

Steps to Becoming a Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractor aka Notary Signing Agent in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, DC

Thursday, April 18, 2019	Thursday, May 23, 2019
Thursday, June 20, 2019	Thursday, July 18, 2019
Thursday, August 22, 2019	Thursday, September 19, 2019

What Is It Like to Conduct a Mortgage Document Closing?

Calling ALL Prospective Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractors a/k/a Notary Signing Agents!

The Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractor (TIPIC) aka Notary Signing Agent (NSA) profession has developed into a viable opportunity for Notaries Public seeking to earn part-time or fulltime income. As an independent contractor, Notaries Public can assist in home loan closings by contracting document signing services with “closing agents” to ensure that real estate loan documents are properly signed by the borrower, notarized by the Notary and returned to the closing agent for processing in a timely manner.

Class Requirements

Anyone seeking to learn more about becoming a TIPIC or NSA in Maryland, Virginia, or Washington, DC, can attend. Information covered will allow you to make an informed decision if this profession is right for you and/or someone else you may know who may be interested in earning part-time or fulltime income.

This 90-minute session covers:

- Educational requirements
- Benefits of the profession
- Start-up and maintenance costs

After taking this class, you will be able to:

- Select pre-licensing company offering
- Determine short- and long-term costs
- Follow the steps to becoming a NSA/TIPIC

Date: Select a date from above. • Time: 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm • Cost: $22.00
Attend informational session by Webinar from your desk top computer, smart device or telephone.

[Please note: A 5-minute webinar “test” session using your device will occur prior to webinar date]

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!

Have questions? Email Elaine Wright Harris - thedeskofelainewright@comcast.net

Share this flyer with a friend.