Instructional Training Video Verification Form

Orientation & Mobility (O&M) Instructors are required to watch the instructional O&M Skills video created in partnership with the Institute Nazareth & Louis-Braille.

Video link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R6TO8YGCX0w>

Certification of Viewing

By completing this form, you confirm that you have fully watched the instructional video and understand the key Orientation & Mobility concepts demonstrated.

Name of O&M Instructor: _____

Name of Student: _____

Multiple-Choice Verification Question

Why must a guide dog candidate be able to travel confidently in unfamiliar environments before receiving a guide dog? (Circle one)

- A. Because guide dogs are trained to automatically know every new route the student will travel.
- B. Because guide dogs cannot make navigation or safety decisions, and the handler must be able to orient and travel independently even in new places.
- C. Because unfamiliar environments are easier for guide dogs to work in than familiar ones.
- D. Because guide dog training focuses only on travel in rural areas.

By signing below, you certify that you have watched the instructional video in full and completed the verification question independently.

Signature of O&M Instructor: _____

Date: _____
