

The Hand Off

Rex and Becka

Rex brought a small bag with him into the room of supplies he wanted for his night with the busty Becka. His admiration of her figure fueled a lot of scenes, he was prepared to act out as many as he could.

As soon as the door was closed behind Rex, he called out as he sat in a chair, "Where is my sexy as fuck slut?"

Becka stepped out from the bathroom in her yellow teddy with crotchless pantyhose to the ankles adorning her plush body.

Rex whistled and said, "Come here and let me look at what I paid for. Fuck you look good enough to eat, and trust me, I am going to eat you up!" He motioned for her to lean down for a kiss, as she did he felt up her large tits.

As Becka stood back up she looked down and saw the play money sticking out from between her tits, "You pay well, I count nine thousand dollars," she smirked.

"Twirl for me," he said while swirling his finger in the air.

He threw more board game money at her as she spun. He grabbed her ass on one of her go arounds, "Nice ass, it is all mine tonight my slut queen."

He stopped her from spinning as she was faced away from him. He stood and pushed his hard package up against her and roughly took ahold of her tits.

Rex began sucking on her neck and kissing her shoulders with force as he did deep tissue massages on her hanging covered breasts.

He let one go as he nibbled on her ear. His empty hand pushed aside the lacy panties and he buries his fingers between her pussy lips. "Cum, make that pussy coat my hand," he commanded as he slapped at her nipple repeatedly while he tugged on her ear lobe, breathing choppy and heavily.

"Tell me when you are going to cum," he insisted as he pushed her thighs apart and four finger fucked her hard and fast.

Becka was lost in the feeling and almost didn't tell him that she was losing it. "Now," is all she could squeak out.

Rex began slapping her wet bald pussy hard, he twisted her nipple and chanted in her ear. "You sexy slut, you love being used by men don't you. I intend to use you all night long. Sluts like you are so exciting. My slut for twelve hours to do with as I please. It will please me to make that body of yours mine. To slap it where I want to, to suck it where I want to, and fuck it however I want to. Nasty sluts like you with the great body to back it up are worth the money because we know you love it!"

Becka's body began to go weak as the first of many orgasms to come shattered her.

Rex held her up and pushed all four wet fingers into her mouth. "Good sluts clean up their messes. Wait til I sink my big cock in all of your holes and watch you clean me off. You hear me slut, this cock coming back out of your ass will have your saliva dripping off of it before the night is over," he continued to hold her up but smacked at both of her tits randomly as she moaned.

Becka's head fell back on his shoulder as she started to come again. The thought of being forced to suck his cock after he pulled out of her pussy or ass was a visual that sent her careening over the edge with a powerful implosion.

Rex pulled on a teat and leaned her forward slightly. He began slapping her ass, "This is my ass now. I am going to slap, suck, lick, bite and fuck this ass after I turn you over my knee pretty thing. That's what my slut wants isn't it, to be put over my knee and have these utters milked while I finger fuck and slap these cheeks. Tell me, tell me it is what my horny sexy slut wants," he growled as he forcefully manhandled her body.

Becka was barely able to say, "Yes, Please," before she came so hard that her knees gave way.

Rex quickly stopped her from falling by shoving four fingers back in her slippery pussy and throwing an arm over her chest. He guided her to the bed.

"No rest for my slutty girl. Head all the way up on the pillow. Spread those legs, hands on your fun bags," he gruffly commanded.

Rex climbed between her thighs and growled, "Your high priced whore scent is sexy as fuck woman! When my tongue touches your clit, I want you to slap those tits with everything that you have. And when I make any contact with your ass, I want you to pull on those huge nipples hard. You got it my slut?"

Rex reached into her pussy lips with both hands pulling them apart as he growled again.

Becka's clit twitched every time he growled. It made her feel like she was so desirable when he became an animal.

Rex pulled harder on her pussy lips, "I didn't hear you!" he pinched her swollen labia to get her attention.

