49TH ST SOUTH BUSINESS ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER

Message from the President

As we celebrate freedoms for our country, it comes to mind that freedom has different meanings to different people. One definition is “the power or right to act, speak, or think as one wants without hindrance or restraint.” In this day and age, some folks are afraid to speak their opinions for fear of harassment, disagreement or retaliation. In the words of Coco Chanel (French fashion designer and businesswoman) “The most courageous act is still to think for yourself. Aloud.”

And in the words of Abraham Lincoln “America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves.” Abraham Lincoln Social media has become an outlet for some folks because they can limit who sees it and who responds to it.

Please know that the 49 th Street South Business Association (SO49) welcomes all. Not everyone will always agree but how boring would that be?

We are excited to announce that we have a sponsor for the Trolley Market Square Blues & Brews (to be announced soon). Our bands are locked in and announcement is forthcoming! We also continue to work on our Wedding Vow Renewal Ceremony for 2020 and our Saturday Market.

We are aware that our Flagpole was a victim of the recent storm and that will be addressed. We are also pleased to announce that we have sponsored a month of the St. Sofia’s Lunch Program through Father Bill Yanson.

We look forward to seeing and working with you!

“Whatever you are, be a good one.”
— Abraham Lincoln

HOW DOGS ARE GREAT FOR HOME DEFENSE

A dog can be a good alternative or a supplement to an alarm system. With their acute senses of hearing and smell, dogs become aware of intruders long before humans do and will bark an alert. Criminals prefer homes without dogs to bark an alert. Most authorities on the subject of home security agree that a barking dog is a good deterrent. However, opinions differ on the issue of the size of the dog.

When using a dog solely as an alarm system, the dog's size is really a matter of individual choice. Some experts contend that dogs should only be considered an early warning system, not an actual defense tool. Using this line of reasoning, a small dog is as valuable as a large one. A large dog will be your only option if you get into the guard dog or personal protection dog category.

True guard or attack dogs require extensive training by a professional trainer and knowledgeable handling by the owner. Owning a guard or attack dog could possibly cause your insurance company to raise your homeowner's liability rates or even cancel your policy and may expose you to civil liability. If considering the purchase of this type of dog, remember that there are no uniform credentials for dog trainers in this field.

You may want to consult your veterinarian and lawyer for advice. Remember that a dog is a living creature that requires regular care. Before you decide to buy a dog, consider the changes such an addition to your household will make and evaluate your willingness to dedicate part of your life to the animal, just as it will dedicate its life to you.

Even if you don't have a dog, putting a dog bowl and/or leash outside can create the illusion of having a dog. You can purchase motion sensors door bells that feature a barking dog recording or display beware of dog signs.

"Peace is not the absence of conflict, but the ability to cope with conflict by peaceful means."

-Ronald Reagan
