

International High School Forum Program (Tentative)

Join high school students from around the world to share your culture, explore new perspectives, and make new connections!

Date: Saturday, August 15, 2026

Time: 7:30–8:00 am PDT (Pacific Daylight Time)

7:20am - 7:30am	Pre-Forum Meet & Greet Online Check-in
7:30am - 7:35 am	Opening Remarks Vivien Wittstruck - Founder, T.E.A.C.H. Initiative Keynote Speaker Dr. Sophia Giang, MD Stanford Medicine Children's Health Clinical Assistant Professor (Pediatric Nephrology) at Stanford Medicine
7:35am - 7:40am	Forum Discussion 1: Country & Culture - Become an ambassador! Featured Speaker: Kate Bingham (Yale University) After hearing from the featured speaker, participants will introduce their country and culture while learning about different cultures from around the world.
7:40am - 7:45am	Forum Discussion 2: Education & STEM Featured Speaker: Danny Yang (MIT, Columbia University) After hearing from the featured speaker, participants will discuss their education systems, school life, and topics of AI and STEM in education while exploring how innovation is shaping the future.
7:45am - 7:50am	Forum Discussion 3: College & Careers Goals - Explore your Future! Featured Speaker: Brianna Gutierrez (USC) After hearing from the featured speaker, participants will share their academic interests, future career aspirations, and college plans while learning about pathways around the world.
7:50am - 7:55am	Workshop Session Featured Speaker: Estella Wittstruck (Yale University) The featured speaker will lead a discussion and provide insights into preparing for college, career pathways, and future opportunities.
7:55am - 8:00am	Closing

This forum will be held in English.
T.E.A.C.H. Initiative