the following were named as supporting sponsors of the (oct 2021) 36th annual eisenhower dinner, the only fundraiser for the adams county republican cmte, where steve bannon was the keynote speaker & from which they broadcast his latest WARROOM episode:

other businesses that have flown or posted crabbaint signs and/or were anti-mask, early re-openers:

Marilyn I
Marty, is your angry face because i posted this, or because all these businesses support white supremacy and the erosion of democracy? 😊

Martin L Qually
Marilyn some of these businesses I've used in the past. Some surprised me that they would publicly be political. Thankfully, we have options here! Vote with your $$$.

Marilyn
same. not sure they planned on being "outed" by ACRC, and frankly, not sure they knew ahead of time that their ACRC funding would pay to bring a criminal white supremacist to town, but they sure enough didn't fight it during the process or DISavow it after the fact, soooo...

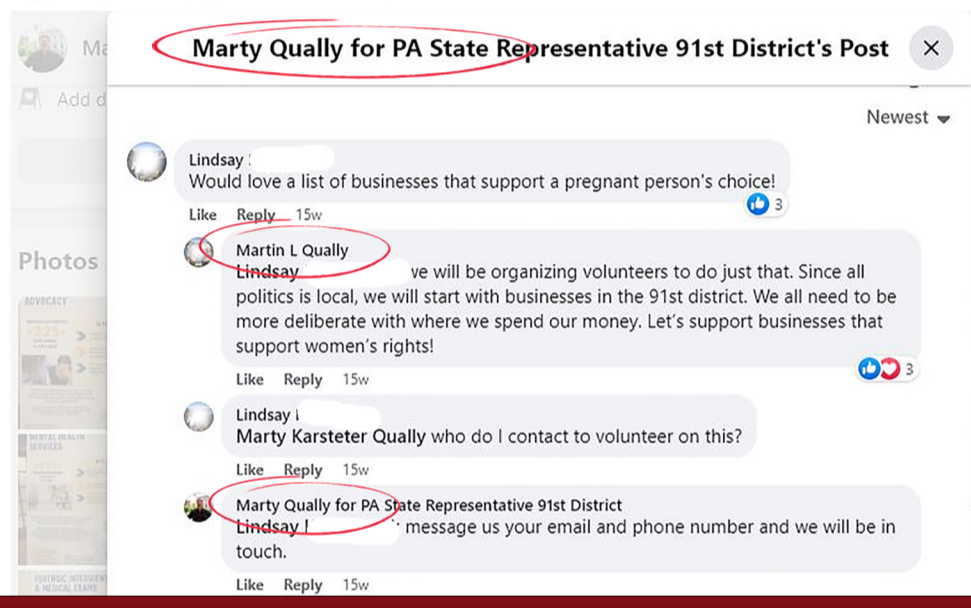

Candy I
Thank you for this! I will be sure to let them know on a one on one basis that it will affect my behavior. The Eisenhower dinner SOUNDS benign and I wonder how aware some of these sponsors actually were.

Judy
Candy I think you have a point. Some are just clueless.

Martin L Qually
Candy I agree. I know of one business in that list that supports Pride, BLM, donated to the hospital front line workers during COVID, and has done a lot of unrecognized good for our community. I just can't see a business that supports so many progressive issues being condemned for what might have been an unintentional sign of support.

Marilyn
Marty, i'd like to see them own up to it. if they support so much progress, why not publicly disavow supporting white supremacy & destruction of democracy? are those not something to proudly proclaim support of?
hell, why not go a step further, and publicly disavow the ACRC, for the damage it continues to do in eroding voter confidence in adams county? why not DO THE RIGHT THING and have NO ISSUE with owning it?
how, exactly, does the business reconcile supporting BLM AND bringing bannon here? THAT, in and of itself, is part of the very insidious problem with the right in the first place... the constant, consistent, and stunning lack of integrity. i don't want to support those businesses, either.
oh, wait. i get it. flying a pride flag for a week and supporting healthcare workers during COVID are super-good optics. no one was ever supposed to know they also supported ACRC/bannon.

WHO IS THE REAL MARTY QUALLY?

Qually isn't just advocating for the financial ruin of businesses that support the Adams County Republican Committee, he's after all Republican-owned businesses in Adams - and for the banishment and silencing of average citizens.

Marty Qually tells us, "I want to get stuff done at all costs." "I will continue to work with those who want to improve our community. I will work for the people of the district and not political party..." "What you have to do is not make it personal." (Quote Source - Evening Sun 10/25/22 & 10/22/18) "If elected, I will represent the people of the district, not a party, not an ideology, just YOU! I want to work for a civil state government that functions for the people, not radical special interests." (Qually's recent mailer)

What is it that Marty really wants? Is it to "represent the people of the district, not a party..." Or, is it to suppress free speech, to silence the voices of those with which he disagrees with, "we will start with businesses in the 91st District"?

Tourism brings $750.7 million in Economic Benefits (Source: gettysburgtourismworks) to Adams County annually, regardless of political affiliation. Will the Democrat-owned businesses throughout Adams County condemn this Cancel Culture and defend the citizens caught in the crosshairs?

STAND WITH US! Push back against this radical Cancel Culture!

Martin L. Qually, you are NOT fit for any elected office!!
