FUN FACTS

THINGS MIGHT NOT YET KNOW

- São Bento Station:

Often regarded as one of the most beautiful train stations in the world, São Bento Station is renowned for its stunning azulejos (blue and white tiles) that depict scenes from Portuguese history, making it a must-see for any visitor.

- The Inspiration Behind Hogwarts:

While many believe that the enchanting Lello Bookshop inspired J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter series, it unfortunately did not; however, the sight of university students in their robes may have influenced her design for the iconic Hogwarts uniforms.

- Port Wine's Origin:

Porto is famous for its Port wine, a delightful fortified wine that carries the city's name across the globe. Interestingly, all Port is produced in the picturesque Douro Valley and then transported to Vila Nova de Gaia, located just across the Douro River from Porto, where you'll find the renowned Port wine cellars.

- The Francesinha Experience:

No trip to Porto would be complete without trying the Francesinha, a hearty sandwich inspired by French toast. Packed with layers of meat and topped with a rich tomato and beer sauce, it's traditionally served with fries. Sharing a Francesinha is considered quite rude, so be prepared to enjoy this indulgent dish all on your own!
