

TRAPPED

THE SUSPICIOUS CASE OF ZOË SAPP

ABOUT THE NOVEL

Suicides amongst adolescents and young adults are at an all-time high. However, when facts point to foul play the black community suspects that random deaths are unjustly passed off as suicides.

“Gena”, a fiery journalist, sets out to uncover the truth, and is compelled to understand the driving force behind the death of Zoë Sapp, a college senior. Trapped contains several interviews with those closely connected to Zoë, and offers detailed accounts of the once vibrant, young woman. Gena’s ruthless probing unveils the adversity of Zoë’s past—from witnessing her mother’s death and spending five years in a crack house, to her spiritual awakening, which revitalized her and gave her life meaning.

Did Zoë fully recover from the hardships of her past, or did her heightened consciousness only temporarily drown out her previous suffering? Were first responders wrong? Was Zoë a victim of foul play, or a fatal accident? And would ignoring the truth mean turning a blind eye to the possibility of more racial injustice?

Follow the investigative journey to discover the details of Zoë’s death, the buried chaos of her past, and a failed quest to be near the one she loved most. Decide for yourself.

BOOK DETAILS

Paperback: 221 pages
Publisher: Airris Books (July 15, 2020)
Language: English
Dimensions: 6 x 9
Weight: 11.9 oz.
ISBN-13: 978-0-578-69019-3

CONTACT

Website | www.christineracheal.com
Email | christine@airrisbooks.com
Phone | 404.981.7763

@CRACHEALWRITES

CHRISTINE RACHEAL (RAY-SHELL)

Christine hails from Jacksonville, Florida, and is a graduate of Florida State University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Creative Writing. In 2010, she founded Airris Books, a consulting firm that helps new authors achieve their publishing goals. She resides in Atlanta with her husband, Larry, and their children.