A still life photograph featuring a central arrangement of flowers in a textured, cylindrical vase. The bouquet includes green ferns, yellow pom-pom flowers, and branches with white buds. To the right, a round clock with a pink face and black hands is partially visible. In the foreground, a table covered with a patterned cloth holds a white cup filled with dark liquid, a smaller white cup, and a brush with a wooden handle and a dark, textured head. The background consists of a wall with a woven, diamond-patterned texture.

A rustic Christmas tree constructed from natural materials. The base consists of three thick, dark brown sticks arranged in a tripod shape. The main body of the tree is a dense, conical arrangement of thinner, light brown sticks and branches. Interspersed among the sticks are several pinecones of various sizes and orientations, some showing their characteristic brown scales. The overall appearance is natural and textured. The tree is set against a plain, light-colored wall and sits on a wooden floor.