“Yes!” she cried out at the shock of such an erotic feeling when he pinched and pulled at her lips.

Rex let out the loudest of growls yet and dove inside of her pussy. He licked and sucked, tongued and bit at her as he listened to her moan. He made sure he had not made contact with her clit; yet.

Rex climbed out of the greatest place on earth and went to the side of the bed.

“Suck my dick slut,” slap, the room echoed as he landed a perfect one on her pussy. The next slap was a wet one to her right tit as he pushed his cock deeper in her mouth when she gasped.

He slapped her pussy again and told her that his slut needed to take him “deeper in that pretty face of yours.”

Becka did her best to take the thick cock as far as she could. “Good girl, that’s it cocksucker, my slutty cocksucker, take it deep,” whack, her got both of her nipples in one shot. He pumped her mouth dozens of times repeatedly to the rhythm of flicks, taps and slaps to her nipples, jugs and twat.

Rex went back to her pussy and laid in up close and shoved her whole body til her head was against the headboard. He pressed his chin down on her mound, “Raise that ass up hard,” he snapped.

Becka did so quickly and cried out as his burly beard pierced her smooth skin in hundreds of tiny pricks. She screamed as he ground his prickly whiskers on the insides of her pussy lips, mmm, that tender pink stuff, that she has got to be feeling! He thought.

“Ready?” he asked but didn’t wait for an answer. He slammed into her clit and tormented it with his chin, grinding his jaw back and forth. He adjusted and locked his mouth around her clit and sucked hard, she jumped and squealed like she had been shocked. When he didn't hear her slapping her tits, he reached up and did it for her.

He sucked even harder, locked his teeth around the wet pearl and fought the grin making him lose his grip when the room chimed slap after slap from her hands.

Rex pushed three fingers into her pussy and fucked her as he clenched his teeth around her clit. The movement yanked on the clit causing her to cry out, she tried to keep slapping her breasts but was losing the strength.

Rex released her pussy from his grasp, looked up but could barely see parts of her face due to her huge sacks in the way. "From now until I tell you to stop, you are to call out what I am doing to you and tell me that you love it. And just because I am a bastard with a hot piece of ass below me, tell me to do it harder, understood?" he called out.

He could tell she shook her head so he reached up with his wet hand and slapped a nipple, "I can't hear that pretty face shake and I know it isn't full of cock so that you can't speak!" He grabbed a handful of cum and dripped it on her nipple as she watched. "Suck it off, Now!" "Good slut, suck that tit right between those lips, you look good on a bitch's tit, too bad I can't make you do that, eat some pussy and chomp on some lactating boobs. Fuck that would be hot, I should be taking pictures of my slut sucking tit! Sam would wack off to them, right on your face!"

Rex slammed fingers back in her pussy and fucked her so hard that her body rocked on the bed as she groaned.

"Get on your knees slut," he said as he climbed away from her.

He lifted her calves and slid under her, his left hand gripped onto the protruding clit. He lowered her enough that his raging hard on poked at her abdomen. He slapped her ass and then spread her thighs apart more. His left hand made the rounds of getting wet in her pussy, shoving it in her mouth and mauling a nipple. His right hand swatted random cheeks, and upper cut smacks to her open pussy, making sure to catch the clit at times.

He moved out from under her and put her back on her knees as he listened to her gulping air.

Rex reached in his bag and got the vibrating wand. "This has been in Lisa's pussy many times, and I may or may not have washed it today before it swirls in your pussy," he teased because he could.

He touched the insides of her knees with the large soft head as he put it on low. She began to coo and then she gasped when his tongue licked the crack of her ass. "MMMM, tastes like pussy," he called out.

He nestled in and began rimming her tiny hole much to her delight before he landed a slap to her ass.

Becka immediately knew what she did wrong, "I can feel you licking my ass hole and I like it, I want you to do more of that and deeper," she quickly called out.

