A new facebook group called The Phantom's Breakfast club has been formed. Christine Smith and I will be focusing on some different aspects of networking with a program that we hope will entertain and benefit everyone. What I Learned This Week

People Want To Network!

Whenever we think of networking we often think its a difficult thing to do and for some people it is very intimidating. But here's what I learned this week. There are a multitude of small business and sales people that are looking for great opportunities to network. I know this because the response to the new networking breakfast has been amazing.

We are actually networking all the time. Every time we meet someone, we are promoting ourselves. I find it very encouraging to know that so many people want to extend themselves and meet other business people in our community. I believe it says a great deal about the people in our community. Bravo!

This week's featured business is Beautiful Empowered You. Beautiful Empowered You is run by Lana Hodgins (Certified Life Coach specializing in kids) and her daughter Ella. Believing in empowering women when they are young, they help tween girls focus on confidence, supporting and managing anxiety and having a healthy relationship with themselves. From workshops and weekly clubs for both girls and boys to one on one coaching sessions with Lana, they are there to help young people deal with challenges and live empowered lives in today's world. Lana is extremely passionate about her business and is a true supporter of empowering women. I wish her great success!
