Subject: Response to Mr. Christopher Knight's soliloquy on LACMA article dated May 19, 2019.
Titled: Concrete Reverberations Awaiting – LACMA.

To the Los Angeles Times editorial – reflect, public response to the articles.

Mr. Christopher Knights' reviews are well written and referenced. However, let's wait until Mr. Peter Zumthor the "echt," architectural artist will finish his LACMA project. Celebratory opening, heralded by two story high California Orange velvet curtain.

Then, under the real human experience, we have a sleepover at the gallery stage (Pajamas optional). Artist Antonio Cittero will design diamond shaped bed, eight sleep comfortably.