Rex dove in and feasted on her tiny unused hole as he listened to her whine in pleasure. His tongue darted in and out and he nipped at the soft fleshy ass cheek nearby. "I like when you bite my ass cheeks," she yelled. Her mouth went dry from all of the panting, in her mind she could see every swipe of his tongue, every piercing, and every tickle.

He moved the large vibrator head to her clit, "I am not moving this off of your clit until you soak my hand." He turned the dial a bunch of times before pushing it on the magic button and dove back into her ass, sucking as hard as he could to make the soft tissue escape and be at his beck and call.

Becka tried to move away but soon realized he trapped her calves and couldn't get far with her head against the head board. It was too much, she was seeing stars as the vibration hit all sides of her clit and pussy while her tender ass cheeks took his beard stabbings by the hundreds.

She felt her stomach tighten, her hands and feet tingled, her nose itched, and her throat went dry as she came so hard visualizing from above what she looked like, a true whore loving it all, echoed in her head.

Rex dropped the vibrator and shoved the largest dildo from her bag, he had never seen one so big, it went right up her lubed twat. He pounded away as she clenched around it and around his two fingers that were fucking her ass whether she realized it or not yet.

He rammed her pussy over and over as he worked his way from three fingers to four inside her tight backside. She was so far gone that he was sure she had no idea, if he were to guess she rolled atleast three orgasms right into each other.

Rex pulled the dildo out and replaced it with his cock to lube up. He gently fucked her pussy as he was splashed by her fluids. He let her calm down slightly and then moved to push the head of his cock in her ass. It met little to no resistance as he used his hips to lean forward and use his weight to penetrate her.

Becka realized what was happening and admitted to herself that she panicked a little. She did not want to yell out to have him go hard or deeper as she was told to do, fear took hold of her. "I feel your dick going in my ass. It scares me because I have never had anyone touch my ass, please go slowly, please fuck my ass without hurting me," he could hear the concern in her voice.

He placed a hand on her spine, rubbed her back and said, "I am going to stop right here, when you are ready to be my sexy ass fucking slut, push back on me." He reached his hand to her overused pussy and scooped more liquid to coat his dick.

He saw her arch her back and then start to straighten it out, "All good whores love things stuffed up their asses. Some take giant cucumber dildos, some long carrot dildos, the best ones take big juicy dicks and ask to be fucked. Are you one of the best?" he taunted and used her desires to push her.

She pushed on him as much as she could, the tension on the little hole was so much for her. Becka refused to lose ground and stayed right where she was as the minutes ticked by.

Rex couldn't reach the lube and knew he needed to pull out before he dried out.

"Now it is time for that pussy to feel me for days," he said as he laid across the bed and urged her to straddle his face as she looked at his cock too far away to suck. He pulled down hard on her hips, forcing her pussy wide as he buried his beard deep inside of her. He slapped at her ass, and finger fucked it. She was sure that he tried to suck her clit off of her body as his whiskers stabbed her repeatedly.

Becka began to rock on his face, she knew she was close to an epic eruption from all of the sensory overloads. Her hands gripped his abdomen and dug in as her body let loose. She knew he wanted to gag and she fought to not lose her ability to hear him gurgle on her as she washed over his face.

Rex swallowed and swallowed, moaned and sucked, his nose filled and fluids ran into his ears, fuck yes, I am going to drown in a fucking cum bath, he excitedly thought.

When she had slowed to a manageable dripping and his right ear itched, he released her thighs and she wobbled before she stood up.

“Time for some tittie play, let’s give that pussy and ass some recovery time while I whoop up on those jugs,” he announced as he played with her pussy and used that lube to coat her backdoor.

It almost made Becka laugh when she envisioned her ass slamming shut once nothing was in there. Her pussy throbbed knowing he was going to use her tits, it always made her come so very hard and often.

“Sit in this chair and hold this behind your head,” he handed her a couch cushion. He admired how she looked, her elbows in the air as her hands were pulled down behind her gripping tightly onto the cumbersome pillow. The position jutted her chest out perfectly for the objects of his desires to be on full display.

