

The Hand Off

Rex and Sue

Rex was surprised to find that the curtains were not drawn closed although no one could see in the room from the parking lot. He still felt it showed Sue had a bit of an exhibitionist side.

She was sprawled open on the love seat, her white cotton shorts sticking to her pussy. He reached out to touch the wet cloth. Rex went far too slowly for Sue. She lay still as his fingertips walked around tapping at her aching pussy. Her mind was screaming at him, harder damn it.

Rex knelt down between her legs and cupped her ass cheeks. He growled as he sunk his face into her covered pussy as he kneaded deep with his fingers.

His beard pierced through the soaked shorts causing little stabs that thrilled her. Just as she was on the verge of coming, he backed away. Sixth sense strikes again, he nearly announced.

Rex lifted Sue up, flipped her over and put her knees to the edge of the cushion. He began kissing the back of her neck. As soon as he heard her purr, he reached around and grabbed both of her nipples.

She screamed out as she began her much needed orgasm. Rex gave a firm twist to her nipples and quickly grabbed her shorts, sending them to her knees. He buried his face in her ass before she came down from her high.

With one hand tightly holding a breast, his other hand gripped on to her clit as his tongue pierced her virgin ass.

Sue bucked and soon realized she was thrusting herself on to a tongue for the first time ever. Sue's mind was blown at the incredible feeling of him climbing inside of her there. Her implosion was epic.

Rex continued an all out assault of lapping, sucking, and rimming her ass. He left her tit only to use his other hand on the other sensitive nub. His free hand buried itself inside of her pussy, wiggling, ramming, and flicking with an occasional pinch.

When his penetration went deep in both of her holes, she began to shake as the feeling overwhelmed her senses. Her abdomen tightened so hard she couldn't bend, couldn't move. Rex reached his fingers up to Sue's mouth and hung them off of her teeth, her saliva pouring down his arm as she moaned like a fucking whore, she thought.

Rex was incredibly turned on by Sue's response to him pleasing himself with her body.

As Sue collapsed downward, Rex picked her up and carried her to the bed. He placed her head on the pillow and laid down next to her shaking body. His hard cock pressed firmly against her thigh as he watched her try to calm her body down.

Sue reached her hand to her side to caress his shaft.

Her hand felt cold on his hot throbbing member. He drew circles on her pussy lips, dragging her juices up to her belly. He dipped his fingers deep inside of her and brought them to her areolas. Over and over her breasts got wetter and wetter as she stroked him.

He leaned in and kissed her as he lightly pinched her clit. Rex kissed her hard and deep as his fingers moved to fill her pussy. The next time as she caressed his long thin rock hard dick, he put his fingers to her mouth.

Rex told her to suck as he pushed his fingers past her lips to her tongue. He leaned further and took a hold of her nipple with his lips.

He sucked and tongued her rapidly as she stroked him, the suction from her mouth was strong on all four fingers wiggling about.

The sensitivity of him sucking on her breasts was too much for her, she lost her composure again. Flailing, jolting, and flopping as he struggled to keep her nipple between his teeth once he moved his thumb into her pussy and his four wet fingers played with her ass hole.

He watched as her eyes closed and exhaustion claimed her. Looking at his hardon he thought, soon buddy, you will be just as wiped out as she is, patience.

Rex covered Sue with a light blanket and lay next to her watching her breasts rise and fall as she slept. He created an idea of what he wanted to do to her once she awoke. His need to play with her body far outweighed his need for his cock to come. He wanted to watch her fall to pieces over and over. Her breasts reactions to his ministrations stirred his loins on a deeper level than he ever imagined. I wonder if her ass will be equally as responsive, wouldn't that be something if splitting her open with my fingers and cock caused her to lose her control again.

His cock was dripping if not flowing as he awaited using Sue. He ran a finger through the clear fluid coming out of his slit and lightly traced lines on her areola's. The next swipe went as dot on top of each nipple, so thick that it didn't even slide off. He drew patterns on her soft full breasts leaving glistening trails, leaving him longing to lick them all up.

Rex moved two fingers to her pussy lips, so soft and wet, he slowly peeled them apart to rest inside. When she still had not stirred, he lay his tongue on a nipple, bursting the bubble of pre-cum as he began to squeeze her clit.

He watched her face as pleasure took over but not enough to wake her. Carefully, he abandoned her, now he had a new task, to begin eating her pussy as she comes back to life and spills into his mouth.

