

DIRIGO SAFETY, LLC

TRAFFIC, WORKPLACE, PUBLIC SAFETY ADVOCATES

February 26, 2019

0800-1600

AT

Bangor Police Department
240 Main Street
Bangor, ME

OPEN TO ANY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Patrol Response to Major Crimes and Homicides

This three-part class is designed to assist patrol officers in responding to major crimes and understanding the importance of the first steps of any major crimes investigation.

Part (1) Actual response and scene containment. This section reviews legal and liability concerns of emergency response to major crimes and tactical / evidence concerns for first arrival. Included is an overview segment on what responding officers need to know about Fentanyl safety.

Part (2) Discusses the initial actions of patrol and the investigation of Major Crimes including: Homicide, Child Deaths, Suicides, Missing Persons, Robberies, GSA, Police Use of Deadly Force, and more.

Part (3) reviews legal issues and practical skills necessary for on-scene interviews and interrogation of victims, witnesses, and suspects.

Primary Instructor: Lt. Brian T. McDonough, Ret. Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit

Assisting Instructors: Scot Mattox, Esq. former Portland PD Tactical Enforcement Sergeant and Attorney Mike Cunniff, 27 years with the Federal DEA investigating criminal drug conspiracies and violence.

This one-day class is $99.

Register Here:

<https://dirigosafety.com>

A Constitutional Perspective
Understanding the Constitutional underpinnings of these investigations will increase your effectiveness in proving all cases.

Quality Training

This training is taught by law enforcement officers and attorneys who are experienced at the Municipal, State and Federal level. Collectively they have over 75 years of law enforcement experience and hundreds of criminal investigations of nearly every variety.