He opened her bag of toys and one by one, laid them along the edge of the bed.

“Tell me slut, what do you want me to do with this?” he asked as the flogger strips flowed gently across his palm over and over.

Becka felt powerful and in charge even though she was being a sexually needy slut for him. “I want you to lightly slap at all of the sides of my breasts. I like when it stings just a little and you will know because light pink stripes show up. The nipples are the driving force for my orgasms with the flogger, I have been denied coming many times when they were avoided,” she wanted him to know the consequences and control he had over her. “Just as constant attention to them has caused me to pass out from orgasming for too long without breaking the cycles,” she added.

Rex shook his head in acceptance of what she explained. He saw her arms tense when she expected him to begin. Evil felt like his middle name when he stood the handle up snugly between her thighs and turned for another device.

He held up two weird suction cup looking tubes that actually did confuse him.

“Those are to elongate the nipples. It makes them more sensitive and suckable, easier targets for the flogger. They were stretched out with those the last time I passed out because he left them on for a long time while he fucked my tied up tits,” Becka explained wishing she could hump the handle so close to her pussy.

“Does he tie them up and fuck them and then pull out to fuck that beautiful whore face?” Rex asked as he began winding the rope around like the how to videos he had watched.

“Actually, Sam is so long that he can come from underneath and I can suck him while he is buried up through them as they are snugly stroking him. It is one of our favorite things to do,” she dreamily shared.

The tension was already building in her chest as the rope was reforming her breasts to be longer and stick out more.

“How is that? They look fucking amazing, and the color,” he said as he flicked a nipple causing her to squeal. It rather shocked him how sensitive they were all of the sudden, it concerned him that he would be too rough.

“Drop the pillow, pick up the flogger, I want to watch you slap your tits with it,” Rex said as he stroked his dripping dick.

He watched, stunned at how hard she hit herself. He couldn't possibly do that to her, it looked barbaric, but hot as hell to know she was getting off on it.

"Stop," he suddenly shouted.

He picked up a nipple sucker and forced her legs apart. He attached it to her clit and pumped it forcefully as she cried out the pleasure it brought to her.

He left it in place and told her to stand up. With a grunt she did and he coated the smallest butt plug he had in his bag. Flicking her encased clit to make her cry out and focus on that spot, he pushed the plug in her ass and told her to sit back down.

Panting and struggling to breathe as she sat, he watched her eyes fly open when she felt the intrusion in her ass. She knew it was not pain, it was actually like an itch that was finally scratched.

Rex knelt in front of her and sucked and pulled on her nipples until she came. He stood, pushed his cock in her mouth and fucked her face, "Take it whore, you love it don't you, all tied up, getting used by a man that is not your husband, suck it, suck that big cock," he chanted at her as he used her mouth.

Without warning he pulled away from her lips and thrust between her snug fitting breasts. He held on to her nipples as he rammed his dick for friction on the softness, "Spit on my dick, that's it, keep spitting," the liquid making it feel incredible.

He watched her and tried to decide where he was going to leave his load before they went for some much needed rest. Suddenly, a scene played out in his head and he simply had to have it.

He untied the end of the rope. He was shown in the videos that this part is the most thrilling and impactful for the woman as the blood rushes back into the mams. She can come over and over if it is done quickly with other stimulation to the nipples and flesh.

Rex told her to grab his shaft like a holding a golf club up in the air. He yelled for her to stroke and with both hands he unwrapped her as quickly as he could while his knee tapped her pussy and the suction device.

Becka cried out non-stop as the orgasms flowed right into each other. She saw the rope fall to the floor as she struggled to keep stroking and then felt his hand on top of hers.

Rex stroked her hands pushing his helmet deep into a nipple. He slapped the reddish-purple flab and flicked the other nipple just to watch her completely fall apart. The sweat from her hair was dripping down to her breasts, the inside of her thighs were wet and quivering. The whole picture was too much, and his dick released a torrent of fluids on her that dripped down to her crotch.

