

The Jefferson County Foster Care Coalition is a nonprofit organization serving Jefferson County, Arkansas, and surrounding areas with a mission to support children and families impacted by foster care, prevent family separations, and raise awareness about foster care and child abuse prevention. We need your help to strengthen families and create a brighter future for Jefferson County. Get involved today—where you are, with what you have—because every effort, big or small, makes a difference.

• SUPPORT

FOSTER CARE SUPPORT CENTER

- 2502 Pryce Street, Pine Bluff, AR
- 8,000 sq ft - Pending Renovation
- Foster Care Closet
- Training and Event Space
- Visitation Spaces
- Laundry Facility, Diapers, Comfort Cases
- Educational and Referral Information

Scan Me!

PARTNERSHIPS

- CPR Certification Classes for foster families
- Assist with DCFS Annual Area 7 Resource Parent Conference
- Provide 24/7 access to the Support Center

WRAPAROUND APPROACH

- Comprehensive, flexible, and community-driven support to families
- Tailored Safety Net - referrals from verified sources

• PREVENTION

COMMUNITY CARE CLOSET

- 28 School Street, Pine Bluff, AR
- Provide free clothing, shoes, baby gear and household items to anyone in need

COMMUNITY RESOURCE DIRECTORY

- Digital and physical directory to improve access to community information regarding: education, employment, medical services, help for those in need, and much more

• AWARENESS

KIDS FEST

- Free community event to shine a light on foster care and child abuse prevention
- Held during National Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month at White Hall City Park

OUTREACH

- Social Media, Speaking Engagements, Events

ARFOSTER.CARE