

Appearance Guidelines for Heirs

As the public face of the International Court Council, all Heirs of the America's shall maintain formal dress code while attending state functions/visits. Formal attire is not required for non-state functions/visit. Medallions are required at all times during a coronation weekend.

Female Presenting:

- Evening gowns, no slits or high low hem lines. If wearing a sleeveless gown coordinating evening gloves shall be worn throughout the evening. (Gloves may be removed during dinner, no gauntlet type gloves).
- When wearing long sleeves evening gloves are not mandatory only in the event painted nails are worn, i.e., acrylic. (This does not include clear or nude polish on nails and unmanicured hands)
- Appropriate and complementing jewelry should be worn.
- Heirs Robe and sash (should sash be required) must be worn to enter the ball room, and during presentation of Heirs. Sash drapes from left shoulder to right hip and may not have any pins brooches etc. On your heirs robe you may ONLY have a Nicole pin, a Terry pin, and ONE pin representing your Court, NO other pins allowed. (Heirs may change after the presentation of Heirs)
- Updo's shall be mandatory, no hair on the neck (including buns, bumps etc) no halfway down styles.
- All crowned titles shall always wear a crown/tiara while in official state dress.
- Behavior appropriate of an Heir Apparent shall be maintained while representing the International Court Council.
- Medallions of Office shall be worn at all times when representing The International Court Council including Hospitality, Victory Brunch, etc. .
- Medallions may be worn on a brooch, leather lanyard, (red and gold), or complimenting lanyard or chain.

Male Presenting:

- A tux (with complementing bow tie and cummerbund may be worn), or dress uniform.
- Coordinating gloves shall be worn. (Gloves may be removed during dinner)
- Appropriate and complementing jewelry may be worn.
- Hair shall be styled and appropriate for an Heir Apparent.
- Heirs Robe and sash (should sash be required) must be worn to enter the ball room, and during presentation of Heirs. Sash drapes from left shoulder to right hip and may not have any pins brooches etc. On your heirs robe you may ONLY have a Nicole pin, a Terry pin, and ONE pin representing your Court, NO other pins allowed. (Heirs may change after the presentation of Heirs)
- All crowned titles shall always wear a crown/tiara while in official state dress.
- Behavior appropriate of an Heir Apparent shall be maintained at all times while representing the International Court Council.
- Medallions may be worn on a brooch, leather lanyard, (red and gold), or complimenting lanyard or chain.

*As many Courts invite the Heirs in attendance to join in their crowning ceremony, please know that you are expected to wear your Heir robe, and present behavior appropriate of an Heir when you join in the crowning ceremony. You are NOT required to participate in crowning ceremonies.