He leaned down to grip both of her hands and pull her up to him. Her eyes were barely open, but her smile was bright and warmed his heart. Rex felt like he gave her what she desired from her list and was damned proud of it. He knew his list was complete, for sure.

He helped her get in bed, his cum dripping off of her as she snuggled in. He got a warm wash cloth and cleaned her up before he covered her with a blanket. He was still trying to calm his breathing down as he gathered toys from the bed, put the chair back, and put used toys in the bathroom sink. One deep breath was all it took to use up the last of his energy, he crawled in bed behind her. He so badly wanted to cuddle her enormous tits but after the attention they got he felt they should be too sensitive, and he did not want to cause her any kind of pain she didn't crave.

For a couple of hours, they slept soundly. Rex awoke to Becka laying between his legs and licking his balls. He realized he hadn't been dreaming, she had been at it for quite a while, he was soaked in her spit. He loved watching her in the low lighting from the bathroom.

Her saliva seeped past his balls to accumulate around his ass, he liked the feeling but knew if it was his wife, she would eat his ass and make him cry out for his maker. The thought of it hardened his cock even more. He moaned loudly and Becka took that as her cue that he was awake enough. She turned on the vibrator that was nestled beneath her. She rolled it around on his balls, deep into the side crevasses to his thighs. The wetness allowed her to fuck between his balls as he had done to her tits, he squealed and delighted, visible by the fountain of pre-cum that she watched flow and rehydrate his sack.

She capped his dick with her mouth, sucking hard to withdraw his fluids as her vibrator made its way to his ass. Becka smiled around his hard cock as he moved his legs, essentially begging to have his ass punctured by her.

She fucked him with the thin wand and tried to gauge his tolerance before he could lose his load. Her whole plan hinged on stopping before he could come.

Becka got apprehensive about going too fast or for too long and withdrew. "Get up and stand at the end of the bed," she demanded.

Rex gave a chuckle, "Look who decided to take charge, Yes, ma'am, on my way."

"Holy Fuck, you have impressed me!" he gasped. In front of him was a plugged ass. However, during the night she managed to up the size to a much larger plug to accommodate him. His heart fell in his stomach, he had to pinch the head of his cock to calm himself down.

He grabbed the lube, coated his dick and around the dark blue plug with a diamond on the tip. He started working it out as she lay whining on her knees on the bed.

“I feel you moving the plug, yank it out and replace it. I want to feel your hot skin push through me, come in my ass as you fuck me for the last time. I need you, I need you to pierce me like you know I will never be filled again by such a strong penis. “U.G.H.” she slowly let slip from her lips. “That feels incredible, deeper, push deeper, I want to feel your hips on my ass cheeks,” “fuck,” she shouted.

Rex maintained a steady slow speed as she howled about how incredible it felt for him to be buried in her ass. I created a monster, he thought as her sailor mouth rambled, giving his need to come a higher priority the more she swore and begged.

With a loud growl, followed by a deep grunt, his cock twitched and shook deep inside of her as her body snapped down on him. He was held inside of her with no option other than to flood her with his lust. Squirt after squirt he filled her and was not able to withdraw until her orgasm subsided and she loosened up.

He fell forward onto her back as his wilting member fell from inside of her. “Like a bitch in heat for sure!” he teased as he laughed and fell to the side.

She leaned over and kissed his cheek, “Thank you, tonight was incredible. We need not volunteer that we missed the deadline for you to come by ten minutes,” she laughed and collapsed down like a cat stretching out.

“I think I started to come eleven minutes ago but somebody had a vice grip on my dick and didn’t let me finish til after the deadline, so I say we are safe,” he said, running little kisses on her side boob as it was squished out from underneath her.

Rex got up for another warm wash cloth and washed between her cheeks, “I suppose I was the slut at the end here so I will clean up my mess I left in your behind,” he said as he wiped gently and laid kisses on her ass cheeks.