Rex successfully got between her legs, angled the knees out, and reached out with his tongue as far as he could. He knew his beard would wake her immediately and wanted to wait until he was rubbing her raw while she cried out just as his wife always did. Apparently, beard burn is a thing and a much enjoyed thing.

Swipe after swipe, his dick grew harder and harder. Smelling her arousal made his ass twitch. It was getting more and more difficult to hold back, he wanted to face scrub her in the worst way!

He began pushing one finger at a time deep into her pussy. Each time he pulled out to switch fingers a flood of juices flowed to her ass, delighting him immensely.

He could no longer take it and put his hands inside of her thighs and lifted them up. He buried his face to her open pussy and ate a meal fit for a king. His tongue dipped lower to rim her ass over and over before devouring her and giving her the scrubbing every woman deserved.

Her thighs were tight around his head so he had not heard her moaning and calling out his name as she panted. Her hands stayed on her own breasts, holding the still during all of the thrashing about that he was doing down below. Her mind was a mess, she was not sure where to concentrate on, by the time she was heaving from the pointy beard pricks that felt beyond amazing, his tongue was in her ass, then he was biting down on her clit, how is it he seems to be everywhere?

Rex knew she awoke at some point in the mayhem and was ready for her to fill his cheeks with her juices. He curled his hand, pushed two fingers inside her tight ass, shoved another two fingers in her pussy as his thumb toggled her clit hard and fast. He had leaned up to watch her as she looked at him through the center of her two breasts. "Pull your nipples up high for me, come for me precious Sue," he called out and dove his head down to her pussy as he fucked her ass hard, wiggling three wet fingers as deep as he could go.

Her body flinched and tightened and flowed to his delight. She got embarrassed at hearing him swallowing loudly, knowing it was her pussy juices spewing out.

"I need dick, fuck, Rex I need your dick in my mouth, please, please," she screamed, probably too loud for being at a hotel.

Rex gave one final face shake to make her pussy remember him and his beard since he did not know if he would make it back. He desperately needed to feel her mouth on him and to feel himself inside of her ass.

He pushed up using his arms, his face literally dripping on her as he moved up her body. He stayed over her breasts for an extended amount of time to coat them in her deliciousness. Then he moved to her mouth where he made out with her, making sure she got a good sample of how wonderfully she lit up the taste buds.

Rex lay his head on the pillow and Sue immediately started licking down his body. She stopped at his fur covered chest and took a nipple into her lips. Her pussy lay across his cock, pinning it between them as she nibbled and sucked his nipple as his wife said he liked.

Little did he know they had shared things about their men, things like her next move that made him almost lose his load between their bodies. With a nipple tightly between her lips and teeth, she added pressure and then plucked a chest hair from him as her tongue flicked back and forth.

“Oh, fuck,” he yelled. Lisa had told the gals that he liked a bit of pleasurable pain, and one hair was all it took to get him right to the edge.

“Two can play at that game,” he called out as he leaned forward and slapped her ass cheek with one hand as he tapped a squished breast with the other.

Sue jumped and landed just past his proud mast standing tall.

With what Rex thought was a rather evil look in her eye, she got up on her knees, grabbed ahold of his cock and mounted him to the hilt. The pressure was so much that he sat straight up. He pulled her face down to him for kiss and worked his way down her jawline to her neck. Rex whispered in her ear as his hands circled her ass, explaining his intentions of the cock she had kidnapped and how it was going up her ass before the morning.

Her breathing was harsh and strangled as he played with her hole while she remained motionless on his dagger. She stopped breathing when a wet finger from each hand was pushed inside of her ass and began pulling her apart.

Sue’s head fell to Rex’s shoulder as her chest heaved at the full feeling. “You want me to bury myself inside of your ass don’t you Precious? Fill this tiny hole full of man meat so you can tell Old Ivan all about how I stuffed it and you loved it. He already gets to hear about my tongue fucking your little virgin hole, how you screamed, came and essentially passed out. Much like you did when you went for a beard ride, you liked that didn't you, you like yelling out like a whore escaping a good girls mind," he taunted.

"I want you to get up off of my cock and turn around. We are going to use all this nice pussy juice on my dick to pave the way for you sitting this sweet ass on me. Come on, up you go like a good slut would. A bad girl wants her ass fucked while she plays with her pussy and comes while she is bouncing her ass cheeks up and down," Rex urged as he rocked her body using the fingers still buried in her ass.

She stood up, turned around and slowly lowered her body. Rex reached up and held her hole open again as she got closer to the head. It was all he could do not to bust a nut as he watched the helmet disappear as he pulled his fingers out and used one hand to steady his quivering dick.

