about:

Magers Northwest LLC dba Scallywag Customs is a premier fabrication and vehicle upfitting company delivering custom-built solutions for utility, emergency, and commercial vehicles. With a specialized focus on functionality, reliability, and performance, we offer comprehensive design-to-delivery services tailored to meet the unique demands of each client.

From custom-built components to fully integrated fleet upfits, our skilled team combines precision engineering with rugged craftsmanship to produce results that exceed expectations. We work closely with agencies, organizations, and business owners to ensure every build is optimized for durability, safety, and efficiency in the field.

At Scallywag Customs, we pride ourselves on problem-solving through fabrication. Whether you're retrofitting a single unit or launching a large-scale fleet project, our solutions are engineered for peak performance and long-term durability. We stand firmly behind our work with a steadfast commitment to quality, integrity, and customer satisfaction.