Sue growled and snarled like a trapped animal as she forced herself down on him. Never had she wanted anything more in her life than to wedge him inside of her. You have got this Susie, Ivan and Sam might be too wide and this could be your only chance to do it, push , push, fucking push girl! her mind screamed.

Rex watched intently as she rocked herself. He played with her pussy and coated his dick to make it easier for her.

Sue grunted as she got a few inches from his thighs, struggling to get lower but she just couldn't do it, her thighs on her calves stopped her.

Rex sat up and held her breasts for leverage, tapping on the nipples, he called out close to her ear. "Your choice, you can go up some, I can grab me some more pussy slime for my dick and you can come back down again. Or, this is as far as your tight little body can take me and it becomes your choice, do you want me to finish myself off in your ass. Or, I wash up to fuck your pussy or mouth. I can fuck you where you sit for quite a while without blowing my load, so you decide,” he put his hand over her pussy and pinned her clit between two fingers.

Rex began humming the “jeopardy” tune and twisted her clit in time with it. Sue was so turned on and yet ready to burst into laughter, her head was spinning.

Sue started a mini-bounce, she pushed off with her palms on her thighs. “Talk dirty to me Rex, I want to hear aloud what we are doing,” Sue begged as she felt his hot breath on her neck, his cock inside a hole that had never been filled before and his fingers teasing her pussy.

Rex was used to talking very dirty to Lisa, but Sue was so pure and innocent compared to his wife. With a lump in his throat, he decided to give her what she wanted. “Bounce that fine ass on my cock. I bet you can feel it way the fuck up in there, your hole stretched open like a bad girl. You want Remy to slam up into you, slap these tits so hard they feel it tomorrow. You want me to flick that clit and make it wiggle, are you ready, here it comes, I have a whore on my lap who can’t get enough of my dick fucking her, look at you, your pure white skin, no one would ever know you like it dirty would they, huh, you like when I put four finger in that cunt? Are you going to come for me while I twist this nipple and fuck that pussy while you fuck your ass. You need Remy’s hard cock shoved up there don’t you,” he slid his hand from her breast to her throat. “Some whores like to be choked, I just put my hand on you like this and squeeze while I slam my hips up into you and make you scream while my hand tries to fist that little bitty pussy,” he had no intention of fisting or choking but he was willing to talk the talk.

Sue lost her grip on reality, she started calling out words that made no sense. Rex moved from her throat up to her lips and covered her mouth to quiet her down as she yelled. His fingers were sloshing around as her body released more and more come, her clit pulsing under his thumb.

Rex was able to stave off coming in her ass as she clamped down on his fingers and cock. As her body began to slacken he put a hand under each armpit and lifted her to his side.

He jumped up, pulled her to her knees at the edge of the bed and slammed into her drenched pussy. Oh fuck, he is so long, he hit my cervix! She hoped she said in her head only.

Rex rode her hard, "Look at this gaping hole back here winking at me Sue. You little ass whore, a big giant hole where a tiny little star used to be. From now on you are going to need something shoved in this hole right here when old Ivan fucks you. You tell him I said to plug you with his thumb like this," Rex shoved a thumb all the way in and gripped her ass cheek hard with his fingers. "Come on me Precious, make that pussy tingle and explode on my rod, coat my balls, I know you have one more in you, I am gonna fuck you til morning if I have to, I am not gonna stop fucking you until I am covered in you!" Rex slammed into her as he held her hips.

Rex was close and needed to push her over the edge again. He reached below her and grabbed her tits. He began milking them like a cows utters as he gave her the pussy pounding of a lifetime.

Sue felt the wave rush over her. Her toes curled, her nose ran, her ass bore down on the intruding thumb and from somewhere deep down inside of her an explosion rocked her entire world and clenched every part of her being.

Rex cried out as he was squeezed by a pussy he would never see again. His dick rammed her cervix over and over until he started shrinking yet still thrusting. He could not remember the last time he ejaculated for that long.

Sue plunged forward and a loud suction noise echoed in the room as Rex's cock was yanked out of her.

He fell to the side of her and crawled up to a pillow. It was her turn to cover his body with a blanket. She felt overheated and sated, more than a little sated, I mean dammmmn, she thought.

Sue lay naked and sweaty wishing the air conditioner would kick on. After a few minutes she decided a shower was the only way she was going to cool down.

Once she felt better, she climbed in bed with Rex and snuggled up to him. She fell asleep listening to his odd pattern of snoring and didn't awaken until the first alarm went off signaling them both to get up and prepare to leave.
